

CAUTION.

Understanding that a person has intruded and called himself upon some of our subscribers in pretence of being the son of the late John Bassett, Esq., proprietor of the LIMERICK CHRONICLE and thereby endeavours to procure subscribers for a newspaper, which he represents as his own, we feel it incumbent upon us to caution subscribers against being so misled, as the only son of the proprietor of this Journal has emigrated to America, and had no connexion with any newspaper since the 1st of October, 1862, when he retired from the LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

In the House of Lords last night Earl Russell, in reply to the strong remonstrances of the Earl of Derbyborough against the rapacious and tyrannical conduct of the Germans in Jutland, stated that one of the terms of the armistice was the cessation of contributions, &c. Earl Russell could give no further explanation, as "he was obliged to lay down a rule not to give any information respecting what took place at the conference." Unfortunately, Earl Russell was compelled to confess "that, through an anxiety to prevent the effusion of blood, he did not lay down any rules, but left the details to the commanders of the respective forces!"

In the House of Commons, in reply to Mr. Long, Mr. G. Grey stated that one of the conditions of the cessation of hostilities was, that the Austrian and Prussian troops should not levy contributions from the land. They had already levied £92,000, and pillaged the inhabitants, reviving the practice pursued by the banditti, of carrying off the most respectable inhabitants until the blood money was paid.

In compliance with a requisition presented to the Mayor, signed by several respectable citizens, his Worship has convened a public meeting for Thursday next, to petition Parliament in favour of the bill for the abolition of capital punishment.—See Advertisement. The Honorary Secretaries of the Protestant Orphan Society, acknowledge with gratitude the liberality of Mr. Waterford and Limerick, the Limerick Companies, and the Castleconnell Railway Companies, in assisting the orphans, matrons, and schoolmasters free of cost, from the several stations on their lines to attend the annual meeting in Limerick on the 11th inst.

We hold over until Tuesday the advertisement of the Limerick Protestant Orphan Society, comprising the resolutions adopted at the recent annual meeting, with names of patronesses, patrons, &c.

MAYOR'S POLICE COURT.—James Spaight, and William Sawyer, Esqrs, presided in the police court this evening. Samuel Newcome, a private soldier of the 1st Regt., was charged with assaulting a watchman whose name is John Connell, by flinging a massive stone of a rock at the complainant whilst on duty in the lower Mallow-street, on last night. The stone was received in court, it weighed over 4 lbs, and most certainly if it had struck the watchman he never could cry past 12 again. The court sentenced the prisoner to two months imprisonment, on leaving the court he said "when I come out I'll do the same to you, so Charley had better look to it." The prisoner recalled and had an extra month added to his sentence. "Well, said he, that will make three months, and it will have an end. There were a few of us of drunkenness disposed of, and the court adjourned.

LATEST ARRIVALS AT THE GEORGE HOTEL.—Thomas Henderson, Esq., Mr. Woolff, Mr. M'Swain, Mr. M'Donnell, Mr. Duthie, Mr. Wedgwood, Mr. Bowie, Captain and Mrs. Weston, Mr. and Mrs. G. M'Connell, Mr. Keogh, Mr. Simpson, Mr. Curren, Mr. M'Creath, Mr. M'Namara, Mr. Carroll, Mr. Meade, Mr. and Mrs. O'Dell, Mr. Hussey, Mr. Mitori, &c.

CRICKETING.—The South Hill Club beat Garryowen Club at a match this week, by 19. The score was, South Hill, 93; Garryowen, 74.

Peter Tait, Esq., of this city, who yesterday returned from London, has effected another extensive contract with a foreign government, for supplying military clothing to 50,000 men, amounting to a sum near £200,000.

The Government has again offered a reward of £300 for the apprehension of Hayes, the murderer of Mr. Odell.

The Great Southern and Western Railway Company are to give the citizens of Limerick an opportunity of attending the Cork races on Monday and Tuesday next, to and from, by special trains, at single fares, 1st, 2nd, and 3rd. The advertisement appears in our columns.

We cannot at all agree with the latter part of this statement, viz., that is "IN CONSEQUENCE of the increased number of the congregation SINCE the appointment of the Rev. James M'Mahon."

Let facts speak for themselves. In the time of our late lamented rector, the church was often crowded to excess; one entire family has left the parish, and two other families have been from home most of the time since the Rev. Mr. M'Mahon's appointment.

Your's,

A PARISHIONER.

P.S.—I enclose my card, but not for publication.

EDITOR LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR—I hope you will have no objection to allow me to call, through you, the attention of the magistrates or police, or if you will to appeal direct to those who adopt such a course to the impropriety of training horses under vehicles in the streets especially on such a day as Saturday when they are all crowded with people. To-day—and it has frequently occurred—I saw one of a "spirited pair" dash on to the flags near the deanery, and after moving on a little when getting to the street again, right bang goes the vehicle—a tremendous high one—over a donkey and cart, and was very nearly injuring severely its guide, and scattering the people, on every side in the greatest fear and terror. Now I think, and there are many who agree with me, that the public streets is not the place to train horses after this fashion, and that outside the city—say the Circular-road, or the Military-road, or out the Docks, or any where outside the borough is the only proper, and for the safety and comfort of the people, the most fitting place for such purposes.—Yours, &c.,

A LOVER OF ORDER.

