

change a system. That, a mill or a cent with the y of our coins, he would oney under its new name. rue; but should this be y of a system which will niary transactions which complicated with foreign eeling is, that it certainly has been started by the ast Saturday on the ques ad the object of the said ereas, every laymen who e public is liable to, and m, the pulpit escapes, stances, where men rise to dinary means.

ever, to subject all the and perhaps the provinces arification to which the ed Mr. Spurgeon, but it f the Press should attend ip and take notes of the iticism which the Reader nstances, appear the next ws:—"Yesterday Mr. so which was much too long. usually dull. We would atural history of which he ignorant, and he might geography of Palestine." a criticism would create in ting to witness, and there blic preachers should be y more than public speakers. d to a pamphlet by Sir Kinglake," and giving a publication at its contents, somewhat the same strain

I have been delightfully of adulation I find rampant 's creed. Of course the n up the dispute between ractors, and last Saturday erly Reviews were dipped at the time of Napoleon's placed face to face with t numbers. Mr. Kinglake, m, was scarcely blamed for e alludes to this cuop, and alings of the present Napo- especially blamed by the e Saturday goes back to cites, the opinions expressed lies themselves, and what vere and more acrimonious Mr. Kinglake. This is e of inconsistency brought a consequence, can scarcely who wrote in 1839 and ex- not be supposed to operate in

MARRIAGES.
 In Cork, Patrick M. Dundon, Esq., to Maryanne, daughter of the late John Curtin, Esq., Coburgh-street, Cork.
 At St. Mary's Church, Donnybrook, George Crowe, Esq., of Beech-hill House, county Dublin, to Adelaide Elizabeth, daughter of the late Robert Morton, Esq., Tritonville, county Dublin.
 At St. Peter's Church, Dublin, Henry Smyth, of Holywell, in the county of Roscommon, Esq., to Alicia, daughter of Edward Blakeney, late of Sallymount, in same county, Esq.
 John Dunbar D'Arcy, Esq., Lieutenant Galway Regiment, to Emily Frances Grace, daughter of James Clarke, Esq., J.P., of Craig Abbey, county Galway.
 At Dover, Robert Beatty Henderson, Captain 21st Fusiliers, son of W. C. Henderson, Esq., Q.C., Dublin, to Julia Anne, widow of the late Alfred Barkworth, Esq.
 At St. Margaret's, Lee, Blackheath, Francis Ward, Major Royal Artillery, to Adelaide, daughter of the late Captain Forbes, late of the 17th Regt.
 At St. John's Episcopal Church, Edinburgh, Captain Shute Barrington Piers, R.N., late of her Majesty's ship Firebrand, to Jane Cunninghame, daughter of P. D. Handyside, M.D.
 At Great Saling, Essex, James Mitchell, Esq., Portugal-street, Grosvenor-square, London, to Caroline Augusta, daughter of the late Captain Hanmer, R.N., of Holbrook Hall, Suffolk.
 At Huntingdon, Wellington Montagu, son of Vice-Admiral John Pakenham, to Emma Sophia, daughter of George Rust, Esq., of Cromwell House, Huntingdon.

DEATHS.
 This morning, at his residence, Corbally, near this city, Ralph Wilson, Esq., an old and much respected fellow-citizen, who throughout life maintained a high reputation, and was highly esteemed by all who knew him. He was of active habits, and in the family circle endeared himself to his loving wife and numerous children, who deeply lament the loss of a kind husband and attached parent.
 At Pallaskenry, in this county, on the 9th inst., in the 76th year of his age, the Rev. George S. Benson, Rector of Killeriny, Queen's County. "He knew in whom he believed," and departed this life in full assurance that his soul had been "washed and sanctified, and justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the spirit of our God."—1 Cor., 6 ch., 11 v.
 On the 10th inst., at Cascade, county Clare, of dyptheria, Charles Colville, Esq., a young gentleman of amiable disposition and engaging manners.
 At Ballinalack, county Westmeath, Christopher Adamson, Esq., formerly of Newborough, county Limerick, aged 88.
 At Billinter House, county Meath, Stephen O'Meagher, Esq., late of Kilmoyler, county Tipperary, D.L. and J.P. for that county.
 At Passage West, county Cork, Col. John Knight Jauncey.
 At Skibbereen, county Cork, the Rev. Mr. Bruce, Wesleyan Minister, aged 78.
 At Clarence-place, St. Luke's, Cork, Louis Wm. Glover.
 At King-street, Cork, Frances, relict of the late Major Scott, formerly of the 2nd or Queen's Royals.
 At Bellevue Cottage, Cork, George, son of the late Thomas Pounder, Esq., Blackstoops, Enniscorthy.
 At Seaview-terrace, Donnybrook, Dublin, James Gernon, Esq., J.P.
 At Roebuck, near Dublin, Eleanor, daughter of the late Samuel Thompson, Esq., of Muckamore Abbey, Co. Antrim.
 At Laxton, Bray, county Wicklow, Miss Preston.
 John O'Connor, Esq., son of the late Rev. George O'Connor, of Castleknock, county Dublin.
 At Bruton-street, London, the Lady Louisa Elizabeth Pakenham.
 At Charles-street, Berkeley-square, London, General Sir John Hanbury, K.C.B., K.C.H., Colonel of the 90th Regt.
 At Queen-square, Westminster, the Lady Sophia Hoare.
 At Woolbeding, the Hon. George Ponsonby, aged 90 years.
 At Ravensworth Castle, the Hon. Hedworth John Liddell, son of the Right Hon. Lord Ravensworth.
 At Ramsgate, suddenly, W. S. Penderleath, Esq., late Major 51st Regt.
 At Bonlogne-sur-Mer, Thomas Baillie, Esq., late Surveyor-General and Commissioner of Crown Lands, New Brunswick.

cows, excellent barn, with Thrashing Machine, coach house, dairy, &c., &c.
 The Land is superior to s Limerick, and laid down at p

A.	R.	P.
9	0	0	Barley,
3	0	0	Oats,
3	0	0	Wheat,
4	0	0	Turnips,
2	0	0	Potatoes
10	0	0	Superior Land.

The purchaser can have the For further particulars as ROBERT HUNT, Esq., Ge (the landlord), or to MICHAEL H

Most desirable Suburbs Out-offices, neatly planted K statute acres of superior lar leases; situate in a most locality, and within 10 minut be Sold by Private Contract.

Application MICI
 June 11.

Island Bawn M
 T O B E
 For such Term as ma

THE MILLS are situated a station on the Railw Limerick, and four miles from near, a Boat Station. The Railway Goods Department Road, which passes the Mills both easy and inexpensive. being 180 feet in length, an with Two Kilns attached Waterpower considerable an with over 30 feet fall; there of 20 feet diameter, and Fou all necessary machinery for The Mills are in good repair and the greater portion of th There is a commodious and Offices adjoining, not e also 62 acres of prime Land Gate Lodge, and a neat C Manager, all, or part of whi as desired.

The Mills being ready f little or no outlay, would limited period.
 Application to JOHN LYN 21,
 May 30