

criptions) &c already contributed Church Missionary Society from CHURCH.—The building of a new of Killeedy, Diocese of Limerick, n. The old parish church was tes in the year 1822. The new he early English style: and for ist only of the nave, 40 by 20 feet rch for a future chancel is how-the east wall, and a door-way left estry. The plans were prepared Esq., Architect, Limerick. The canlan, of Bruff; whose contract ther porch, bellfry, prayer-desk, e funds already contributed not extend to these. Assistance to last three most necessary require-or, and will be most thankfully re-Thomas Willis, Killeedy Rectory,

e. They can be supplied at much contractor gives up the building orkmen than afterwards.

PROTESTANT ORPHAN SOCIETY.

meeting of the friends of the Tipthe County Tipperary Protestant s held in the Court-house on Frirously and influentially attended.
completely filled. This society is ds of 27—established, and largely d, public favour, and is steadily path of usefulness and charity.
n of Tipperary, which displays in so great a degree of advancement, rward in upholding this fine old benevolence. The rector of the . Manleverer, has in the Rev. H.
rate, a zealous supporter of this , and the latter gentleman, with -day most active in promoting the orphan meeting.

q., Lismacue, was moved to the sy, Esq., J.P., Kingswell House, Rev. B. H. Banner, rector of sy said that the worthy example his willingness to appear amongst rt, by his presence and his coun-n Society, would be followed by the county.
singing the Orphan Hymn, Brady addressed the meeting in ling terms, dwelling upon the society had upon every Protestant man in the country. The rev.
lear and succinct account of the the society, and from the statisti-fforded it was evident that while lly in the good cause they could e necessity for the increased exerpon them. Though they had comth a balance of £569, yet at the ng it was found that this sum and eived were scarcely able to meet ecessary expenses. The expendiar was £1,000 and upwards, and sorry to say, had fallen short of

At Pembroke Dock, the wife of Captain Sloman, 61st Regt., of a son.

MARRIAGES.

At Blair's Cove, Garrett Sealy Barry, Esq., M.D., Killarney, to Jane M. Blair, daughter of the late Richard L. Blair, of Blair's Cove.
At Trinity Church, Rathmines, Richard Hand Wood, Esq., M.D., J.P., and Coroner, Sligo, to Elizabeth Pitts, widow of Robert Pitts, Esq.; Dusseldorf, and daughter of the late Rev.
Fossey Taekaberry, of Sligo.
At Drumcondra Church, Alexander Tyndall, Esq., Strand-ville, Clontarf, county Dublin, son of the late Samuel Wilkinson Tyndall, Esq., J.P., to Eliza Anne, daughter of James L. Nixon, Esq., of Mount-Auburn, Richmond.
At Belleville, Upper Canada, Nathaniel B. Falkiner, Esq., son of the late Nathaniel Falkiner, Esq., of Ballyrickard, county Tipperary, to Elizabeth Amy, daughter of the late Hon. Edmund Murney, of Adjidanmo, Upper Canada.
At the Abbey Church, Romsey, the Rev. John Peake, vicar of Totternhoe, Bedfordshire, to Matilda Anne, daughter of the late Lieut.-Colonel Marshall, K.H.
At Winchester, the Rev. James Leith Moody, Chaplain to the Forces, to Mary, daughter of the Rev. W. D. Longlands, formerly rector of St. Gerran's, Cornwall.
At Jersey, Charles Henry Boileau, Esq., 61st Regt., son of Major-General Boileau, late of the Royal Bengal Artillery, to Susanna Maria, daughter of J. Le Bailley, Esq., of Les Vaux, Jersey.
At Azimghur, East Indies, Lieut. Neville Fraser Parker, Bengal Army, son of the late Major Neville Aubury Parker, 58th Bengal N.I., to Annie, daughter of the late James W.
Young, Esq., of Cheidaff, county Donegal.

DEATHS.

