

es in this Company, to urishing condition. It blished statistics of the nus is equivalent in the £1 14s. per cent. per assured; that the total now vested, are equal to assured; and that at ns amount to upwards of premiums paid.

of the United Kingdom
ompany has increased so ears, as in Ireland; and is success is owing to the ient resident Secretary ringing so fully and cone advantages which the
to its policy-holders, ng:—

Mutual Office without in-cent. of the Premiums
fter the third years' pay-

many parts of the world

the advantages offered ons—notwithstanding the of assured—there is still se classes of the populate such provision for their hemselves of the advan-
e would therefore con-
answer to the objection
se whose means of sub-own labour:—"I am too
e answer is "If you are
s. per week from 30 to 35
ly at other ages, and find ld you be taken away by will strike home to your dependent upon you! Is id this, and give them at all a sum?"—Clare Free-

ckboy, county Waterford,
oming into that city on were rolling hoops, and e car being upset she fell concussion of the brain

the widow of a Colonel in d to death at Middlesex
the abuse of crinoline.
the fireplace, when the
enveloped her in flames.
nt just issued, it appears set year 660,938 cwts. of ted, against 229,645 cwts.

At St. Mary's, Donnybrook, James Barney, Esq., of Ipswich, Suffolk, to Ellen, daughter of the late Charles M'Dowell, Esq., of Cork.

At the Presbyterian Meeting House, Capel-street, Dublin, Marcus Eustace, L.K.Q.C.P. and I.R.C.S.I., of Highfield Drumcondra, to Elizabeth Jane, daughter of the late Andrew Barnett Wallace, of Dublin.

At Rathmines, Dublin, Richard Dolan, Esq. (Alliance Gas Company), to Maria Elizabeth, daughter of the late John Daly, Esq., Comptroller of Her Majesty's Customs.

At the Roman Catholic Cathedral, Longford, Patrick O'Farrell, Esq., of Dublin, to Kate Winefred, daughter of Patrick Heron, Esq., merchant, Fenagh, county Leitrim.

William Mason, Esq., Liverpool, grandson of the late Wm. Mason, Esq., J.P., Galway, to Henrietta Catherine, daughter of the late James Cuff, Esq., D.L., county Mayo.

At Hartston Church, Cambridgeshire, the Rev. Wm. Birch Wolfe, of Wood Hall, Essex, to Marianne, daughter of the late Robert Hewetson Richards, Esq., barrister-at-law, and Chairman of the county Wexford.

At Calcutta, William Rea Larminie, Esq., C.S., to Annie, daughter of the late Charles Mackenzie, Esq., and niece of Lieut.-Col. Colin Mackenzie.

At St. Michael's Church, Port Royal, Jamaica, J. P. Cosby, Esq., Captain 14th Regt., to Annie Houldsworth, daughter of the Rev. C. Fyfe.

At the Cathedral, Colombo, Ceylon, Major Fiennes Middleton Colville, 43rd Light Infantry, to Helen, daughter of Major Hugh Stafford Northcote, Westhill, Torquay.

DEATHS.

At his residence, Ballinacurra House, on the 3rd inst., of fever, James Hogan, Esq., deeply regretted by his family and a large circle of friends. His remains will be interred on Tuesday morning next, at 9 o'clock.

On Friday evening, after a very brief illness, of malignant scarletina, William S. Cooper, aged 12 years, the eldest and beloved son of John W. Channer, Esq., Sub-Inspector of Police at Cork, and late of Adare, in this county. "Suffer the children to come unto me," saith Christ, "for of such is the kingdom of Heaven."

At Mallow, Rebecca Anne, relict of the late Rev. William Farmer.

At Fitzwilliam-square, Dublin, Mary, wife of Patrick Sweetman, Esq., Longtown, county Kildare.

At Capel-street, Dublin, Patrick O'Connor, Esq., formerly of Ballah, county Roscommon.

At Upper Rathmines, Dublin, Dominick, son of Inspector Corr, of the Dublin Metropolitan Police.

At Grosvenor-road, Rathmines, Dublin, Sydney, wife of Mr. William Acheson.

At Henrietta-street, Dublin, Mrs. Elizabeth Claffey.

At Amiens-street, Dublin, Mrs. Bridget Hackett.

At Spring Valley, county Meath, Maria Theresa, wife of Patrick Joseph Shannon, Esq.

At Monkstown, county Dublin, Mary, wife of William R. Jones, Esq.

At Greystones, county Wicklow, Catherine, wife of Mr. George Ludlow.

At Hazelwood, Dublin, Sarah Frances, wife of Edward J. Cooper, Esq.

At Rockfield House, Stradone, co. Cavan, J. O'Reilly, Esq. In China, Captain Malachy Nugent, 67th Regt., son of A. F. Nugent, Esq., of Pallas, county Galway.

At Belsair, near Plymouth, Amelia Augusta, wife of Major Fitzgerald, 23rd Regt.

At Runton, Norfolk, the Rev. A. H. King, son of the Rev. Sir James W. King, Bart.

At Orton Longueville, Lady Edith Blanche Gordon, the youngest twin daughter of the Marquis of Huntly, aged 12 months.

At the Colewort Barracks, Portsmouth, Brevet-Major H. T. Buck, 53rd Regt.

Lost in the Lifeguard steamer, on her passage from Newcastle to London, John, son of the late Robert Riky, Esq., of Dublin.

At Cowes, Isle of Wight, A. A. Forbes, son of the late Professor Edward Forbes.

Wednesday Evening, 8th Inst.
dent Chapel, Bedford-row.
Thursday Evening, the 8th Inst
Church, Glentworth-street.
Friday Evening, the 9th Inst
George-street.
Saturday, the 10th, Noon, a
AND ON SUNDAY EVE
The above places of Worsh
AND
A SOLEMN CON
WILL BE HE
THE THEATRE, HI
At Half-past Six
Which will terminate the Ser
week.
Prayer is earnestly request pleased to own by His presence that saving results may follow.
Limerick, Jan. 3, 1863.

Life Assur

SCOTTISH PROVIDENT
INSTITUTE

HEAD OFFICE: 14, ST. ...
EDINBURGH

DUBLIN BRANCH: 16 ...
INCOME in Year 1861 ...

THE REALIZED FUN
1861, arising entirely from Contributions of the Member being an increase of £72,000
THE ADVANTAGE wh
to good lives is, that for the sa
an Assurance may be had fro
after many years' accumulatio
Thus a Policy for £1,200 o
the same yearly premium usu only; entitled, moreover, to s business, free of any abatement proprietary. Policies originally already been increased to £1,3 instances to £1,780.

EXAMPLES OF ANNUAL P
£100 AT D.

Age 20	25	30	35
£1 15 8	£1 18 0	£2 1 6	£2 6

Copies of the Annual Report may be had on application to JAMES WA
Manager
William I
AGEN
44, UPPER CE
LIMERICK