and of giving the extra money to some charitable in- stitution. The following is a copy of the letter which I wish you to write to the Editor of the Army and Navy Gazette, to be inserted in the next publication : —" Captain Robertson presents his compliments to the Editor of the Army and Navy Gazette, and requests that he will cause to be inserted in his next publica- tion an utter denial of the paragraph which appeared in the Army and Navy Gazette of the 4th instant, re- lative to Captain Robertson ; and further to state that Captain Robertson's application to retire from the service by the sale of his commission was purely voluntary on his part." The above must be inserted in every paper in which the offensive paragraph has or may appear. You will be good enough to send me a copy of the letter which you send to the Editor of the Army and Navy Gazette, that I may see it is quite satisfactory.—I am sir, your obedient servant, signed) Captain Robertson. H. E. BRIDGES.

(COPY OF THE PARAGRAPH REFERRED TO.) " Captain Robertson, of the 4th Dragoon Guards, whose court-martial will not be forgotten, has sent in an application to retire from the service. We have received information of the circumstances under which the application was sent in, which, without saying more at present, we venture to think would render desirable an inquiry whether the act was purely vol- untary or not, or whether there were any circum- stances which really called for the resignation in the interest of the service. We do not for a moment be- lieve that Colonel Shute would be guilty of an act unbecoming his position ; but we know enough of the staff under whose superintendence the regiment is placed to make us think some inquiry advisable, when another case of intimidation is merely hinted at."— H. Kilmainham, 8th April, 1883.—SIR—Your letter of the 5th instant has somewhat surprised me, for until its receipt on the day of my wife's funeral, and which will account for my not having answered it before, I was not aware that any paragraph had appeared in the papers respecting my retirement from the service ; nor do I know anything whatever of the matter. I must confess also that I was surprised at the tone of your letter, and the threat held out to me in it, that unless I denied the statement in the Army and Navy Gazette, for which I am in no way respon- sible, you would only pay me the regulation price for my troop. Trusting to the arrangement entered into with you, and on your honour as an officer and a gentleman, I sent in my papers, and it is something new to me for you to suppose that you can now in any way cancel that arrangement without breaking your word of honour. Under the circumstances, however, I have done as you require, and by this post send to the editor of the Army and Navy Gazette for publica- tion in his next edition an exact copy of the draft letter enclosed by you to me.—I am, sir, your obedi- ent servant (signed) A. M. ROBERTSON.—H. E. Bridges, Esq., 4th Dragoon Guards.
