

erine-place. The constance as he did not see the was then called, but he ces then cautioned young on of the offence, for had ved the charge, he should seven days. Little Winder out.

Health Restoring Revalenta fifty times its cost in other digestion, strong nerves, r, pure blood, refreshing y, and energy to the most We extract a few out of 58,216 of the Marchioness il, 1862.—“In consequence s wasting away for seven and nervous that I was n fact, attend to anything, n all over, bad digestion, the most intolerable ner- ted even my sitting down for s of the street, and even oyed me. I felt dreadfully course with the world had any medical men, English scribed for me in vain. to DU BARRY'S Revalenta s delicious Food for three s praised; it has completely again and able to make and my social position. Accept, deepest gratitude, and of MARCHIONESS DE BREHAN.” quart de Decies, of many t, 832. “Fifty years' in- dyspepsia, nervousness, tion, flatulency, spasms, Maria Joly.”—Cure, No. the Duke of Pluskow, of nervousness and liver com- 1. Miss Elizabeth Jacobs, ndigestion, gatherings, low s.—Cure, No, 54,816. The Fakenham, Norfolk, “of f the liver, which had re- at.”—In tins 1lb., 2s 9.; 12lb., 22s.; 24lb., 40s.— o., No. 77, Regent-street, and Chemists in every town

ENTS :
n, and Co., Bewley and
th, Penrose, and Co., W.
E. Harrison & Co., J. S.
Company; Hoyte and Son,
nbery, Boyd and Goodwin,
rpley and Co., Cornelius Goulding and Co., Woodford
June 2.

Regt., of a son.
At Little Packington Rectory, Warwickshire, the Hon. Mrs. George Legge, of a son.
At Madras, the wife of Lieut. J. G. Lindsay, Royal Engineers, of a son.
At Peshawur, the wife of Colonel Reynell G. Taylor, C.B., Commissioner, Punjab, of a daughter.
At Kamptee, Nagpore, the wife of Captain Fred. H. Hope, the Royal Regiment, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

At Wesley Chapel, Patrick-street, Cork, Mr. Charles Bateman, Postmaster, Kinsale, to Anne, daughter of Mr. D. Heagerty, Passage West.
At St. Anne's Parish Church, Dublin, Charles Martin Stoer, Esq., of Harrington-square, London, to Delphina, daughter of Mr. Wm. Garbois, of Kildare-street, Dublin.
At St. George's Church, Dublin, Mr. Francis A. Mooney, to Frances, daughter of the late Thomas William Roberts, Esq., late of Dublin, and formerly of Copse, county Cork.
At All Saints' Church, Blackheath, Duncan Alexander Campbell Fraser, Esq., M.D., Surgeon to the Forces, to Gertrude Margaret Zelle, daughter of the late Henry Robert Du Vernett Gossett Muirhead, Esq., of Bredisholm, Lanarkshire.
At Nelson, New Zealand, Alfred William, son of the late Henry Moore, Esq., Readun, county Tipperary, to Catherine, daughter of Edwin Harris, Esq., C.E., of New Plymouth.
At St. Thomas's, West Indies, J. B. T. Macaulay, Esq., son of the late F. W. Macaulay, Esq., of Antrim, to C. Leocadie, daughter of the late A. L. Gommez, of St. Thomas.

DEATHS.

At her residence, Kilkee, Sarah, daughter of the late Capt. Johnson, of Limerick, after seven days' illness. This highly accomplished lady was much respected by all classes; her loss is much deplored, especially by the congregation of the parish church of that watering place, where her performance on the organ afforded delight and edification.
At Brookeborough, county Fermanagh, Elizabeth, widow of the late John Roe, Esq., of Rockwell, county Tipperary, aged 79 years.
At the Royal Hospital, Kilmainham, Captain Augustus Howard Ormsby, Royal Invalids, late of the 1st Royals.
At Mulgrave-terrace, Kingstown, Miss Frances Mary Lynch, daughter of the late Marcus Blake Lynch, Esq., of Barnagh county Galway.
At Palmerston-place, Dublin, Adelaide, relict of Richard Woodward Swayne, Esq., of H.M. Customs.
At Kenilworth-square, Dublin, Julia, daughter of George W. Finlay, Esq.
At Upper Gardiner-street, Dublin, Anne, daughter of the late Robert Weir, Esq., formerly of Hall Craig, in the county of Fermanagh.
At Kildare-street, Dublin, Henry Darley, Esq., M.D.
At Molesworth-place, Dublin, Mr. Andrew M'Killop.
At Everleigh, Rathgar, Clara, the infant daughter of John Heacock, Esq.
At Winton-terrace, Dublin, Raby Elizabeth Violet, the infant child of Dr. Persse White.
At Cork-street, Dublin, Mr. Wm. M'Clean.
At Portland-row, Dublin, Mr. Patrick A. Fagan.
In Dublin, John Magenis, solicitor.
At Wexford, Mary, wife of Stephen Doyle, Esq., T.C.
At Aghada, Anne Judith, wife of the Rev. J. R. Henderson.
At Glencraig, county Down, Miss Symes, aged 91.
At Sletty Cottage, Carlow, the Rev. Peter J. Kavanagh, Chaplain in the Presentation Convent, Bagnalstown.
At Wilton-crescent, London, Lady Emily Best, daughter of John Stratford, Earl of Aldborough.
At Queen's-terrace, Bayswater, Emily Cordelia, wife of Richard Simmonds, R.N., of the Admiralty, Coast-guard Office.
At Surbiton, Elizabeth Martha, wife of the Rev. John Humphrey Davies, and daughter of the late Right Hon. Sir Anthony Hart, formerly Lord Chancellor of Ireland.
At Ramsgate, Commander James Grant Raymond, R.N.
At Constanz, Switzerland, the Dowager Lady Temple, relict of the late Sir Grenville Temple, Bart.

FINE A IMPORTANT NO

C. L. BENNETT has t connoisseur and the P with instructions from a announce for
ABSOLUTE SALE
AT HIS GALLERY, 1
LIME
ON THURSDAY, 1
AN UNUSUALLY AN VALUABLE COLLE
100 HIGH CLA
PRINCIPALLY of Continental Schools, taste and judgment, and en
most esteemed living Arti been awarded prizes at the tions, together with a few ings of the Elder Masters;
the most attractive and v
been ever exhibited in Lim
to public competition.
Particular attention is di
A Lady making Lace, by liant specimen of this gifte ployment, by Armfield; W
a Way, by Perry; The Gu
in Pasturage, by Coomans;
by Verberckoven; a Gra
Castiglione; Portrait of t
Thomas Lawrence; Portra ney; Marine Views, by Hayes, Callow, and Willia
tie, Robbe, Williams, Va
nold, R.A.; Historical Sub Phillipo, Lippi, Brouwer, equal merit.
The entire collection will
the 8th prox., when catal
be sent on application.
Sale to commence
C. L. BEN

Bona Fide Moi

IN the year 1863, £5,0
by Government, wi various sums upwards, to
of ONE POUND may pectus (gratis) apply to M Frankfort-on-the-Main;
at 28, Clement's Lane,
E.C., will be immediately

