

... would be, or should proposed. If any gen- d a house for himself and avail of his assist- not do for himself he r, hear); but a thought red it would meet the ce it before the board. ertise for an architect ies at a salary of £40 a resolution to that ed the resolution, and hand upon five or six ould superintend their week. These men to of works, and super- buildings in this city. e was entirely opposed vention of an architect, tter a salaried architect one to whom a regular and, therefore, he would eived in answer to the t be read in order to as- proposed. s from Messrs. Fogerty, Cox. n the terms proposed by ajority of the guardians stand, and which the lt to comprehend. following amendment of ifficulty of understanding hitects now handed in, advertisement be ordered, the duties of architect to e per centage to include ications, reports, and in- orks, and no charge for notion, which, being put carried. was then put, but was ne- to the board that, as the e addition to the hospital d, and the services of an rintend the work, as the ecessarily elapse before the answered would be a most ed to, and then came the ongst the several candi- r this purpose, and Mr. e being equal in point of hen there voted for Mr. d, 7. irected to take charge of eceeded with it at once. hysician, reported to the ied by the contractor for very inferior, and such as gracious!! are our poor icine? se I would not use it, and ght this matter before the e supplied is inferior, and ractor, Mr. Fisher, alleges e at contract price.

R.N., H.M.S. Euryalus, of a son.
 At Calcutta, the wife of the Hon. Mr. Justice Morgan, of a son.
 At Rangoon, the wife of Major R. D. Ardagh, Madras Staff Corps, of a daughter.
 At Adelaide, South Anstralia, the wife of Commander John Hutchinson, R.N., Admiralty, of a son.
 On board the Noord Brabant, on her passage to Bombay, the wife of Lieutenant W. Collingwood, H.M.'s Indian Navy, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

In Dublin, Alan Parker, son of the late James S. Close, Esq., Q.C., of Derrymacloughney, county Galway, to Anna, daughter of Wm. Gibson, Esq., Stephen's-green, Dublin.
 At St. Michan's Church, Anne-street, Dublin, Mr. James Delany, of Limerick, to Kate, third daughter of Mr. John M'Grane, of Dublin.
 In Clontarf Church, Nicholas, son of the late Jas. Proude, Esq., to Marian Moorhead, daughter of the late M. Proude, Esq., both of Clontarf.
 At Ballinalea Church, Thomas Gambell, Esq., Lieutenant 86th Regt., son of the late Henry T. Rogers, Esq., of Surgeview, in the county Mayo, to Sophia Jeannette, daughter of Robert Gun, Esq., of Lakeview House, county Longford, late of the 44th Regt.
 At St. Anne's Church, Belfast, Mr. David Gillespie, Brookborough, county Fermanagh, to Annie Eliza, daughter of the late Thomas Macnamara, Esq., Newry.
 At Bryansford Church, Captain Gisborne Horner, G. C. Artillery, to Mary Anne, daughter of Wm. Beers, Esq., Newcastle, county Down.
 At Lackenham Old Church, Norwich, John Buckenham, Esq., late of Belfast, to Mary, daughter of Edward Roach, Esq., M.D., of Norwich.
 At Aldborough, Yorkshire, Charles Holroyd, Major Bengal Staff Corps, to Mary Florence, widow of the late Colonel S. F. Hannay, Bengal Army.
 At Halifax, Nova Scotia, John Ternan, Esq., M.D., Royal Navy, to Mary Anne, daughter of Wm. Pitts, Esq., merchant, Halifax.
 At Neufchatel, Switzerland, William Edney, Esq., Surgeon R.N., to Eliza Jane, daughter of the late Henry Brokenshir, Esq., of Penryn, Cornwall.

DEATHS.