At Queenstown, to the deep regret of her afflicted husband and large family, Phoebe, the beloved wife of J. L. Trousdell, Esq., M.D., R.N., and son of T. L. Trousdell, Esq., of this city.
Oct. 18, at Fort House, Kilfinnan, Prudence, relict of the late Wm. Oliver, Esq.
At New Orleans, on the 24th of August last, Mr. Thomas Spellessy, late of Colonoey-street, in this city.
At Ardmannagh, Passage West, Margaret, eldest daughter of John Francis Maguire, Esq., M.P., Mayor of Cork.
At Leap, county Cork, Annie, wife of James W. Lewis, Esq., and daughter of the late Rev. R. Bruce, Wesleyan Minister.
At Youghal, Amy Elizabeth, daughter of S. Gordon, Esq.
At Adelaide-place, Cork, Elizabeth wife of Mr. Benjamin Haughton.
At Hill-view Cottage, St. Luke's, Cork, Catherine, daughter of Mr. J. E. Devlin.
In Waterford, at the residence of her uncle, Dr. Elliott, Mary Jane, daughter of the late Dr. Christopher Elliott, of Ceylon.
At Lower Baggot-street, Dublin, Alicia, daughter of the late Mr. Christopher Duffy.
At the Ward House, county Dublin, Mr. Patrick O'Reilly; also, Mr. Wm. O'Reilly, sons of Mr. Nicholas O'Reilly.
At Antrim-road, Belfast, John Alexander, son of the late Francis M'Cracken, Esq.
At Bryanston-square, London, Lady Katharine Stewart.
At Taunton, Sarah, widow of the late Commander Kelly, Royal Navy.
At Norwich, William Matchett, Esq., senior proprietor of the Norfolk Chronicle.
At Brighton, Charlotte, widow of the late Lieut.-General Pereira, Madras Army.
At Hastings, Reginald Graham, son of Capt. P. M. Syme, Royal Artillery.
At Netherplace, Mauchline, N.B., Ethel Egidia, the infant daughter of the Hon. Greville Vernon.
At Portsmouth, Lavinia Elizabeth, wife of Chas. A. Thorne, Esq., Paymaster of H.M.S. Duke of Wellington.
At Greenford-place, near Harrow, Captain W. Wilson Clark, Bengal Cavalry.
At Southport, Daniel Hornby, Esq., late Major in the 3rd Royal Lancashire Militia.
At Hongkong, George Clayton, Captain 99th Regt.
Drowned in crossing the Bar of Lagos, West Africa, Lieut.- Commander William Digby Mackworth Dolben, R.N., of H.M.S. Investigator.
At Winnebah, on the West Coast of Africa, Lieut. John Dudley Edward Cross, son of the Rev. J. D. Glad Cross, vicar of Pawlett, Somerset.
Killed by an accident on the Northern Railway of Canada, Mr. Richard Morton Leslie, son of the late Mr. James Leslie, of Clane, county Kildare.

Leave Limerick
Arrive at Killaloe
Leave Killaloe at Arrive at Limerick
Leave Limerick
Arrive at Killaloe
Leave Killaloe
Arrive at Limerick
The issue of Sunda
wise cease-Notice is also giv
will be closed and no
with it after 31st Oc

Limerick Terminus
20th October 187

Waterford an DISCONTINUANC

N ON and after the leaving Water and the train leaving p.m. will be discont
Also the train leavi
on Wednesdays and S
The train which a 5 p.m. will after ab arrive at intermediate
The Summer Excu
ford and Limerick o
likewise cease.

Limerick Terminus

THEATRE HEN

TI
FOR FOUR MO
MORNING
WEDNESDA
EVENING
WEDI
MORNING
TI

THE Theatre bei
make arrange
PROFESSOR F

MONSTER
On FRIDAY EV
On which occasio
be given to the Visit
For partic
Last Grand Day
at 2 o'Clock.