AMERICA.—By the "City of Baltimore," which arrived at Queenstown yesterday, with intelligence from New York to 21st March, we learn that military operations are going forward with great activity in the North and South. Numerous conflicts are enumerated as having taken place by land and water, successes being claimed on both sides. A Negro regiment of 1,000, despatched on an expedition to Florida, under European officers, is said to have been captured. The premium on gold had gone up to 400 per cent at Richmond. The details, though copious, disclose nothing of great importance. The Confederates are said to have sustained severe reverses.

DEATHS.

At Roscrea, on Sunday last, after a few hours' illness, Wm. Smallman, Esq., aged 54. By his death the town and neighbourhood sustain a serious loss; for, from the varied and important branches of business in which he was engaged—the milling, tanning, and timber trades—he was the most extensive employer in the district. He was a man of unsullied integrity, and being possessed of a clear, sound judgment, many persons in all classes of society will feel the want of his friendly aid and judicious counsel. The attendance at his funeral on Thursday evinced how general was the sorrow at his removal, and the deep sympathy felt for his afflicted family. His death has left a chasm in society that will not soon be filled. The deceased gentleman was a relative of the family of William G. Sibthorpe, Esq., of this (Limerick) city.
