

it all a correct idea about it. Pro-carried through the country on the you can imagine the price they fetch ow the latest prices, but nails, which or lb. here, cost there 16s. per lb.
 idea as to the very cost of living his season it required a man to be ent up to Carriboo with any chance every man had to look forward to 'prospect' for at least a month a good claim, and then might be he actually got the gold. When ned things will be very much better, hear, there is a good chance of the ed as far as Quesnell this autumn, le them to bring up provisions in in fifty miles of the diggings, and ns will be worked, which at the prices of provisions will not pay at ers who have returned, a good many a dismal failure, but many others, ie sensible ones, say what they suraging, that there is a great quan-l in the district, and that as soon as made they would try it again, al-lost everything this time. The pros-ce depends almost entirely on getouth up to Carriboo, and great exer-made by private persons to establish e of the numerous inlets, which run British Columbia. At the present s at Carriboo it will only pay to work ma, but I believe there are plenty of ducing £2 or £3 per dish for each rovisions are cheap there would be ex-. The accounts sent to the Times by mt never represented the difficulty of ry; the price of provisions was under-at, even if the statements about the nt of the gold fields were correct, he he truth. I have little doubt but considerable reaction in England to which prevailed about the Isle of it will do us no harm, but much ny seems likely to be inundated with winter, and I feel quite nervous when consequences. There is hardly any about the town, and only a limited labour, and a number of men will be the winter, when it will be impossible g. The Government, I believe, will to make in the island, but there will ortion. There are three ships and we hear that the Governor is at the notion. There is a consider-: servant girls, but very few of the find places or anything to do, and live back in England. I do not much emand for wives we hear of in Eng-ms a good many unmarried girls in expect the diggers are not marrying at the attempt stated to have been ife of Lonergan, the steward of Sir on, at Goulane, county Waterford, on of his own, without a particle of has since been arrested for the pur-amined by the magistrates, and it is time of his arrest, several threatening id on his person.

(King's Own) Regt., son of John Boyce, Esq., J.P., Carnew Castle, county Wicklow, to Charlotte Clementina Duckett, daughter of Richard M. Duckett, Esq., of Upper Mount-street, Dublin.
 At St. George's Church, Dublin, Richard King, jun., Esq., of Russell-street, to Annie, daughter of the late Hamilton Haire, Esq., of Glassdrummond, county Fermanagh.
 At the parish church of Delgany, county Wicklow, Commander Edwin J. Pollard, R.N., to Renira, daughter of Sir St.
 Vincent Hawkins Whitshed, Bart.
 At All Saints' Church, Knightsbridge, London, the Earl of Longford, K.C.B., to the Hon. Selina Rice Trevor, daughter of Lord Dynevor.
 At Harrington Church, Northamptonshire, Colonel Thomas Edward Taylor, M.P., of Ardgillan Castle, county Dublin, to Louisa Harrington, daughter of the Hon. and Rev. Hugh Francis Tollemache, rector of Harrington.
 At the British Embassy, Frankfort-on-the-Maine, Captain Ross, Gentleman Usher to her Majesty, to Mary, daughter of the late Edward Swinburne, Esq., of Calgarth, Windermere, and sister of Sir John Swinburne, Bart., of Capheaton, Northumberland.
 At St. George's Church, Hanover-square, London, William Edwood, son of Birt Davies, Esq., M.D., of Birmingham, to Frances Mary, daughter of T. W. Madden, Esq., Merchant'squay, Dublin.
 At Hova Church, Brighton, John B. Lane, Esq., General Managing Agent Bombay and Baroda Railway, to Agnes Eleanor, daughter of M. H. Hale, Esq., of Shepcombe, Gloucestershire.
 At Middleton Chapel, Donald, son of the late Sir Donald Campbell, of Dunstaffnage, Argyshire, Bart., to Eliza Mary Charlotte, daughter of the late Wm. Moore, Esq., of Grimes-hill, Westmoreland.
 At St. Margaret's, Westminster, John Allfree, Esq., J.P., of Brighton, to Elizabeth, widow of the late W. Rickword, Esq., of Horsham.

DEATHS.

