

...purchased, but whether the old one is
...or how disposed of, was not deter-

SINGING.

...reported that Mr. Swaabach, the music
...attended and had commenced giving
...ing in the boys and girls schools.

...LIVORIES.
...ILITIES AND OFFICERS' LIVORIES.
...reported that all responsibilities would
...every month.

...of Patrick-street, was declared
...the supply of officers' liveries with

...THE PETITION—THE LAXWEIR.
...on reported that the committee ap-
...up a petition to Parliament on the
...eries in the Shannon and in favour of
...had agreed to one which would now
...the board for its approval.

...arrington read the draft of the petition
...at length into the question of stake-
...nets, and into the history of the lax-
...ostantially, that Parliament, in its wis-
...ep them all away, and leave the fishing
...as free as God, and nature intended
...said the committee were unanimous on

...objected—he said that these were a
...of private rights which could not be
...way. If the lax-weir were to be swept
...to become of the man who gave his
...it? To grant this sweeping prayer
...troustrous thing.
...—And it would ruin the Corporation

...There is not a citizen of Limerick that
...that portion of the petition.

...—It is my impression that the guar-
...mind their own business.

...—That is their—"own business"—if
...e nets and stakes down the river you
...people thrown on the rates, and pre-
...vent taking place is—"minding their
... (hear, hear).

...—To remove the lax-weir, which Par-
...ver do.

...—Not to remove it, but to have proper
...sider to allow the fish to pass to the up-
...per purpose of spawning and breeding,
...not now do in consequence of the various
...aces in their way.

...—I do not think that the Lax Weir
...ed up with the question of stake and
...other engines, and it was only on the
...Mr. Monsell that this weir was in-
...cued into it all. The fishermen only
...ent the introduction of a clause into
...ll, which would preclude them from
...waters. I have no sympathy what-
...Malcolmsen, but I think that his weir
...totally different footing from those
...down the river. The Lax Weir has a
...erick of over 800 years, and a charter
...fore, it does not belong to the class of
...which exist in the lower waters, but
...get these swept away without sweep-
...ng, why then I say, let them all be
... (hear, hear). At present I will only say
...to go forward, let it look for
...ll in its integrity (hear, hear.)

...further discussion in which Mr. Brown
...petition which had already gone for-
...M. R. Ryan spoke in favour of the ...amended, so far as to only seek for
...the lax weir, and Mr. John M'Don-
...cated the sweeping away of all bag nets
...as they were injurious to the free navi-
...ver, but then as to the lax weir the
...required should be with reference to
...ould therefore move that the petition
...stood, excepting so far as to deal only
...n the lax weir.

...seconded the motion.
...moved that it lie on the table. Mr.
...moved the motion.

...moved that the petition be amended by
...stake and bag nets be swept away,
...gaps and of sufficient width be placed

...Donnell seconded the amendment. A

...n's resolution—Messrs. Brown, Ward,
...n, Phayer, Cregan, Costello, Carroll,
...ughan.

...ancy's amendment—Messrs. M'Don-
...r, Dwyer, Goggin, M. R. Ryan, Jas.

April 14

BIRTHS.

On the 23rd inst., at 6, Richmond-terrace, Limerick, Mrs. M. T. O'Brien, of a son.
At Sneem, county Kerry, the wife of Captain Arthur Hyde, of a son.
At Middle Abbey-street, Dublin, the wife of the Rev. Philip Bender, of a son.
At Harcourt-terrace, Dublin, the wife of George W. West, Esq., of Ardenode, of a daughter.
At Boyle, county Roscommon, the wife of James T. Butler, Esq., R.M., of a son.
At Castleblayney, the wife of Rev. Christopher B. Harley, of a daughter.
At Cheltenham, Mrs. Edward Montresor, of a son.
At Hyde-park-gardens, London, the wife of Algernon Bathurst, Esq., of a son.
At Richmond, Surrey, the wife of Augustus T. Gervis, Esq., late 52nd Light Infantry, of a daughter.
At Woolwich-common, the wife of Capt. Arthur B. Hawes, of a son.
At Dundas-terrace, Woolwich, the wife of Colonel H. A. Turner, R.A., of a son.
At Southsea, the wife of Lieut. the Hon. James T. Fitzmaurice, commanding H.M.S. Sealark, of a daughter.
At Southsea, the wife of Capt. E. Harding Stewart, Royal Engineers, of a daughter.
At Blackheath, the wife of Captain John J. Wilson, Royal Engineers, of a daughter.
At Brookside, Cheshire, the wife of T. C. Baird, Esq., Adjutant 3rd Battalion C.R.V., of a son.

MARRIAGES.