THE EDITOR OF LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

Sir,—Is there no such thing now to be obtained in Limerick as Ladies' good Gloves? For my own part, I'm nearly tired, and so is my purse, from "handing out" 3s. every time for a new pair—only ten days, sometimes but six, and they are either ripped or torn—as if the material were rotten and badly sewn. My wife tells me that numerous other ladies' make the same complaint.

ONE WHO IS DESIROUS OF LEAVING HIS MONEY AT HOME, BUT LIKES TO GET GOOD VALUE.

*John Gleeson, Esq., City Coroner, held an inquest at Barrington's Hospital on Thursday, on view of the remains of Cornelius O'Brien, the infant son of Mr. O'Brien, of Upper William-street, who was fatally crushed by a sack of corn falling on him from the window of a corn store, near which the little fellow had been playing. The Jury returned the following verdict:—"That the deceased met his death in Barrington's Hospital, where he died from the effects of injuries received in Upper William-street on the 25th of April last, by the falling of a bag of corn loading from the stores of Messrs. William and Edward Fitt, and that John Coffey, who was then in their employment, did not use due caution in keeping the pathway clear.

Departure from Warren's Hotel, Kilkee:—Major Campbell, for Ennis; Mr. and Mrs. M'Guinness, for Dublin; Miss Roche, for Limerick; Captain and Mrs. Lucas, for Newport; Miss Kennedy, County Clare; W. Cuddy, Esq. for London; Mr. Potter, for Dublin; Mrs. Ellison, for Dublin.

The Royal Irish Agricultural Society's show for 1865 is to be held at Clonmel. The guarantee of £500 has been subscribed in sums of £100 each, by the Earl of Donoughmore, Viscount Lismore, Mr. Bagwell, M.P., Mr. Waldron, M.P., and Mr. Wm. Malcomson.

It will be seen by advertisement, in this day's LIMERICK CHRONICLE, that the excellent Lending Library at Miss Flynn's George-street, is well worthy of inspection. Parties about visiting Kilkee would do well to arrange for being supplied with books during their sojourn at the sea side.

At the fair of Holycross on Wednesday, the demand for cattle was very great. Stock is decreasing rapidly, and prices are becoming enormously high.—Several lots were purchased en route to the fair, but at a distance from it. Fat stock fetched for £14 to £20; two year olds, £10 to £12 10s; new milch cows, £9 to £14; strippers, £8 to £13. Hoggets in great demand at from 45s. to 60s. Horses scarce, and not much looked after.

The Lord Justices have been pleased to approve of the appointment of George Gray, Esq., to be a Deputy Lieutenant for the county of Antrim.

The Lords Justices have been pleased to approve of the appointment of Ambrose O'Rourke, Esq., to be a Deputy Lieutenant for the county of Antrim.

Two men, James Chumney, a Nenagh shoemaker, and Patt M'Guinness, a baker from the same town, were both seriously wounded with knives at the races in that vicinity, where they got into some rows, as the bark ashore at Kileen is the Orient, of Liverpool, from Coast of Africa.

ADDITIONAL.—The bark ashore at Kileen is the Orient, of Liverpool, from Coast of Africa.

THE LATE ATTEMPT AT MURDER NEAR ASKEATON.

The diabolical attempt made on Sunday last, in noon day, to take away the life of Mr James Starkey, a highly respectable person, when returning home with his wife, after attending religious service in Askeaton, upon his side car, accompanied by their servant, as driver, has caused considerable alarm and consternation in that district, which for a long period has been unaccustomed to crimes of an agrarian character. Since the deplorable occurrence of the barefaced and audacious murder—cruel and brutal—of Mr Fitzgerald, near Kilmallock, we have not had to record an outrage in our county where even an attempt at murder had been made, if we except the actual perpetration of the one at Nicker, near New Pallas, last week, when the bailiff, Bradshaw, was fired at and killed while executing a decree. But as regards the attempt made to take away the life of Mr Starkey, the utmost astonishment is expressed, as he is a kind and good man, inoffensive, and well disposed towards friends, neighbours, and workmen, never having been known to give offence to an individual, but at all times anxiously evinced a disposition to cultivate the friendship of those with whom business brought him in connexion. Up to the present the matter is shrouded in mystery, but we earnestly trust it will be sifted to the bottom, and that the guilty party will be brought to justice.

