

783). Anthem, Ps. Walmesley, Mus. D. ant in F., Rogers, ; service et supra.

angan, L.L.B. credyth, M.A. new, morning service as. D ; service in G., 32, Fox. L.B.

SCHOOL.—One of a healthy social state, veing. Somewhere y School attendants, on were guests at a d inducements were droom was decorated bouquets of flowers. "good things" dis- admirable Dissolving signal scenic features uted. The historic, ief attention ; but the to gay" peculiarly st, the more juvenile ch effective illustra- d—when it is added , conducted by Handal he Harmonium, and dy of choristers and Union, it need not be d gems was recherche, xecuted with an ex- en the most favored ommodation admitted special guests partici- s administered on the uch regret that the was kept away by owever, by Mrs. and ued, as did the other nt to the close.

ankfully acknowledges Protestant Orphan attached to the church, ate contributions, has f the National Board. reach to-morrow in the as (formerly of Cork), late Rev. Dr. Hincks, ppointed by the King liers of the Order of re order consists of 30 cted for their superior

MARRIAGES.

August 19, in St. George's Church, Dublin, by the Rev. the Chancellor of Christ Church, D.D., George Cree, Esq., barrister-at-law, Lower Mount-street, to Louisa Anna, only daughter of James Charles Coffey, Esq., Chairman of the County Westmeath, Mountjoy-square. [No cards sent.]

Andrew Oliver Lyons, Esq., County Surveyor, Mallow, to Fanny, daughter of P. Kelly, Esq., J.P., Longford, county Galway, and late of the 87th Regt.

In Donnybrook Church, James Kennedy, Esq., J.P., of Rosetta, county Down, to Nannie, daughter of the late James Stewart, Esq., of Cherryvale, and Greencastle, Belfast.

In the Scots' Church, Dublin, John M'Calla, Esq., of St. Catherine's, Canada West, merchant, to Mary, daughter of Matthew Drysdale, Esq., of Dublin.

At St. George's, Hanover-square, London, Richard Allen, Esq., Paymaster R.N., to Mary, daughter of John Tidd Pratt, Esq.

In St. James's, Poole, Frederic W. Devon, Esq., of Linnavagh, county Carlow, to Charlotte Jane, daughter of the Rev. A. Wilkinson, Incumbent of St. James's, Poole.

At Charnmouth, William Hillman, Esq., Staff Assistant-Surgeon, to Adela Nona, daughter of the late Henry John Mant, Esq., of Bath.

At Oxford, Suffolk, Major C. V. Hamilton Campbell, of Nether-place, Ayrshire, to Mary Sancroft, daughter of the late Samuel Randall, Esq.

At St. Mary Abbott's, Kensington, Charles Cecil Trevor, Esq., of Lincoln's Inn, barrister-at-law, to Mary, daughter of James Weston, Esq., of Hyde-park-gate, London.

At Secunderabad, India, George B. Pumfrett, Esq., Lieut. and Adjutant 17th Lancers, to Edith Winfred, daughter of G. M. Middleton, Esq., of Maitland-park Villas, London.

DEATHS.

At sea, on the 10th of July, in consequence of a severe cold, contracted on his previous voyage, Captain M. Barker Donnelly, of the barque Snowdon, of Liverpool, a native of this city. Esteemed and beloved by all who knew him, this unlooked for event has caused much regret to his numerous friends and relatives in Limerick, and deep affliction to his bereaved widow, in whose presence he died. Much sympathy was felt for Mrs. Donnelly in Quebec, who was joined at the funeral by a large concourse of the lamented captain's friends.

At Upper Fitzwilliam-street, Dublin, Landy Edward Foot, Esq., barrister-at-law.

At Bray, Catherine, relict of the late John Quin, Esq.

At Bray, Gerald Tench, Esq.

At Ballybrittas, Queen's County, Mrs. Margaret Arthurs.

At Loreto Convent, Bray, Sister Mary Gonzaga Hickie, daughter of P. J. Hickie, Esq., of Dublin, and Thurles, Co. Tipperary, solicitor.

At Dunstaffnage, Argyshire, Sir Angus Campbell, Bart.

At Portnall-park, Henrietta Emma, wife of Col. Challoner, and daughter of the late Jerome Count de Salis.

At Gravesend, Anne, wife of Commander Martin Bennet, Royal Navy.

At Tunbridge-wells, Henry Daniel James, Esq., late of the Victualling Yard, Deptford.

At Weston-super-Mare, Lieut.-Colonel Godley, of Lansdowne-crescent, Bath.

At Sidmouth, Devon, David Gladstone, Esq., formerly of Liverpool.

On board H.M.S. Trafalgar, Lieutenant F. H. Blair, R.N.

Off the Island of St. Thomas, on his passage to England, Captain Thomas Bruce, 21st Fusiliers.

At Lucknow, Thompson Copeland Capper, Lieutenant R.A.

In New Zealand, Harry Valette Jones, son of Lieutenant-General Sir Harry D. Jones, G.C.B.

On board the African mail steamer Ethiope, near Bathurst, Captain Wm. Rice Mulliner, 8th West India Regt.

On board the Golden Plover, Fanny, wife of Capt. E. W. H. Lateward, Indian Army.

of water throughout the extensive There are Two Small Farms as also be disposed of.

Proposals will be received by EDWARD BERNARD Newborough House, Patrick Limerick ; Or MICHAEL SELL Solicitor, Cecil-street, August 22.

Mill to Let

TO BE LET IN THE KINGNOCKARLEY MILL, of good LAND. Has four pair French ; most of the interior Knockarley Mill has been worked by the Landlord with good success sold 17 tons and a half of Indian Egyptian wheat, and two tons neighbourhood, at a reasonable money. A lease at the old rent, from November next, to be Sold be entered on at Michaelmas repairs are complete. A good clean mill race ; a good slate h with turbary attached ; an exp worthy miller on the premises at Mr Thomas ARDILL, Claren, P Roscrea.

N.B.—References required as vious business. August 20.

PRESERVING SUGAR.

JAMES a very large stock of Strong, Ric of every description, which he wi possible Price for CASH.

FINE TEA.

Since the the Subscriber has been induced, state of the London Market, to p Parcels of Fine and medium Tea to offer the very Best Black Tea

3s. 8d. per

This will be found very much su of Tea still sold at 4s. To buy and upwards, a considerable red

The medium Teas, at 3s. 4d., a first-rate value, and well worth consumers.

JAMES F TEA AND COFFEE I GEORGE STRE

July 9.