On the 28th March, at Christ Church, Hamilton, Philip H. MacAdam, Esq., son of the late Philip MacAdam, Esq., of Blackwater, county Clare, to Helen Eliza, daughter of Miles O'Reilly, Esq., of The Willows, Hamilton, Canada West.
In Fethard Church, county Wexford, Colonel James Jackson, Madras Native Infantry, son of General Jackson, of Devonshire, to Ellen, daughter of the Rev. Percival B. Weldon, Prebendary and Rector of Fethard.
At St. Nicholas' Church, Dublin, Mr. James Battle, Clanbrassill-terrace, to Isabella, daughter of John H. Dunne, Esq., solicitor, Rocklands, Stillorgan, and Peter-street, Dublin.
At the Roman Catholic Church, Quin, county Clare, Patrick Garvey, to Bridget Hassett.
At Newtownards, Mr. James Clark, to Eleanor, daughter of Mr. Benjamin Davison, Belfast.
In the Presbyterian Church, Portaferry, county Down, Mr. David John M' Cormick, Ardkeen, to Margaret Jane, daughter of the late Mr. David M'Creedy, Ballywoollen.
At St. Thomas's, Portman-square, London, Major Henry Edward Jerome, V.C., 19th Regt., to Inez Temple, daughter of H. A. Cowper, Esq., H.B.M.'s Consul at Porto Rico.
At All Saints', London, Frederick George Frith, 19th Regt., to Ada, daughter of the late Robert Taylor Spooner Abraham, Esq., of Crewkerne, Somerset.
At Christ Church, Marylebone, London, Joshua Le Bailly, of Les Vault and Rockmount, Jersey, Esq., to Margaret Jane, daughter of the late Alexander Trotter, Esq., Assistant Commissary General.
At Childwall, Lancashire, Reginald, son of Thomas Haigh, Esq., of Elm Hall, near Liverpool, to Flora, daughter of Admiral Grenfell, I.B.N.
At the Chapel of the British Consulate, Smyrna, the Rev. W. M. Wray, Chaplain R.N., to Mary Louisa, daughter of Charles Blunt, Esq., her Majesty's Consul.
At Auckland, New Zealand, Major James Paul, 65th Regt., Major of Brigade, to Annette, daughter of the late Dugald M'Kellar, Esq., M.D.

DEATHS.

At Umballa, on the 19th March, of bronchitis, Arthur Wycliffe, youngest child of Colonel Thompson, commanding 7th Dragoon Guards, aged 18 months.
At Innoshannon, county Cork, Frank, son of Richard Dennehy, Esq.
At Blackhall-street, Dublin, Charlotte Frances, wife of Dr. Torney.
At North Frederick-street, Dublin, Samuel Wright Knox, Esq., of Coleraine.
At Eyre-square, Galway, Eliza, wife of Mr. Robert Black.
At Londonderry, Hamilton Christie, Esq.
At Dundalk, Mr. John Charles Fitzgerald, for many years connected with the Irish and English Press.
At Armagh, Mr. Robert Albin, of the firm of William and Robert Albin.
At Lurgan, Mrs. Mary Fallow, aged 90.
At High-street, Lurgan, Miss Bullick, aged 77.
At Carrickfergus, Mrs. Cripples, relict of Dr. C. Cupples, Royal Artillery.
At Carrickfergus, Mr. Neill M'Ilroy.
At St. Servan, Brittany, Lieutenant-Colonel James Fagan, H.E.I.C.S.
At Baker-street, London, Jimima, wife of Major-General Morden Carthew, Madras Army.
At Gloucester-crescent, Hyde-park, Dorothea, widow of the Rev. Isaac Gosset, vicar of Windsor.
At Westfield House, Bath, Lieut-General W. H. Hewitt, Bengal Army.
At Chislehurst, the Hon. Louisa Cavendish, widow of the late William Cavendish, Esq., and mother of the Duke of Devonshire.
At Brighton, Miss Georgiana Elizabeth Spencer, daughter of the late John Spencer, Esq., and the late Right Hon. Lady Elizabeth Spencer.
At Bishop Stortford, Sarah Anne Olivia, daughter of Lieut-General Chamberlayne.
At Twickenham, Clement Tudway Swanston, Esq., Q.C., J.P. for Middlesex.
At Chichester, the Rev. George C. Rowden, D.C.L., precentor of the Cathedral.
At Haverstraw, Rockland County, New York, Sarah, relict of the late William Butler, Esq., Auburn Lodge, Rathmines, Dublin.
At Greenpoint, East Maitland, New South Wales, William John Nunn, Esq., late of the 53rd Regt., son of Wm. Nunn, Esq., of Ballyhive, Wexford.
At New Zealand, Captain James W. Tibbit, late of H.M.'s 62nd Regt.