Since our last report in reference to this treacherous outrage, we have learned that subsequent to the arrest of the three men by the country people and police, immediately after the occurrence, another man of the name of Keenane was arrested in Shanagolden. This man's fore finger and thumb of the right hand, or pistol arm, are shattered by the explosion of a pistol, which, he alleges, he fired at some crows; but a pistol, with which the intending assassin was armed, in addition to the short gun, which he subsequently threw away, was found by the police on a wall at Toomdeely, and quite near the scene of the outrage—half a mile from Askeaton—and in which direction the fellow made off, after the failure of his diabolical attempt at murder. This fellow is now in a dangerous state, as the medical men are afraid that tetanus will set in, and no investigation can be held until this danger has passed away.

The other persons arrested, whose names are Brick and Kennedy—the third man has been discharged—are in custody in the bridewell of Glin.

IRELAND AND AMERICA.—Mr. Hodson announces an agreeable entertainment under the above title, at the Theatre Royal, in this city. Speaking of it, Saunders' News Letter says:—"It is genuine. The Irish character is not exaggerated; and if there is any drawback in Mr. Hodson's personations of Paddy, the error is on the safe side. Nothing is done at random—every part and character has been well studied.—You see before you a capital delineator of Irish character, a successful mimic, a pleasing vocalist, and an admirable ventriloquist. The entertainment opens with a neat diorama of the Bay of Dublin on the occasion of the arrival and reception of the Queen on her first visit to Ireland. Then we have the Upper Lake of Killarney at sunrise, and the Old Weir Bridge is seen with pleasing effect. The Eagle's Nest, the Gap of Dunloe by Moonlight, the Island of Innisfallen, Muckross Abbey, and all other scenes are neatly represented, and, connecting them with the legends and stories characteristically told by Mr. Hodson, they are much more attractive than they could possibly be rendered by the most artistic diorama, accompanied by the dialogue."

A young man named Dunne, was accidentally shot on Sunday last, at Gurtnealea, near Mountrath, while shooting rabbits in company with another youth.

The Earl and Countess of Cork received at dinner on Thursday evening, at their residence in Grafton-street, London—Viscountess Dungarvan, Lord Hubert de Burgh Canning, Hon. John and Mrs. Ashley, Mr. and Mrs. Higgins, &c.

A line of railway is to be constructed from Clonmel to Lismore.

The wife of Tregar, the Civil Engineer, who committed suicide at Middlesex, by blowing out his brains, through jealousy, has published a letter declaring her innocence, and disavowing that there was any justification to warrant a charge of inconstancy on her part. The man whom her husband had suspected, Mr. Cowan, band-master of the London Volunteers, has also published a letter disavowing any improper intimacy with the wife of deceased.

A certain judge having been called on, at a public banquet for a song, regretted that it was not in his power to gratify the company. A wag who was present observed: "He was much surprised at the refusal, as it was notorious numbers had been transported by his voice."

The Rev. I (D. V.) on St. Henry-street,

At the annual given by the bishops of England circumstance said The guests, w bishop of Arm bishops of Lon Chichester, O Salisbury, Ely David's, Dow Rev. Prebend: G. W Bourke,

The Rev. S nated Bishop title of "Lor prelates of the colonies, and simply to be a men.

THE CHURCH There is no qu have been nor increasing the The late Bist lows in 1852 the necessity of the Bishop completed will years extendi longitude from sea at Singapore

THE

This Bazaar during Wedn tended notwit unfavourable considered th charity. We for the benefit success. The thanks to Col. play during ti with as the J discouraged watch and ch street. The toire—was w principal priz won by the R pony was pres principal prize shade, won b The baby-hou gantly orname Mrs Barry's ta North Strand, C. C. At Mrs by the Mayor, hand screen b. Mr Shanaha O'Shaughness won by the F the National The chair, at Doherty, Ball table, at Mrs. Mrs Ryan, w cheval screen. Mrs M'Coy, G the Rev Mr F Mrs M'Mahor and the ink some embroid Quinlivan. won by the R were won by t was won by a beautiful mar Keane, Esq, I in ticket sales beautiful artic Dublin, Belas John's, won a

The Autop in London, by sented to the Malone.

The gross r week, for the f The Pope d lation by the c consequent on ing over the r appoint the r; we believe, of of Bishop G primacy for Sc Edinburgh.

The gross r week, for the f The Pope d lation by the c consequent on ing over the r appoint the r; we believe, of of Bishop G primacy for Sc Edinburgh.

The gross r week, for the f The Pope d lation by the c consequent on ing over the r appoint the r; we believe, of of Bishop G primacy for Sc Edinburgh.

The gross r week, for the f The Pope d lation by the c consequent on ing over the r appoint the r; we believe, of of Bishop G primacy for Sc Edinburgh.

The gross r week, for the f The Pope d lation by the c consequent on ing over the r appoint the r; we believe, of of Bishop G primacy for Sc Edinburgh.

The gross r week, for the f The Pope d lation by the c consequent on ing over the r appoint the r; we believe, of of Bishop G primacy for Sc Edinburgh.

The gross r week, for the f The Pope d lation by the c consequent on ing over the r appoint the r; we believe, of of Bishop G primacy for Sc Edinburgh.