

u do so I will second your ission, in which the ques- and wool was re-opened Goggin moved that Mr. of the standard blanket, manufacturer to test it with a being seconded by Mr. inously, the question was at the board, but being in- hat no question had arisen y for him to enter into any

CINE.

ter for medicine, said that ident physician at the city two samples of drugs for

He (Mr. Fisher) now ten- led for an analysis, the ex- ay.

ave another analysis? : not analysed the blankets ysis would cost us £5. icines are bad I will pay for

to go into an analysis of l to the resident physician. h the decision of the board r took half the quantity of his own expense.

that the Board of Superin- Asylum had declared that ter than cotton.

case of Henry Norman, a and who had been arrested rom the 9th Regiment and hen it was discovered that vas left on the streets desti- should have passed him on agistrates had no power to

—TRASH.

hat the wine given to the more nor less than "rotten about adjourning when Mr. and he being under the in- not listen to him, added—I ging the matter forward as ans" (oh, oh, and clamour). clamour—I repeat you are so use in bringing any com- ine is "rotten trash."

medical officer make any ne wine light and sweet, and the committee.

rred to the committee for ard adjourned.

MARRIAGES.

On the 10th instant, at Kneecal, Notts, Edward Lysaght Griffin, barrister-at-law, youngest son of the Lord Bishop of Limerick, to Beatrice Fanny, third daughter of George Wm. Craddock, Esq., of Nine-Eaton.

Mr. Martin Joseph Maguire, of this city, to Maria, second daughter of Captain M'Carthy, late of the 9th Regt., and now of the United States Army.

At St. Mary's Church, Dublin, James Gorman Wilson, son of James Wilson, Esq., of Moynalty, county Meath, to Jane, daughter of Thomas Robinson, Esq., Killecock.

At Ballyscadden, Thomas Maher, Esq., Balbriggan, to Mary Anne, daughter of the late Thomas O'Brien, Esq., of Baylens- town, county Dublin.

John M'Manus, Esq., of Gurteen House, county Longford, to Kate Mary, daughter of the late John Dignan, Esq., of Mount Talbot, county Galway.

At Trinity Church, Edinburgh, William Henry Penrose, Esq., of Lebane, in the county of Cork, to Elizabeth Wather- ston, daughter of the late Captain Robert Tait, R.N., of Pirn, Mid-Lothian.

At Jersey, Captain Robert Maule, 11th Regt., to Henrietta Louisa, daughter of the Rev. Francis Vyvyan Luke, M.A., Rector of Frinton, Essex.

At Lewisham Church, the Rev. Francis Badham, Fellow of St. John's College, Oxford, to Gertrude Anne, daughter of the late Matthew FitzPatrick, Esq., Queen's County, formerly of the 39th Regt.

At the Cathedral, Calcutta, Thomas Wright, Esq., Assis- tant Surgeon, H.M. 88th Regt., son of the late Thos. Wright, Esq., of Foulksrath Castle, county Kilkenny, to Margaret, daughter of John McCheane, Esq., J.P., of Southsea.

DEATHS.

January 18th, after measles, Edith Louisa, youngest and beloved daughter of Robert Maxwell, Esq., of Islandmore, in this county.

Suddenly, at her residence, 55, Lower Baggot-street, Dublin, Susan, relict of Thomas Hastings, Esq., formerly Collector of Customs in this port, and eldest daughter of the late Richard Phillips, Esq., J.P., of Galle House, county Tipperary.

At Ardmagh, Passage West, Theobald, youngest child of John Francis Maguire, Esq., M.P., Mayor of Cork, aged seven months.

At Clifton, near Fermoy, the Rev. Richard Deane Freeman, Rector of Ardnageehy.

At Mallow, Julia, daughter of the late Rev. J. A. Coghlan, Rector of West Lexham, Norfolk.

At Ballintemple, Achilles De Courcey Daunt, Esq., late of the Tipperary Militia.

At Roundwood House, county Wicklow, Mr. Arthur Lee Guinness, after a few hours' illness.

At Murphys-town, county Dublin, Susanna, widow of Wm. Espinasse, Esq., of Kill Abbey.

At Mary-street, Dublin, Mrs. Mary Jiles Hickey, relict of the late James Hickey, architect and builder.

At the Rent-office, Boyle, Margaret, daughter of the late Wm. Lawrence, Esq.

At Turvey House, Donabate, James Pagan, Esq.

At Athy, Mr. William Smith.

In Belfast, Charlotte, relict of the late Thomas Parry, Esq., of Hillsborough.

At Guernsey, Sophia Maria, widow of Lieut.-Col. Charles J. Selwyn, R.E.

At Cambridge, Rear-Admiral Digby Marsh.

At Maida-vale, London, Major-General Dutton.

At Cheltenham, Major Thos. Frobisher, late of the Bengal Army.

At Ripon, Anna Maria, relict of Captain Michael Byrne, 1st Royal Dragoons.

At Umballa, Lieutenant F. J. Makeson, late 74th Bengal Native Infantry.

At sea, off Bermuda, from accidentally falling overboard, Richard Ratliffe, Senior Assistant-Surgeon of her Majesty's ship Melpomene.

At Valetta, Malta, Frances Sarah, widow of Capt. Graves, R.N., formerly superintendent of the port.

In New York, Mr. Thomas Nugent Fennelly.

At San Francisco, California, Andrew D. Marshall, son of the late William Marshall, Esq., of the Island of Inch, county Donegal.

Queen of Commerce, Saturday Next, the 17th In occupied by Messrs. Sidley I Street, where (in consequen the Harbour Board against they have been removed for Hundred Deals, of prime qua and 1,400 1 and 2 Inch Boas

The above will be arrang chasers, and will be found Builders, &c.

Sale at Twelve

PA

Auctione

January 15

IMPORTANT TO DIREC SOCIETIES AND INSTITU CLOTHIERS, I

Strictly Unrese

OF T

EXTENSIVE STOCK

Retiring from

CONSISTE

MEN AND WOMEN'S V

BEDDING,

TO BE SOLD by Unres DAY Next, the 15 Days, at

NO. 6, RUTLA

The Extensive Stock of Business, cc

SEVERAL HUN

Men's Clothes of every Material, Boots, Shoes, H Wearing Apparel, Bedding

The Subscriber begs to d Societies above mentioned will be found worth their quence of the Owner desiri Business, must be Sold.

Sale at 12 o'Clock each d P

January 15.

Borough of

NOT

THE Mayor will hold of an Auditor for the the place and stead of Mr. at the Town Hall, Rutlan the 20th day of JANUARY

Polling to commence : one hour should elapse du have been tendered for lawful for the Mayor to cl

(By, 4

JOHN EL

Town Clerk's Office, To Jan 15.