DEATHS.

On the 9th inst., at Ballinvirick, of bronchitis, Amelia, the beloved daughter of Thomas Roysse, Esq., J.P., to the deep sorrow of all her family and friends.
 On the 11th inst., at her residence, 14, William-street, after a long and painful illness, which she bore with the utmost resignation, at an advanced age, Anna, relict of the late Edward Quinlivan, Esq., and mother of Alderman Laurence Quinlivan, J.P. Throughout her long life she was distinguished by great vigour of mind and firmness of character, while there ever shone from both the warm light of a kindly and affectionate nature; and few indeed could tell of firmer friendships, or a greater constancy of personal regard.
 Yesterday morning, at his residence in George's-street, Emily, wife of Mr. W. Brunton, photographic artist, after a lingering illness, which she bore with Christian resignation.
