TO BE LET, OR THE INTEREST
 THE

ATLANTIC HOTEL,
 MILTOWN MALBAY, COUNTY

THIS magnificent Establishment, built at a cost of £10,000, stands on eleven acres of land, walled in Garden and extensive Offices, on the brink of the Atlantic Ocean, within a short distance of the far-famed Cliffs of Moher, in a locality which is one of the rarest attractions for the Tourist, and which, for temperature and mildness, possesses qualities equally delightful and genial to those of the South of France; the situation is on the coast of Ireland, midway between the spread of the Atlantic and Galway, on the route from the Lakes to Kilkee and Connemara, embracing the line of coast, which is the boldest and finest in Europe; and, as a Bathing place, it is unequalled—the water and air so pure.

The Furniture will be given at a valuable price. Application to be made to Mr. BERGIN, Hotel, Miltown Malbay.

N.B.—Mr. BERGIN begs to intimate to the public that the business will be discontinued until disposed of, and an early application is requested.
