STAR ARCHERY MEETING.—The medals presented for at this meeting, on to-morrow, have been received by the hon. and noble Lord, and are a very superior kind. The Lord is the "gem" of the meeting, and will be fortunate enough to win it by having shot at the "first Grand Norton Challenge Prize is a very fine jug, 12 inches high, the handle of which is the branch of the vine, with grapes fully hanging from it. The silver of the County Limerick Archery Club, being a centrepiece. The arrows presented by Messrs. Purle Brothers of London, are specimens of the art of arrow-making made with ebony shafts, inlaid with various kinds of wood, with brown feathers, and gold tips, their value being 12s each. The arrows presented by T. Aldred, of Messrs. E. Lawrence and Co., of Dublin, are of a high quality, fully justifying the prizes they have obtained in bow-craft. It was arranged to make this meeting the first ever held in Ireland, and we are confident that inducements for spectators and it will be such.
