

ssured (hear, hear). I fully agree d down by Mr. Russell, namely—an efficient and zealous servant, he adequately but amply rewarded r, hear).

—Hearing the proposition of Mr. ke that the officer from the Com-l in and asked about the accounts. there could be anything more flatl's feelings.

ell, call him in; it can do no harm. el it my duty to state that I will e to Mr. Naish's salary.

. Martin, here entered the board, told the object for which the guar-presence, he expressed himself in of approbation of the manner in kept the accounts of the union.

said that he did not wish to oc-he board with any lengthened obseray for himself, however, that after incubation which Dr. Parkers nest it did not produce one solitary the principle now urged in the rea majority of the board on the re doctors speech on this day was d exploded topics which had been ed "many a time and oft" at that re (hear, hear,) and then as to the triumviri, he would ask the board allest attention to it (hear, hear.) ied, and in the course of his observa-a re-echo of his original speech, he erruption, when he declared that his legs for three hours untill he ng.

three hours!—You have only 5 mid you by a resolution of the board. onnell—Oh! well, if the gentleman on hands as that, he can afford to s on his legs, we, who have not waste in attitudinizing will proceed is proceed to the poll Mr. Chairman.

—Amidst cries of "poll poll" said well observed the advance would be art of a penny, he (Mr. Russell) n at hazard.

did not hazard anything, I want no hear.) uld ask Mr. Russell who advocated aying clerks well? To how many salaries over £100 a year?

ory was met with cries of "No, no, to put such a question, shut up, and don't answer."

will answer. We have a clerk to ree times the salary of Mr. Naish, rudent so to pay him; and I believe of 30 clerks to whom we pay over sh. I did not, nor do I wish to be, his man has dragged me out.

BOYTON, Esq., National Bank, Clonmel.

In Clonakilty Presbyterian Church, Thomas Lovell, Esq., of Kilpatrick, county Cork, to Annie, daughter of James Harton, Esq., Mahon Abbey, same county.

In Cork, Samuel Bleazby, Esq., son of the late Samuel Bleazby, of the Dyke, to Barbara Jenison, daughter of the late Thomas Morris, Esq., of Stoneville, county Cork

At the Roman Catholic Cathedral, Kilkenny. Joseph K.
Curtis, of Newrath, in the county of Waterford, Esq., to Miss Ellen Menton, of Kilkenny.

At St. Peter's, Eaton-square, London, Francis Ricardo, Esq., of the Friary, Old Windsor, to Louisa Jane, daughter of Sir Erskine Perry.

At Edinburgh, Henry Jennings Bramly, Esq., 42nd Royal Highlanders, to Harriet Louisa, daughter of Edward Woodford, Esq., H.M.'s Inspector of Schools.

At Chichester, Stephen Ratcliffe Pope, Esq., of March, Cambridgeshire, to Frances Elizabeth, daughter of the Rev.
T. Brown, Prebendary of Chichester.

At Bombay, Edward F. A. MacCarthy, Esq., son of the late James MacCarthy, Esq., 61st Regt., to Alice Duff, daughter of the late Bernard Reilly, of the Calcutta Mint.

DEATHS.

On the the 28th ult., at his mother's residence, 3, Somerset-place, Birkenhead, of congestion of the lungs, in the 21st year of his age, John William, youngest son of the late James Watson, Esq., Millbrook, county Clare, and grandson of the late Alderman Watson, of this city. His end was peace.

At 19, Laura-terrace, Campbell-road, Bow, London, on the 2nd inst., of malignant scarletina, George John, fourth son of Joseph Myles, Esq., formerly of Limerick, aged 3 years.

At the North Strand, Dublin, Pierce Carrick Shannon, Esq., late of Limerick.

At Drumcondra-terrace, Dublin, Thomas Jackson, Esq., late of Armagh.

At Canchor, Howth, Annie Maud Mary, daughter of Henry Yoo, jun., Esq.

At Francis-street, Dublin, James Bermingham, Esq.

At Leixlip, Rose, daughter of the late Mr. Michael Flood, of Dublin.

At Dalkey, Anna Maria, daughter of Inspector Jas. Ryan.

At Mary-street, Dublin, Mr. Patrick Martin.

At Lower Mount-street, Dublin, Mr. Peter Kelly.

At Grannville, France, Ambrose P. Kelly, Esq., of Gurtray, J.P. for the counties of Galway and Rosecommon.

At Upper Norwood, Surrey, S. G. Fenton, Esq., of Belfast.

At West Farleigh, Kent, the Dowager Lady Fitzherbert, in the 81st year of her age.

At Millbrook, near Southampton, Brevet Lieut.-Colonel Archibald Campbell Snodgrass, late 39th Regt.

In London, Major Robert Carter Bamford, son of the late Major Bamford, of Bolehall, Tamworth.

At Maid's Moreton Lodge, Buckingham, the Hon. Mrs.
Edward Wingfield.

At Putney, Cecil E. G. Lukin, Esq., late of the Board of Control.

At New Brighton, Emily Mary, wife of Major Middleton, 29th Regt.

At Portsea, Hants, in her 90th year, Elizabeth, relict of the late Thomas Charles Flaxman, Esq., Pro-collector of Inland Revenue, Bandon.

At sea, on his passage home from India, Major Edmund Arthur Grubb, Bengal Staff.

At Birmingham, in the 94th year of his age, Mr. Edward Townsend Cox, Honorary Surgeon of the Queen's Hospital.

The Rev. Bernard Gilpin, Vicar of St. John's, Stanwick, Yorkshire.

At Long Stratton, Norfolk, George Birch Jerrard, Esq., son of the late Major General Jerrard.

At Fleming-road, Kennington-park, London, Maria Dorothea Salome Milne, relict of Captain James Milne, R.N., in her 90th year.

Killed in action, on the North-Western frontier of India, Major G. W. Harding, Commandant 2nd Sikh Infantry.

At Newcastle, Jamaica, Lieutenant John Bland Sawyer, 4th West India Regt.

our French and Eng
extra where 5 Gallor

We would also ca
TOGEN OIL LAM
Out-Offices, &c., beir
and shall be happy
Office, the convenier wonderful.

A
FROM THE INE
CONSTAE

WE, the unders neighbourh
regret, of the conter Howard, from amc express our unqua worthy manner in v fearlessly, irrespect charged his duty in (He

Mr. Chairman a best thanks for your
and for the munif accompanied it. I years ago a Constal ger, and I now leav
It does not always stable to perform th sive station like thi all he can hope for well-disposed and r he is placed. I a here has met with whose names are at confidence it is a hi charge of my duties say that I have nev bitants of this truly afforded me their c which I now sincer

With the sanetic accept, and cherish substantial testimo Gentlemen, that I
ings of gratitude fo that I shall always I have spent in F peaceable, and ord
able county of Corl

Your mos

Fermoy, Nov. 30