

MARRIAGES.

At St. Peter's Church, Dublin, the Rev. Charles W. Benson, Rathmines School, to Frances, daughter of John Harden, Esq., Lower Buckingham-street, Dublin, and Brighton Lodge, Raheny.

At Westlan-row Chapel, Dublin, Hugh Sweeny, Esq., of Sligo, to Mary Josephine Murphy, Aungier-street, Dublin.

At the North Parish Chapel, Cork, Mr. Thomas S. Brindly, King-street, Cork, to Margaret, daughter of Mr. Devereux, North Main-street, Cork

At St. Andrew's Church, Cardiff, J. H. Langley, Esq., R.N., to Louisa Amelia, daughter of the late William Andrew Bone, Esq., solicitor, Devonport.

At Kimbolton, Hunts, the Rev. J. Montague Seaton, M.A., Second Master of Cheltenham Juvenile Proprietary School, to Madeline, daughter of Charles Sprague, Esq., M.R.C.S., Engd., of Kimbolton.

At Melbourne, Australia, James Coghlan, Esq., brother to W. Coghlan, Esq., Collector of Customs, Wexford, to Susanna, daughter of the late John Griffith, Esq., Inspector of Fisheries, Coleraine, county Derry.

At Auckland, New Zealand, George, son of the late George Harden, Esq., of Huntstown, county Dublin, to Mary Sabina, daughter of the late John Haselden, Esq., late of London.

DEATHS.

At Abbeyville, on the 24th inst., Bessie, the beloved child of Henry Ievers, Esq., aged eleven years.

On the 25th inst., at Deebert House, in this county, the infant daughter of John Cree, Esq., aged 7 months.

At Kenmare, Arthur Bland, Esq., brother of the late James Bland, Esq., J.P., Derryquin Castle, a gentleman deservedly regretted. His remains were accompanied by a large cortege to Sneem Church, where a feeling and impressive address was delivered by the Rev. A. V. Watson, A.M., T.C.D., to a numerous and attentive assembly.

At the Vicarage, Carrick-on-Suir, the Rev. R. H. Smith, who was only a few weeks since inducted to that living.

At Kilcarron, county Tipperary, Alexander Carew, Esq.

At North Abbey-square, Cork, Mary, relict of the late Michael Cody, Esq.

At South Mall, Cork, Hannah Tucker Oakshott, wife of W. H. Oakshott.

In Kilkenny, Miss Eleanor Sullivan (in religion Sister Mary Scholastica, of the Order of St. Benedict, daughter of the late Richard Sullivan, Esq., M.P., Castle Bamford, and niece of Michael Sullivan, Esq., M.P. for Kilkenny.

At Dunmore, county Waterford, William Boyd Allen, son of Mr. Nathaniel Allen.

At Ballyaneen, county Waterford, Mr. Edmond Terry.

At Clonea, county Waterford, Mr. J. Casey, brother of the Rev. T. Casey, P.P.

At Kingstown, Hamilton, son of the late Richard White, Esq., of Inchiclongh, Bantry, county Cork.

At Meadowbrook, Dundrum, county Dublin, Francis Collins, Esq., Commander R.N., late Inspecting Officer of Coast Guards in Donegal.

At Upper Leeson-street, Dublin, Elizabeth, relict of the late Timothy Turner Houston, Esq.

At Grenville-street, Dublin, Edward N. M'Farland, Esq.

At Ashton-quay, Dublin, Mr. Patrick Brady.

At Walcot House, Bray, John Robert, son of John Robinson, Esq.

At Lower Leeson-street, Dublin, Mr. Michael Mernagh.

At Cullenswood-avenue, Dublin, Daniel Robert, son of Mr. Marcus Sullivan.

At Falbot-street, Dublin, Margaret, wife of Thos. O'Toole, and Margaret, infant daughter of same.

At Cambridge, George Leapingwell, Esq., LL.D., one of the Esquire Bedels of the University.

At Hamilton-terrace, St. John's-wood, London, Fanny, relict of the Rev. Robert Twiss, LL.D.

At Juvencanvil, Southland, New Zealand, Wm. Augustus Gordon, son of Lieutenant-General H. W. Gordon, Royal Artillery.

At Gonda, Oude, East Indies, Lieut. Hotham Tayler Woodcock, Bengal Staff Corps.

The Lecture will be illustrated by a splendid collection of first-class

"Dissolving Views,"
and brilliantly illuminated by the
OXY HYDROGEN LIGHT.

Chair to be taken at Eight o'Clock.

ADMISSION TO MEMBERS FREE.

ADMISSION TO NON-MEMBERS 6d.

Season Tickets, (not transferable,) to Admit One to the Course of Lectures 2s. 6d. each. Season Tickets, (not transferable,) for the Course of Lectures together with the Privilege of taking out Books from the Library, 5s. each.

Tickets may be procured from Z. Ledger & Son ; T. B. Hamilton's ; or, from the Committee.

By Order,
HENRY C. HALLOWELL,
WILLIAM WALLIS,

Hon. Secs.

Society's Rooms, 45, George-street,
Dec. 29, 1863.

Limerick and Ennis Railway.

MARKET TICKETS.

ON and after 2nd January, 1864, the undermentioned arrangements will come in force, and supersede those now in existence :—

On SATURDAYS, 3rd Class Return Tickets, as under, will be issued, available for Return by any of the Trains the same day.

From Ennis,	}	To Limerick, at Fare and a half.
" Clare Castle,
" Ardsollus,	}	" 1s. 6d.
" Ballycar,
" Cratloe,	}	To Ennis, at Fare and a half.
" Six-mile-Bridge,
" Long Pavement,	}	" 1s. 6d.
" Cratloe,
" Ballycar,	}	HENRY JACOB.
" Ardsollus,
" Six-mile-Bridge,

Limerick Terminus,
December 24, 1863.

Dec. 29.

Waterford and Limerick Railway.

CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS.

THE 1st and 2nd Class Return Tickets issued Stations on Great Southern and Western, Waterford and Kilkenny, and Limerick and Ennis Railways, on 23rd Inst., and following days, to 2nd January next, inclusive, will be available for Return up to and on, 4th January.

HENRY JACOB.

Limerick Terminus,
Dec. 22, 1863.