At Fethard, county Tipperary, the Rev. Edward Marcus Dill, A.M., M.D., Presbyterian Minister of Clonakilty, county of Cork.
 At his residence, in the county of Limerick, at the venerable age of 104 years, Mr. Quaid, father of the Rev. P. Quaid, P.P., O'Callaghan's Mills.
 At Templemore, Catherine, daughter of the late Richard O'Connell, Esq.
 At Monkstown, Cork, Alice Katherine, daughter of Captain Hewitt Poole, of Mayfield, Cork.
 At Grand Parade, Cork, Kate Hamblin, daughter of Mr. H. Haines.
 At Merrion-square, Dublin, Mary Anne, wife of the Right Hon. A. Brewster.
 At Gardiner's-place, Dublin, Major Greer, D.L. and J.P., of Grange, county Tyrone.
 At Gardiner's-place, Dublin, Maria, relict of John Burke, of Ower, in the county Galway, Esq., J.P.
 At Gardiner's-place, Dublin, Julia, wife of Joseph Kelly, Esq., solicitor.
 At Upper Temple-street, Dublin, Dr. Alexander M'Donnell.
 At Lower Mount-street, Dublin, Charles Fitzgerald, Esq.
 At Lower Rutland-street, Dublin, Catherine, wife of Mr. Edward Doyle.
 At Callan, county Kilkenny, John Alexander, son of the late Wm. Allen, Esq., ex Recorder of Sligo.
 At Drogheda, suddenly, the Rev. E. Gore-Kelly, Vicar of St. Peter's, Drogheda.
 At North Queen-street, Belfast, Miss Susanna Thompson.
 At Maryborough, James Hill Kelly, Esq.
 At Longford-place, Monkstown, Mr. Thomas Robinson, of Aghenarget, Moate.
 At Leamington, Mary, relict of Wm. Burton, Esq., son of Sir Charles Burton, Bart., and the Hon. Lady Burton, of Pollerton, county Carlow.
 At Munster Lodge, Fulham, Esther, widow of the late Gen. Sir Wm. Macbean, K.C.B.
 At Clarence House, Cheltenham, Lieutenant-General David Barr, Bombay Army.
 At Sandown Bay, Isle of Wight, Elizabeth, wife of Major Smyth.
 At Calcutta, Selina Eliza, wife of Lieutenant-Colonel H. W. Norman, C.B.
 At Salvador, Samuel Burland, Esq., late H.B.M.'s Consul, and formerly of Liverpool.
 At Lahore, India, Richard Gregory Knight, Esq.

MR. JAMES HARRIS has just landed a quantity of extra Superior Barrel Flour, ex Grivi, direct from Montreal, and which he is selling out to Housekeepers who require pure Flour. Such quality is rarely for Sale in London. November 22.

Footman or In-door Servant

JUST disengaged a steady active young man perfectly understands his business, and is highly recommended. Has long and satisfactory charges - will be found strictly sober and at his duties.

Any commands to C. D., Post Office, I will be attended to.

BUTLER.

WANTED a situation as Butler, or as an Indoor Servant an active, steady, sober man, who understands his business without objection to town or country. Apply S. M. Office of this Paper. November 22.

Roses, Dutch Flower Roots, Trees, &c.
ALEXANDER CAMPBELL AND CHURCHILL NURSERIES, GLASGOW

AND SEED AND IMPLEMENT WAREHOUSE, 7, EDEN-QUAY, DUBLIN.

BE G to intimate to intending purchasers a Catalogue of Roses, Fruit Trees, Dutch Roots, Pelargoniums, Camellias, Azaleas, Epacris, Cinerarias, and other Greenhouse Carnations, Picotees, Pinks, Pansies, Chrysanthemums, &c., &c., is now published and had post free on application.

The various assortments will be found only the finest and most select varieties in the country. Early orders are most respectfully solicited, particularly in the case of Roses, Fruit Trees, Dutch Roots, &c., as November is the best month in which to plant.

A. G. and Sons have just received a quantity of samples of Early Seed Potatoes, and various other early sowing, to which they solicit attention. November 6.

Sheriff's Sale.

BY virtue of her Majesty's Writ of Fieri Facias, I will on TUESDAY, the 2nd of DECEMBER next, at Twelve o'Clock, noon, sell by PUBLIC AUCTION, the following Chattels at Ploughlands, Croom, seized in said Writ, viz:—

- One Rick of Hay,
- One Stack of Wheat,
- One Stack of Oats,
- Four Acres of Mangolds and Turnips
- And Two Acres of Barley.

Dated this 27th day of November
EDWARD CROFT
 G. J. H.

Sheriff of the County of London
 November 27, 1862.