

bled there that day. It was old family they had come together survivors a long and happy life. the patient hearing they had using these few words to them el Dickson, M.P., who was re- colonged cheering, said that he , being called to preside at the ng ceremony going on before tenants on that prosperous es- e benevolence of the landlord ; family so beloved by the peo- e doing that duty for them, l always do so when he could m. They were there to day to y and to testify the affection h and on previous occasions dis- l monument which they had affection for the Goold family id their country. In a word, d the greatest credit on them, ple of Athea could appreciate onferred the greatest credit on nder whose care it was caried the beautiful lacing on that l bear comparison with any He was not speaking the mere he said that it reflected the list, and it was a proof of Irish se much maligned Irishmen ngurating this monument they mn occasion which called them They were there that day to yed. He was not there as tive. He was there to assist e of a meritorious and noble y had by their generous liber- nent in honor of a worthy id highly educated gentleman, to themselves and to their were there to honour the me- he inscrutable decree of an all- been taken from amongst m of his family, by whom he e and pride. They had come nent which they had in their d in his honor, a monument r minds the death of the Re- Although they all did not ular, although they practised eamer in different ways, for r claim a liberty to worship ich he might think best, still, atized the worship of God, ook on that sacred symbol of t but feel some private emo- hope and awe inspired by it feel quite the same as others

At Antrim, Thomas, son of James Hunter, Esq., Killealy, to Annie, daughter of Thomas Bryson, Esq., Rockhill, Bally- robbin, county Antrim.

At Dungannon, Wm. Doran, Esq., merchant, Dungannon, to Jennie, daughter of John Lowry, Esq., Lime Works, Dun- gannon.

In London, St. Vincent Tyler, Esq., son of the late Vice- Admiral Sir George Tyler, to Emma Maude, daughter of John Lewis Phipps, Esq., of Leighton, Wiltshire.

At Plympton Maurice, T. W. McDonald, Esq., Deputy- Inspector-General of Hospitals and Fleets, to Louisa, relict of Charles B. Baskerville, Esq., Lieut. R.N.

At Kingston, Canada West, George Arthur French, Esq., Royal Artillery, to Janet Clarke, daughter of the late Robert Long Innes, Esq., 37th Regt.

At Dunedin, New Zealand, William T. Hall, Esq., of the New Zealand Bank, to Margaret, daughter of the late James C. M'Kinstry, Esq., of Armagh.

DEATHS.

At Croom Rectory, on the 6th January, the Rev. Edward Croker, aged 75, third son of the late Edward Croker, Esq., of Ballinagarde, county Limerick, and for many years Rector of Croom.

Jan. 5, at his residence in Dublin, aged 57 years, Samuel Barrington, Esq., brother of the late Sir Matthew Barrington, Bart.

On the 5th inst., at No. 9, Lower Sherrard-street, Dublin, aged 34 years, Harriet Mary, daughter of Wm. Ellard, Esq.

At his residence, Salterbridge, county Waterford, of bron- chitis, Richard Chearnley, Esq., J.P., D.L.

At Spring Gardens, Clonmel, John Hughes, Esq., an enter- prising and respected merchant.

At the Commercial Hotel, Clonmel, Bridget, wife of Mr. Thomas Cantwell, T.C.

At Bansha, Robert, son of Robert Turner, Esq.

At Rockfield, his brother's residence, in the county Galway, Isidore Blake, Esq., J.P.

At Galway, Harriet, wife of Professor Rowney.

At Balca Castle, county Cork, Elizabeth, wife of John T. Hodder, Esq.

At Wellington-terrace, Sunday's-well, Cork, Lucinda, relict of the late Mr. Wm. Townsend, of the firm of Beamish and Crawford.

At Parliament-street, Cork, Mr. Timothy Buckley.

At Castlemartyr, county Cork, Mr. John Hanan.

At Blackrock, county Dublin, Catherine-Elizabeth, daughter of Emanuel H. Bayly, Esq.

At Newbridge, county Kildare, Mr. J. W. Johnston.

At Grace-hill, Amelia Sarah Elizabeth, daughter of Lucius Ferdinand Cary, Esq., J.P., late of Redcastle, county of Donegal.

At Portrush, Mr. Henry Carr, late of the Queen's Prison, London.

At Markethill, Charles M'Anally, Esq., half pay 84th Regt.

At Carrickfergus, Mary Catherine, wife of Wm. Johns, Esq.

At Castlebar, county Mayo, Margaret, wife of Mr. John M'Coy.

Harriet Elizabeth, relict of Sir Wm. M. Milner, Bart., and daughter of the late Lord Edward Bentinck.

At Warwick-gardens, London, Ricarda Catherine, wife of Donald Wm. Mackenzie, Esq., and daughter of the late Capt. Richard Croker, R.N.

At Hatton, Middlesex, Richard Langslow, Esq., late Capt. in the Bengal N.I.

At Grosvenor-place, London, the Lady Amelia Charlotte Marshars.

At Edinburgh, Elizabeth, widow of the late James Smyth, Esq., one of the Commissioners of Customs for Ireland.

Suddenly, at the Royal Naval Hospital, Greenwich, Captain William Alexander Willis, R.N.

Off Swatow, China, James K. C. Weatherley, Engineer of H.M.'s gunboat Snapp.

At St. Paul's Parsonage, Ballarat, Victoria, Margaret, wife of the Rev. Robert T. Cummins.

Splendid Brussels, Carriage and Steels, Oil Pair Phaeton, Outside Car, &c.

MR. BE
WILL Sell by Perfection, on TH
15th and 16th Inst., at GREAT ROOMS, a C and other PROPERTY Style, and Quality cannot Full Particulars CHRONICLE. ED

8th January, 1863.

FUEL
MR. WILLIA
DEAR SIR,—We th interest in the knowing your popularity obliged by your delivering of this valuable charity. If it will be convenient with our request on receiv necessary arrangements will Si

James Spaight, J.P.,
Wm. Phayer, J.P.,
Peter Tait,
Archibald Murray,
H. N. Seymour,
James Barry,
Robert Ewart,
G. W. Pragnell,
James Fife,
R. M'Mahon, Mayor.
Wm. L. Joynt, Alder- man

Strand, Linc
To the Right Worshipful Mr. Mayor,—To you as tlemen, who, with yours deliver a Lecture on behal I beg to say I shall most g requisition, being always g when it is in my power. The most suitable eveni ture will be on FRIDAY, take as my subject, "Rel lessons. I remain, Mr. May

January 8