

Tallant, James Mara,

, and David Whelan
avid Condon at Gera
as to endanger life.—
ilty. They were con-
character they were alzances at the request of

oss, for an assault which
on a Mr. Hogan, job
been postponed to next

ENDENT TAYLOR
URNE.

bserver, Sept. 29.)

death of Mr. Superin-
lace on Friday evening
oom in our town, more
whom he was intimately
me of life, full of health
one brief moment into dening picture to con-
o look around and ask
ask which of us can suddenly to meet the ie midst of life we distressing occurrence wful a verification of the oe well conceived. Like ng its head amid the sur-
ext moment scattered to g storm—so it was with
and from his estimable
ng his fellows, one brief
him more helpless than while the merry joke was ident occurred which in-
to eternity. His relatives,
his command, his brother
joined yesterday in the last token of respect to his
as if we had failed in our
la tribute to the memory
the esteem of his fellow nce proclaims sufficiently
it, and the general regret loss tells how much and pected by all those with tact. A kind and loving (yet indulgent) officer, an la perfect gentleman, he ill be spared, and whose create a blank not easily

nt ship Ocean Chief 930
T. M. Mackay, and Co.
outh, on the afternoon of
de, South Australia, sav-
rs, equal to 314 statute

MARRIAGES.

On the 5th inst., at Newport Church, by the Rev. John M. Heffernan, Josiah Holland, Esq., of Carrane Island, Loughrea, county Galway, to Louisa, daughter of Robert Thorn, Esq., of Thorn Hill, county Tipperary. [No cards sent.]

At Skryne, John Paris Bradshaw, Esq., of Inchmore, county Westmeath, to Sarah, daughter of George Wilson, Esq., of Oberstown House, county Meath.

In the Metropolitan Church, Dublin, Peter M'Donnell, Esq., Heath Hall, county Armagh, to Bridget Mary, daughter of the late Bernard Coleman, Newry.

At Trinity Church, Portland-place, London, Lieut.-Colonel G. M. Gumm, late of H.M. Madras Artillery, to Jane Margaret, widow of the late John Gill, Retired Surgeon, of the Madras Medical Establishment.

At Holt, Wilts, Henry J. Raby, Esq., Captain Royal Navy, V.C., Knight of the Legion of Honour, to Judith, daughter of the late Colonel T. W. Forster, 24th Regt.

At St. Gabriel's, Pimlico, Colonel Holcombe, Royal Regt., to Mary Elizabeth, daughter of the late General Thackeray, C.B., R.E., and Lady Elizabeth Thackeray, of The Cedars, Windlesham, Surrey.

At Paignton, South Devon, Captain Dobbie, R.N., to Mary Anne Bleadon, daughter of Robert Dredman, Esq., Paignton.

At St. Paul's Church, Chichester, Robert L. Cleveland, Esq., R.N., son of Staff-Commander Charles Cleveland, R.N., to Jane Goy, daughter of Samuel Arnold, Esq., of Lynn.

DEATHS.

On the 1st instant, at Mayne, in this county, Minnie, the eldest and beloved daughter of John Duggan, Esq.

In Dublin, at her residence, Fitzwilliam-square, at an advanced age, Selina, eldest daughter of the late James Molony, Esq., J.P., of Kiltannon, county Clare—a lady very much esteemed and deeply regretted, as through life she was amiable and kind. Her remains will be interred in the family vault at Tulla, county Clare, on to-morrow (Friday).

In Dublin, Richard Leyne, Esq., formerly Captain in the 73rd and 58th Regiments, and for many years Resident Magistrate in Ireland.

At Upper Buckingham-street, Dublin, the Rev. James D. Long, Incumbent of Drumcondra, diocese of Dublin.

At Blackrock, Harriet, widow of the late Sir Anthony Weldon, Bart., of Ballinderry, Queen's County.

At Killigar, county Leitrim, John Godley, Esq.

At Prospect Cottage, Bray, Benjamin Jocelyn, youngest son of Benjamin B. Hannan, The Bank, Castle-street, Dublin.

Anne, wife of John Sidney Smith, Esq., of Kilclare, Westport.

At College-square, North, Belfast, Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson.

Mr. Samuel Edgar, of the firm of S. Edgar & Son, Arthur-square, Belfast.

At Woodcote Park, Epsom, the Rev. Walter Brooks, son of Robert Brooks, Esq., M.P.

At Brixton, Wm. Willcocks Sleigh, Esq., M.D., M.R.C.S., London.

At Weston-super-Mare, Frances Elizabeth, wife of Major W. D. Hague, and daughter of the late General C. Hamilton.

At Prince's Park, Liverpool, Thomas Henry Harvey, Esq., solicitor.

At Brigend, N.B., Admiral Alexander Montgomerie.

At Balcaskie, Fifeshire, Sarah, relict of the late Sir Henry Torrens, K.C.B., K.T.G.

At Reading, Caroline, relict of Captain S. G. Pechell, R.N.

At Dorking, Caroline, wife of the Rev. R. S. Ellis, Chaplain of H.M.'s Legation, Copenhagen.

At Florence, Richard Bratton Adair, Captain, half-pay, Royal Artillery, son of the late Major-General Adair, C.B.

At Calcutta, Hugh Smyth Cumming, surgeon, son of the late Rev. Hugh Smyth Cumming, Rector of Loughinisland, and Precentor of Down

At Dehra, East Indies, Ellen, wife of Major E. Ross, Bengal Staff Corps.

At Valetta, Malta, Mary, relict of Bernard Reilly, Esq., Paymaster 18th, or Royal Irish Regt.

Killed on Missionary Ridge, America, Captain James Hamilton Steele, 88th Alabama Regiment, son of Robert Ball Steele, Esq., of Rossylorgan House, Donegal, and Rathbride, Kildare.

At Chattanooga, of wounds received in battle, Colonel T. O'Meara, 90th Illinois Regt., a native of the King's County, Ireland.

ST. JOHN'S COL NEWPORT, COUNTY

HEAD MASTER
W. H. BALDWIN

RESIDENT ASSISTANT
John P. Elliott, Esq., F.R.S.
Herr Grube, T.C.D., and VISITING MASTER
Writing, &c.—Mr. W. J. G.
Music—Mr. Atkinson.

ATENTION is requested
advantages:—

The House is healthfully situated, free from the temptations of a large town, and is accessible by rail from all parts of the county. Twenty acres of play ground attached. The Dormitories are spacious and airy, and not crowded.

Every boy, whether clever or otherwise, has his share of attention.

The Head Master and Mrs. Elliott, who have long and associate with the pupils, are of gentlemanlike habits, and give instruction and physical training, and liberal education.

Subsidied by a liberal endowment, and with collateral aids, the fees contrast favourably with those of other first-class schools.

An experienced Physician has been attached to the Prospectus, with names of the pupils to be had on application.

Business will be resumed on Dec. 22.

MISS M'C
EDUCATIONAL EST
28, RUTLAND

BUSINESS will be resumed on MONDAY, the 11th inst. Attendance of the young ladies is requested.

The Establishment comprises
viz:—

AN INFANT SCHOOL
A PREPARATORY SCHOOL

AND
AN UPPER OR FINISH SCHOOL

In the Upper School the pupils receive the constant instruction of distinguished Professors, on various subjects, and enjoy the privilege of regular tuition from distinguished Professors, on various subjects.

Among these are included Botany, Zoology, Geology, and other sciences, for which, as well as for other subjects, separate attendance is provided.

The Infant School is under the supervision of a Trained Teacher from the Edinburgh Academy, Dublin, January 4th, 1864
January 7, 1864.