

Miss Dundon to report all this command she promised herself retired.

Schoolmistress, could not tell, unless indeed by the boy's tale children picking out the could be fresh, and while she other girls on a walk which She also promised to report to the master.

ignorant as to the modus operandi, and it was quite a silly imagined that boys broke would, however, report in never a pane was smashed. that they resolved not to call aid for the house.

TO AMERICA.

Myles, seconded by Mr. which was voted to Bridget and Catherine Casey, and the balance being supplied by to emigrate to their friends who are fine, clean able-well looking persons, were all the attention of the guar-clauses of Colonel Dickson's if passed in their present all a complete nullity.

THE DRAINAGE BILL.

bill is passed the Commons is, so your call on us is too low it will be a nullity?

letter in the Munster News farmer will have any power the management of the pro-gives the right of appeal to and we all know that no one cept those whose interests ant-farmers.

re sits with the barrister in re condescend to ask ad-n those cases. It is only in sults the justices.

note that letter?

ow. His name is not to it. ne fond of "draining."— his letter should not be read

LEGAL CHILDREN.

read the amended act re-and illegitimate children, "maintenance" which was found followed in the subsequent ant "maintenance by food", it would have the same vent the guardians from reof the late Henry Harrington, Esq., Naas.

At Fulbeck, Lincolnshire, Lieut.-Colonel Francis Fane, 25th Regt., to Augusta, daughter of the late Wm. Fane, Esq., of the Bengal Civil Service.

At Teignmouth, Major Richard Francis Holmes, 89th Regt., to Mary Providence, daughter of the late John Justin Cooper, Judge of the Supreme Court of the Mauritius.

At Backwell, Somerset, Charles Rodick Ricketts, Esq., Capt. 32nd Light Infantry, to Agnes Mary, daughter of the Rev. T. Langworthy, vicar of Backwell.

At St. Paul's, Knightsbridge, London, Colonel Henry Dalrymple White, C.B., to Alice Elizabeth, daughter of the late Neill Malcolm, Esq., of Poltalloch, Argyllshire.

At Cheltenham, Edmund Ward, Esq., Captain 107th Regt., to Augusta Kate, daughter of the late Bertram Newton Ogle, Esq., Captain 4th Light Dragoons.

At Boldre, Hampshire, Charles Nassau Martin, Captain Royal Engineers, to Anna Maria, daughter of the late Peter Horrocks, Esq., of Beomond, Chertsey, Surrey.

At Jamaica, George Lee Chandler, Esq., Captain Royal Artillery, to Alice Maria Elizabeth, daughter of the Rev. W. Mayhew, rector of St. Andrew's, Jamaica.

DEATHS.

On the 29th December last, at Chinsurah, near Calcutta, after a few days' illness of cholera, and at the early age of 20 years, Standish Henry Carroll, Esq., 32nd Regt., second son of J. T. Carroll, Esq., Limerick. The deceased young officer had only arrived in India one month when he was seized with the fatal malady. The melancholy event is a cause of the deepest sorrow to his family and friends, by whom, for his many excellent qualities, he was much and sincerely loved.

At Clonmel, Miss Mary Grubb.

At Queenstown, Matilda Sullivan, daughter of the late Lieutenant James Sullivan, R.N.

At Louisville, Kentucky, Augustus F. Whitestone, Esq., barrister-at-law, son of the late Thomas Whitestone, Esq., of Clondegad, county Clare.

At West Melbourne, Robert Fitzgerald Uniacke, Esq., son of the late Norman Uniacke, Esq., of Mount Uniacke, county Cork.

At Kanturk, the infant son of Edmund Dwyer, Esq.

At Kilrush, Mr. John M'Elligot.

At Castle-street, Tralee, Miss Ellen Reynolds.

At Gort, Miss Gertrude Keane.

At Rathmines, Dublin, Abraham W. Studdert, Esq., of Pilot View, Dalkey.

At Rathmines, Richard Rothwell, Esq., of the Landed Estates Court.

At Lower Mount-street, Dublin, Ellen, relict of Stephen Eaton, Esq., solicitor.

At Upper Gloucester-street, Dublin, Mr. Conway Armstrong.

At Upper Baggot-street, Dublin, Anna, relict of the late J. L. Auriol, Esq., of Clifton, Gloucestershire.

At Cooke's-lane, Dublin, Catherine Josephine, daughter of the late Thomas Glanan, Esq.

At Monkstown, Dublin, Beatrice Ida, youngest daughter of Colonel Henry Atwell Lake, C.B.

At Summer-hill, Dublin, John, son of James Kearns, Esq.

At Regent's-park, London, General Sackville Hamilton Berkeley, Colonel of the 16th Regt.

At Yaldhurst, Hants, Major-General William H. Pickering, late Royal Artillery.

At Brampton-park, Hants, Lady Olivia Bernard Sparrow.

At Scarborough, the Hon. Charles St. Clair, Commander Royal Navy.

On board the Bengal, on his passage home from China, Major John Loftus Otway Mansergh, 44th Regiment, Deputy Assistant Adjutant General to the Forces in China.

At Malta, Lieut. Suffield Hamilton Browne, Royal Marines.

At Cheltenham, Eliza Odella, widow of the Rev. James Taylor, and daughter of the late Right Hon. John Philpot Curran, Master of the Rolls, Ireland.

At Clifton, Susannah, daughter of the late Jas. Galbraith, Esq., of Omagh, county Tyrone.

and a half of the City of suited for Tillage or Dairy

With the above will be Bog, easily reclaimable at a Apply to THOMAS STANN Upper Mallow-street, Limer Jan. 31, 1863.

To be

PART of the Lands of I in the hands of the Ow statue Acres, all in grass. Tl dairy Cows and Young Stock, of Iraghiteconnor, and Count from Tarbert, 4 miles from I Ballybannion.

The Rivers Feale, Geale nearly 3 miles along the lar

For particulars apply STUDDERT, Esq. Buaratty; & SON, 116, George-street,

Dated

A Most Desirable County of 7

TO BE

From the 25th of March or 1

Terms as may be

THE HOUSE, OFFICES, CLONSIN

With about Five Acres of House

THE House* consists of six Bedrooms, Servant Closet, Pantry and Cellars, modation. There is an excell planted Orchard, Stabling House, Dairy House, Potatoes with an excellent Pump in th by a large wall.

It is now ready for the i Gentleman's Family. It is situ city of Limerick, three from t Station four from the Boher a half from the Post Town o will have the accommodation Church.

Application to be made to

ROBER'

13, Leinster-squar

GEORGE

4, Bed

JONAS

93, Ge

The Tenant will be declare offered, but will not be put of March next.

January 24.