

ny of them chose to ac- and enter the army, no nable them to emigrate, r names, upon each pay- e, for which he would eyance on board one of ing Queenstown for New addressees, which were steps or windows of the he abused the English of this country, which ded by the large auditory place. The "American ed, was attended by a own the names as they threepences, and as he upes to meet him on a nted from whence they has he passed from Fer- ; Tipperary, Newcastle, allow. The parties who the country made every , but the "General" was them followed on to Cork ings could be gained of his iver, appears that the ty on Sunday, and took up lodgng-house, kept by a Merchants-quay, accom- There being an air of an, and his being unpre- array gave strong hints e r bill was not quickly paid i the police; the result of al," who went out for a return. Mrs. Murray re- cause of his absence, and attache began to suspect own position, and he ing of the gentleman employed him at a high in his recruiting exper- promised him eventually a Department of the Union d not received a cent, and eared had vanished. The upied was now examined, niture might have also dis- nd a small bundle contain- h might have seen service ginia campaign, and a rem- sessed little of its original d left behind him the rolls ie "secretary," and which ousand. These, however, ot represent all who had certainly amounted to five present a sum of £62 10s. present, occupied the local ument to suppress so fla- igned Enlistment Act.

In St. Stephen's Church, Dublin, John L. Dixon, Esq., of Toronto, Canada West, to Jane, daughter of the late Samuel Williams, Esq., of Longford.
 At Rathfarnham Church, John Robert Buchanan, Captain 6th Royal Lancashire Regiment, to Henrietta, daughter of Richard Beverly Usher, late Captain 86th Regt.
 At St. Peter's Church, Dublin, Wm. O'Neill, Esq., Athy, county Kildare, to Fanny, daughter of the late Thos. Budds, Esq., of Limogue House, Queen's County.
 In Dublin, John Lindsay, Esq., of Wicklow, to Miss Mary Ryan, of Patrick-street, Cork.
 At St. Michan's Church, Dublin, Joseph Thompson, son of the late Mr. Wm. Boxwell Tanner, of Wexford, to Hessie, daughter of the late Mr. Edward Hogan, of Ennis.
 In Galway, John Gill, Esq., Surveyor of Income Tax, to Bessy, daughter of Benjamin Jackson, Esq., County Inspector of Constabulary, Galway West.
 At St. George's, Hanover-square, London, W. Lloyd Browne, Esq., Captain 5th Lancers, to Charlotte Elizabeth, daughter of Lady Elizabeth Ord and the late General James Ord.
 At Bunbeg, Co. Fermanagh, the Rev. Robert Bruce, Missionary, C.M.S., to Emily Charlotte, daughter of W. Hughes Hughes, Esq., formerly M.P. for Oxford.
 At Sudasheoghur, Francis H. T. Gordon Cumming, Esq., Lieut. 22nd Regt. Bombay N.I., son of the late Sir William G. Gordon Cumming, Bart., of Altyre, to Emma, daughter of John Campbell, Esq., of Carrickfergus, county Antrim.

DEATHS.

At Gurrane, on the 22nd inst., Mr. Patrick Sheehy, aged 65 years, a respectable farmer of the old type, who maintained through life an unsullied reputation.
 On the 7th April last, at his residence, Louisville, North America, Mr. Patrick J. O'Connell, aged 50 years, formerly of the parish of Abbeyfeale, county Limerick. He leaves a wife and family to mourn his loss.
 Passage, Cork, Captain Sullivan, Harbour Master.
 Belvidere-place, Mountjoy-square, Dublin, James W. Eney, Esq., A.B., T.C.D.
 Rutland-square, Dublin, Miss Louisa Mary Exshaw.
 Eustace-street, Dublin, Mr. John Galwey.
 Prospect, county Mayo, Eliza Jackson, daughter of Robert Buchanan, Esq., barrister-at-law.
 At Henry-street, Belfast, William Sheridan, son of Robert Hamilton, Esq.
 At Woodstock-road, Belfast, Elizabeth, wife of Mr. James Fraser, C.E.
 At the Convent of Mercy, Tullamore, Mother Mary Baptist Geraghty, late Superioress of the Sisters of Mercy, Newcastle-on-Tyne.
 At Baleagh, Clogher, Robert J. Barnett, Esq.
 At Great Cumberland-street, London, the Hon. Frederick A. H. Chichester.
 At Elton Hall, Hants, the Lady Fanny Freby.
 At Cheshunt, Lieut-General Richard Jones, R.A.
 At Margate, Elizabeth, wife of the Rev. F. T. Stainforth, Rector of St. Mark's, London.
 At Southampton, Mary Eliza, widow of the late Major Doherty, 13th Light Dragoons.
 At Ikley Wells House, Yorkshire, William M'Collough, Esq., late of Belfast.
 At North Cray-place, Kent, Western Wood, Esq., M.P. for the City of London.
 At Torpoint, Cornwall, John Henry, son of the late Captain Boyle Travers, Rifle Brigade.
 At Putney, Edward Thomas Miles Tronson, Colonel, late 13th Light Infantry.
 At Heavitree, near Exeter, Major Edward Wynne Bristow, Bengal Retired Service.
 At Exeter, Helen Eliza, daughter of the Rev. James Todd, late vicar of Liskeard.
 At Buxton, Derbyshire, Eliza, widow of the late Major-General F. V. Raper, Bengal Army.
 At Paris, on his way home from India, Lieut-Colonel Henry Lee Gibbard, Royal Horse Artillery.
 At South Salem, Ohio, Ellen, wife of the Rev. Henry Rowen, formerly of Hill Mount, Drogheda.

26,000 2-inch do., 60,000 1/2-inch bends to match; a large quantity burnt garden pots and saucepans, 12 and 14 inches; seed pans, 12 and 14 inch; flue linings; quoins, pipe, with sockets and elbows, and unglazed, glazed teapots, drain brick, &c.

THE MACHINERY:

One hand-power Pipe Making order, capable of producing with all the dies complete from One Double Hand Power Pipe Making Machine, in fine condition one double action hand power Pipe Lining Machine. A very powerful machine, in capital working order, ing an extra large quantity of pipes and flue linings of 12 inch diameter, with all the dies complete, machines may be inspected and 45 feet of capital shedding with shelving, good dry plank, 2 Barrows, Pug Mill, Tables, Iron Screws, would answer for Wrought Iron Boiler, 3 inch Weights and Beams.
 Office fixtures and Building Paving, and neatly fitted 1 Box Cart, Car, Quantity of Window Framing, Sashes, two with all the Sashes complete, 1 and Architraves, about 30 spars, Fire Wood, Quantity of old materials, about 20,000 of and other useful matters.

One Days Sale only. To JOHN BERN

Note--This is to be a Strict and as Mr. Atkinson's time must be taken directly after latest by Saturday, the 6th will treat by private Sale be one disposed to buy his Iron Kilns, Machinery, and Stock opportunity of making a good acquainted with the trade, as remunerative business.

PREMISES IN DE

For the Cure and The valuable Interest in the circumstanced Premises on has expended from £200 to one engaged in the Home tion of American Provisions peculiar advantages.

ISAAC AT No. 7, Richm