DEATHS.

At his private residence, on the 4th inst., in the 69th year of his age, Henry Woodburne, Esq., for thirty years Governor of the county Limerick Prison. He discharged at all times the onerous duties of his office, not only to the entire satisfaction of the authorities, but with kindness and consideration towards those committed to his charge. In private life Mr. Woodburne was one of the most gentle and amiable of men, a devoted husband, a fond parent, and a faithful friend. He lived a pure, blameless, and religious life, always looking forward to a happy eternity, and he died as he had lived, resting on the merits of his Redeemer, and "rejoicing in hope of the glory of God."
 At the Convent of Mercy, in this city, and of which order she was a member, Miss Mary Mulcahy, second daughter of Alderman Patrick Mulcahy.
 On Saturday night, after a short illness, at his residence, Broad-street, Mr. Thomas Peacocke, second son of the late Thomas Peacocke, Esq., of Kilmore, county Clare. He was a truly honest and sincere friend, who is deeply and deservedly regretted by a numerous circle of acquaintances and relatives. His remains were yesterday followed to the grave by a large and respectable cortege.
 At the residence of his father, 10, Whitworth-place, Dublin, Martin, the beloved child of Mr. John M'Carthy (late of this city), aged 8 years and 3 months.
 On the 30th April, at Grove hill, Bray, county Wicklow (better known as "The Crosses"), in his 68th year, Ulrick Bourke, Esq., much lamented and respected by a numerous circle of friends.
 At Kingstown, James Willington, Esq., J.P., of Castle Willington, county Tipperary.
 At Middleton, county Cork, James John Riordan, son of Dr. Riordan.
 At Prince's-street, Cork, Catherine, wife of Mr. Jonathan Russell.
 At Rathdrummin Rectory, Anna, relict of the late Thomas Haynes, Esq., of Cork.
 At Milmore House, Aghnamullen, county of Monaghan, Francis Johnston, Esq., late Captain 83rd Regt., and one of the few surviving heroes of the Peninsula.
 In Dublin, Mr. Gerrard Brown, Resident Medical Officer of the North Dublin Union.
 At Blessington-street, Dublin, Ignatius Purcell, son of Joseph Doyle, Esq.
 At Salt-hill, county Galway, Anna Mary, wife of L. S. Mangan, Esq.
 At Carramenna, county Galway, Miss Maryanne Rogers, daughter of the late Captain Rogers.
 At Tamnaharie, county Down, Charles Thomas Hamilton, Esq., late Captain 33th Regt., and Royal North Down Rifles. In Tuam, Mrs. Dr. Dwyer.
 In Paris, Susanna Lady Nugent, relict of Sir James Nugent, Bart., of Ballinlough Castle, county Westmeath.
 At St. Cloud, near Paris, Helen Kathleen, daughter of Geo. C. L. Roe, Esq., of Roesborough, county Tipperary.
 At Meeklenburgh-square, London, William Alex. M'Kenna, Esq., of Drogheda and Dublin.
 At Bath, Flora, daughter of the late Richard G. Long, Esq., and sister of Walter Long, Esq., M.P., of Rood, Ashton, Wilts.
 At Jamaica, Lieut. Vincent Wells, Royal Artillery.

Abell's Model Kitchen Ranges.

NOTICE OF REMOVAL.

M. M'SHERRY, begs respectfully to announce that he has removed to No. 10, BANK PLACE, nearly opposite to the Post Office, where he now has a large supply of the Ranges ever brought before the public. His Ranges are no old stock but are all made since the last few months from the identical models off which the Mr. Abell's Ranges were cast the Model in London Ranges with M'Sherry's Improvements produced since Mr. Abell's demise can be had from no other man in Ireland.

M'Sherry thinks it right to state that he does not go on the Cheap Job System, namely, to get Ginger-bread Ranges made to catch customers at any price; he keeps none but good Ranges which will be sold at the lowest prices possible, and if set by M'Sherry and Son they will be guaranteed to be the most economical and satisfactory Ranges that can be had in the United Kingdom.

All orders sent to M. M'Sherry, Hogan's Terrace, Windmill Street, Limerick, shall be respectfully attended to.