Steam Engines, Machinery Plant, Gantry, Metal Boxes, Weights, Foundry Cranes, Core Bars, Core Waggons, Furnaces, Ladles, &c., can be seen any day up to the time of Sale.
Purchaser to pay 5 per cent. in addition their bidding.
Catalogues can be had on application to
MR. COLEMAN,
Auctioneer; or to
W. BURGESS & SON, Builders, 2,
Lower Mallow-street, Limerick.
April 21.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT UNRESERVED AUCTION
Of Farming Implements, Kitchen Ranges, immense quantity of New Cooperage and Dairy Utensils, Vehicles of various descriptions, Harness, Field Gates, Metal Eve Shoots and Down Pipes, &c., &c., together with such other consignments as may be received before the Auction, which by kind permission of the Market Trustees will be held in the yard in which the Secretaries Offices were built during the late Limerick Cattle Show,
ON THURSDAY, THE 30th INST., AND FRIDAY, THE 1st MAY, BEING THE DAYS OF THE GREAT MUNSTER FAIR.
P. Coleman

BEGS to announce to the landed gentry, farmers, and the public in general of this city and the surrounding counties, that he has been engaged to dispose of by Perfectly Unreserved Auction, a large quantity of miscellaneous effects connected with farming, &c., &c., and he has for that purpose fixed upon the days of the Great Munster Fair for holding such.
By permission of the Market Trustees the Auction will be held in their yard, adjoining the Fair Green, and in which the Secretaries Offices were built during the recent Cattle Show. This yard from its central position (between the Fair and the Green) cannot fail to offer to both buyers and sellers many advantages not to be met with in any other yard in the city upon this occasion.

Among the property to be sold the following will be found worthy of note, and as the terms upon which it has been received is for Strictly Unreserved Sale. The public need not be afraid of puffing or other illegitimate bidding.
12 First-class Kitchen Ranges, most of which are of the celebrated manufacture of the late Mr. John Abell. They are both new and open of various sizes, and several of the will be found to contain all those improvements of which much is said in those days.

A large collection of Farming Implements, some of which will be found to be by the best makers, for particulars of which intending purchasers are referred to printed lists.

An immense quantity of Cooperage, which for excellence of workmanship, and the quality of the materials used will be found equal to any ever exhibited at an Agricultural Show. It consists of about
4,000 Butter Firkins,
500 Milk Keelers,
20 Cooling Tubs, and Tankards,
4 Churn Barrells,
Milk Pails, &c., &c.

A quantity of Furnishing and General Ironmongry consisting of about 1,200 Feet of Metal Eve Shoots, and Down Pipes, 6 capital Iron Bedsteads, with dovetail joints, 2 first-class Shower Baths.
The entire of the Portable Metal Fittings of a Horse Stable.

CARRIAGES, HARNESS, &c.
A fashionable Britska, a first-class Outside Jaunting Car, some sets plated and brass Mounted Harness, sundry Bridles, Saddles, &c.

For the convenience of parties residing at a distance the Auctioneer intends reserving a portion of the yard for such property as may be entered for Sale previous to the Auction. Parties intending to avail themselves of the many advantages offered by this Sale over any other of the kind will do well to communicate at once with the undersigned in order that full publicity may be given to the Sale of their particular effects.

The Cooperage will be Sold in Lots to suit Purchasers in attendance.
The Kitchen Ranges separately, and the other Effects, Implements, &c., in the usual order.
Sale at 12 o'Clock Sharp Each Day.
Terms at Sale.

PATRICK COLEMAN,
Auctioneer, Valuator, &c.,
6, Rutland-Street, Limerick.
April 23, 1863.

MARCUS J. ENNIS.

April 21

House to BE SOLD, the House Limerick, between and Mr. Kelly's Pawn Office sent unroofed, but the front from front to rear and would admit of two of the front; the Land Corporation Alms House premises of Messrs Fitt, A Lease for ever will subject to a head rent of Application to ROBERT County Title, or GILES holds titles, &c., and can March 17.

To Apply AT JOHN B. GEORGE-STREET A LARGE LOT OF

In order to close a J at a considerable reduct Sample and particular April 23.

Tontines, UNRESERVED Of very select Furniture lard, rich Crimson Plated Ware, Ironstone Carpeting, Drugget, a ing China, Table Cutle Bedding, Kitchen Fur Fire-proof Iron Safe, Gig, and other effects On MONDAY.

John HAS been directed by changing her Re Unreserved Auction, as a including:—

IN THE DI Six carved baloon b chair, Elizabethian do, damask curtains, to mat corner work and occasion derminster carpet, bronze glass and chimney orna and Swiss chairs.

IN THE I Set of solid mahogany claw, 12 chairs, pedestal window hangings, barom irons, pair easy chairs, br leaf table.

IN THE Chairs, table, hat and quantity of green-house lamps, stair carpet, rods.

The pantry requisites i of iron stoue, morning ch ing service, buff and gol pieces, complete, some cruets, salvers, coasters. service, corner dishes a coolers, cruets, set liqu urn, cover dishes, copp handsome cut glass decar tumblers, desert dishes, lamps, paper-machie inla

The sleeping Apartme man Bedsteads, Beds, H superior quality, Maho; Tables, Bason Stands, D; Towel Airers, Cane Chai Irons, Commodes, Book Bedding, some excellent Fans, Cooking utensils, 1 close Ranges, Water I variety of other useful ef One Day's Sale, to co JOH

The Piano will be S Proof Safe (nearly new) c