On Tuesday morning, at Ballymaressa, the residence of her son-in-law, J. Shine, Esq., Mary Elizabeth De Courcy Rose, relict of the late Captain Rose, R.N. Her remains will be interred in the family vault at Ballynrahan on tomorrow (Friday) morning. The funeral will leave Ballymacressa at 7 o'clock, and reach Limerick at 8.
 At her residence, near Dublin, very sincerely regretted, Miss Kate Waller, daughter of the late Bolton Waller, Esq., and sister of the Rev. Wm. Waller, Rector of Castle-town, in this county. The deceased lady was pious, charitable, and humane.
 At Madrid, on the 10th instant, William Kennedy, Esq., formerly of this city, much respected and regretted.
 At Exeter, Henry Montagu Shallett O'Brien, Esq., third son of Dennis O'Brien, Esq., county Clare.
 At Quercetown, where he had gone for the benefit of his health, John Henry Morton, Esq., youngest son of the Rev.
 James Morton, Little Island, Clonmel.
 At Grenville-place, Cork, Stephen M'Kenna, Esq., T.C.
 At Sunday's Well, Cork, Helena Connellan.
 In Tralee, Mr. James Lamb.
 At Upper Pembroke-street, Dublin, Harriet, daughter of the late Rev. Wm. Dobbin, D.D., formerly Fellow of Trinity College, and rector of St. Mary's Parish and Finglas.
 At Redmont Hill, county Galway, Jane, relict of the late Hugh Shams, Esq., of Holywood.
 At school, at Clifton, Edmund Francis, son of Michael Bourke, Esq., Millbank, Fermoy.
 At the residence of her brother-in-law, T. R. Burrows, Esq., Charlotte Deborah Barrett, daughter of the late Wm. Barrett, Esq., of Ballyduff, county Carlow.
 At St. Alban's, Rathgar, Mary, daughter of the late Wm.
 Shanly, Esq., of Bush Hill, county Leitrim.
 At Multifarnham, Mary Jane, wife of Bernard Joseph Malligan, Esq.
 At Ashtown, Benjamin Clayton, Esq.
 At Winterbourn, Gloucestershire, the Rev. Wm. B. Allen, D.C.L., Hon. Canon of Bristol Cathedral, and late Fellow of St. John's College, Oxford.
 At Aberdeen, Sophia, daughter of the late Sir Archibald Grant, Bart.
 At Allepey, Madras, Lieut.-General William Cullen, Colonel Commandant of the Madras Artillery.
 At Berne, Lieutenant-General George Morton Eden, Colonel of the 50th Regt.
 At Maryborough, in Queensland, the Hon. Robert S. B.
 Forbes, son of the Right Hon. Lord Forbes.
 At Gyah, India, Alfred Perkins, Esq., Assistant Superintendent of Police.
 On board the ship Typhoon, on the passage from Manila to Anger, Mr. J. V. Blake, of Crookhaven, first officer of said ship.

MORE or less Damaged, ex dianski," in Lots to sui
 JAMES BANNATYNE &
 Roche's-str
 November 15th, 1862.

Hartigan's Horse
LIMERIC
M. H. begs most respectfu men, Gentlemen, and t that his next Monthly Horse S land), will be held at the RE TURDAY, 6th December nex day in the month, and will alw the first Saturday in each year.
 Therefore, parties having fir gers, Carriage and Brougham Roadsters, Ladies' Pads, La Horses, and Horses adapted fo tending them for the above Sal particulars at once, in order tha given.
 SEVERAL ENGLISH AND
 be in attendance on the above
 MICHAEL

P.S.—Horses are broken to the Repository. Terms for wa found reasonable on application
 * * The Auction will comm number of Fresh Active Ho Royal Artillery, quartered at I

Roses, Dutch Flowe
Trees, &
ALEXANDER CAMPB
CHURCHILL NURSERY
 AND
SEED AND IMPLEMEN
 7, EDEN-QUAY,
BEG to intimate to intendir
 Catalogue of Roses, Fru Roots, Pelargoniums, Came Epacris, Cinerarias, and oth Carnations, Picotees, Pinks, Chrysanthemums, &c., &c., is be had post free on application
 The various assortments wi only the finest and most select Early orders are most respe larly in the case of Roses, Fru Roots, &c., as November is th in which to plant.
 A. G. and Sons have just samples of Early Seed Potatoc early sowing, to which they so November 6.

Corporation of TENDERS will be received the 25th Inst., by No. 2 ing the Mayor's Sergeants and coats and Trousers.
 N
 Town-Hall, Nov. 18, 1862.