

seized possessed of or entitled or personal estate, and how same consists, and who is or law, and next of kin.

deposed that he was the head of the family for the last 10 years; that on his death he was taken care of by Mrs. Alpe, his daughter, under the care of the Rev. Mr. Alpe, where he remained for several years, but was wholly unable to conduct his affairs from a weakness of intel-examined at considerable length, and nothing material or calculated to elicit evidence was elicited.

As Mr. Russell proved he was the petitioner; is uncle to Mr. Grady; and property when he went to live with Richard Mansell; settled his affairs alone; never consulted Mr. Grady, considered him wholly unable to

Resided near Bruff for about 10 years when Mr. Grady was at Mr. Grady's while Grady was there; had no opinion of Mr. Grady's medical skill to see that he was being introduced to "this is a harmless creature"; he spoke of him as "Riggs' exactly a fool, but very weak-might observe; never saw any a mere trifle; he used to say, take care of me"; attended him at him "an immoral fool." Robert Shields, and Thomas several acts by Mr. Grady while which are wholly unfit for

P.P. Adare; and Rev. Dr. were also examined and was a person of very weak

As Mr. Asellor Murphy was residing in Mansell; from the opportunities, I never could utter any rational and sustained words, only a few single words to put up his hands to his eyes, and lance; I considered him a pergenital imbecility, the popular name or simplicity; I think that he pleased with him; on one himself with soap bubbles; of satyriasis, which is a imbecile intellect; it is often whose animal instincts have, but whose intellect was not ones are often very docile, timorous he was checked by persons he consider a deficiency of speech

Arthur Cooper Jenkinson, Esq., of No. 1, Belgrave-terrace, Stockwell-park, Surrey, eldest son of Charles T. Jenkinson, Esq., Antron House, Upper Tulse Hill, Surrey, to Caroline, eldest daughter of the late Windham M'Grath Fitzgerald, Esq., Clerk of the Peace for the County of Limerick, and grand-daughter of the late Alderman Watson. After partaking of a sumptuous dejeuner at the residence of her mother, Percy-place, Dublin, the happy pair left for Holyhead, en route for Paris. [No cards sent.]

March 7, in St. Peter's Church, Dublin, John Fitzgerald Studdert, Esq., son of Thomas Studdert, Esq., D.L., of Bunratty Castle, county Clare, to Alice Marion, widow of the late Arthur Bastable, Esq., barrister-at-law.

On the 10th of March, at the Parish Church of Ardcarne, county Roscommon, by the Rev. Daniel Leahy, vicar of Killybryan, Mr. Thomas Carter to Miss Fanny Mahery, both of that district. [No cards sent.]

In the Scotch Church, Bandon, Mr. James Forbes to Miss Sarah Hodges.

At St. Thomas's Church, Dublin, Samuel Worden, Esq., son of the Rev. John Worden, (Glastonbury, Somersetshire, to Kate, daughter of D. T. Sullivan, Esq., Upper Gloucester-street.

In London, George Lawson, Esq., F.R.C.S., of Park-street, Grosvenor-square, to Mary Louisa, widow of the late Charles Jenkins, Esq., Bengal Civil Service, and daughter of William Thompson, Esq., Deputy Inspector-General of Hospitals, Bengal.

At Dawlish, James Hay Mackenzie, Esq., Writer to the Signet, Edinburgh, to Selina Jane, widow of Donald Hume Macleod, Esq., late of the 63rd Regt.

At Calcutta, Edward Gray, Esq., Bengal Civil Service, son of the Right Hon. Sir Charles Edward Gray, late Chief Justice of Bengal, to Lucy Sarah, daughter of the late Henry Holroyd, Esq., barrister-at-law.

At Vellore, Captain C. H. Beddek, Madras Staff Corps, to Lucy Mary Josephine, daughter of the late Captain Bond, Madras Army.

DEATHS.

On the 10th inst., at his residence, Meelickville, Stephen O'Halloran, Esq.—a gentleman much esteemed and deeply regretted by his numerous friends, to whom he was endeared by affectionate regard.

James F. Bland, Esq., J.P., of Derryquin Castle, county Kerry. A highly respectable cortège from Kenmare, with his numerous sorrowing tenantry, accompanied the remains of this lamented gentleman to their earthly resting place at Sneem church, where a most feeling and impressive discourse was delivered by the Rector to a large and attentive congregation.

At Ballinassig, county Cork, Marion Jennet Blackwood, daughter of Thomas Mackenzie, Esq.

At Dunloe, county Kerry, Margaret Catherine, daughter of Daniel Mahony, Esq.

At Ballymalis, John Sealy, Esq., formerly of Maglas, county Kerry.

At Lower Gardiner-street, Dublin, Edward Fraser, Esq., of Annagh, county Sligo.

At Bushfield-avenue, Dublin, Esther Catherine, relict of the late Rev. W. H. Stanford, Rector and Vicar of Rincurran, diocese of Cork.

At Rathgar, Martha Ada, widow of the late Thomas Fry, Esq., of Dublin.

At North Great George's-street, Dublin, Wm. C. Plunket Stack, Esq., C.E.

At Lime Lawn, county Dublin, Eleanor, relict of the late Wm. Monks, Esq.

At Rathmines, Dublin, Amelia Colpoys, daughter of John Johnston Tweedy, Esq.

At Eccles-street, Dublin, John Barton, Esq.

At Donnybrook-road, Dublin, Anna Leland, daughter of the late William Robinson, Esq., of Churchtown House, Dundrum.

At Ballygarvey House, Ballymena, John M'Killop, Esq., Commander R.N.

At Harristown, county Louth, James Caraher, Esq., J.P.

Marianne, wife of John Willcocks, Esq., late Resident Magistrate, Tullamore.

At Lisnashanker, county Antrim, Thomas, son of the late Dr. Simpson, of Moira, most extensive lot of goods will be made up in lots to variety of useful sundries, & Sale at One o'Clock. Terms at Sale. EDW

The Auctioneer directs the above valuable Stock, stored on Hay, and in m perfectly free from disease

March 12.

Bankrupt

Of Hay, Oats, Turnips, Harness, Tax Cart and Saddle, Bridles, Mar Lathe and Tools, old M Strapping, Office Furn In Re DIG

Bar H. N.

HAS received instruction in this matter, to S NE-DAY, the 18th Ins MILLS, County Clare, at stacks oats, 1/4 an acre tur 4 drays, 4 turf creels, 1 t working horses, 1 tax car car, 1 saddle, 2 bridles, 3 neers' lathe and tools, 6 old brick, office furniture

Teru H. N.

120 Hundred of P day, after above are Sold See Advertisement.

Bankrupt

IMMENSE AU

In re DIGAN an

H. N.

HAS received Instru this matter, to S On WEDNESDAY, t Bog (within 15 minutes' Immediately offer the S at O'Brien's Bridge Mills ABOUT £500 W Made up in Ricks of each.

This Turf will be S chasers.

No better Turf can be A good Road runs thr connell Train runs by it. Terms at Sale.

Limerick, 7th March,