

and then taking the porter's led to calculate the days r. Brodie devoted to the at house; and then con- tional duties to perform, inerated; however, said sake, move an amend- on to his salary.

Martin. then, let it be £30. Carroll's amendment.

the amendment, and ob- had completely stultified ry amendment. He had er's book, and from its Brodie had no additional at his present remunera- , he concluded his speech et £30 to a year additional eh; then spoke in laudo- th as a professional man at house, and had great otion moved by the noble ry.

uch pleasure in supporting e would move an amend- ion, and move that Doctor ed to £200 a year. He ord. "The doctor's duties antipathy hitherto felt by union hospitals had greatly ally owing to the care that ed them as patients. Upon air play, it would not be ate a medical man for his

d that he would not, as a ion to pass without saying paid rates, and they were ld be to reduce them, and t he would not consent to sacrifice of justice and of irtailing the remuneration fficient officers. In point pay the officers well, be be efficiently discharged resolution, on account of es of Dr Brodie. the resolution of the noble e learned doctor was suffi-king his views were right, them out, but seeing that im were in favour of Lord net divide the house on it, w the amendment.

put, and carried unani- mousness of the board was nardians separated.

At St. Michan's, Dublin, Joseph E. Macdermott, Esq., to Maria, daughter of the late Thomas Kelly, Esq., Tralee.
 At St. Andrew's Roman Catholic Church, Dublin, Edward Kingley, Esq., Great Brunswick-street, Dublin, to Frances Amelia Ryan, late of Cork.
 At Monkstown Church, county Dublin, Charles Alfred Kinahan, son of the late Daniel Kinahan, Esq., barrister-at-law, to Louisa Elizabeth, daughter of the late Rev. C. H. Minchin.
 At Fenagh Church, county Carlow, Philip Charles, son of the late Henry Newton, Esq., of Mount Leinster, to Mary Garrett, daughter of John W. Bathe, Esq., J.P., Clonburren.
 At Ramelton, county Donegal, Robert J. Alexander, Esq., Londonderry, to Fanny, daughter of the late Andrew Patton, Esq., Ramelton.
 At Portaferry, county Down, Valentine G. Bell, Esq., C.E., son of Wm. Bell, Esq., Woburn-place, London, to Rebecca Dalzell, daughter of Alexander B. Filson, Esq., M.D., Portaferry.
 At Marylebone Church, London, Edward William Briscoe, Esq., son of Henry Harrison Briscoe, Esq., of Cloncunry, Kilkenny, to Emily Matilda, daughter of the late James Higham, Esq., of Craven-hill, Hyde-park, London.
 At Arbutnott House, Kincardineshire, Alexander Stuart, Esq., to the Hon. Clementina, eldest daughter of Viscount Arbutnott.
 At St. James's, Piccadilly, London, Walter Scott Mackenzie, Lieutenant 93rd Sutherland Highlanders, son of his Excellency Captain James George Mackenzie, R.N., Governor of the Falkland Islands, to Susanna, daughter of the late George Jefferys, Esq., of Battle, Sussex.
 At Thorncombe, Dorset, Major Werry, late of H.M.'s 34th Regt. and 10th Depot Battalion, to Emma Augusta, daughter of the late Colonel Bragge, of Sadborow.
 At Sidmouth, Captain Tyssen, R.N., of Clanville Lodge, Hants, to Mary Jane, daughter of John B. Lousada, Esq., Peak House, Sidmouth, Devon.

DEATHS.

At Kildare-street, Dublin, George Grene, Esq., J.P., of Powerstown, county Tipperary.
 In Catherine-street, Limerick, on Sunday, of consumption, Mary Frances, aged 21 years, daughter of Mr. Michael Hewson.
 At Bricketstown, county Tipperary, Mrs. Cecilia Kavanagh, in the 104th year of her age.
 At South-terrace, Cork, William J. Roche, Esq.
 At Queenstown, David T. Hare, Esq., M.D., late of Camden-place, Cork.
 At Kinsale, county Cork, Charles Henry Kempthorne, Esq., Commander Royal Navy.
 At the Convent, Midleton, county Cork, Sister Mary de Chantal Delahunty.
 At Kingstown, Major John Harpur, retired full pay 2nd West India Regt.
 Suddenly, at the residence of the Rev. Dr. Porter, near Dungannon, the Rev. John Wm. Whiteside, D.D., brother of the Right Hon. the member for the University of Dublin.
 At Lower Leeson-street, Dublin, Edward Tighe, Esq.
 At Sussex-terrace, Dublin, Mr. George Curtis.
 At Lower Baggot-street, Dublin, Matilda, daughter of the late Joseph Pim, Esq.
 By the accidental upsetting of a boat, William Peyton Hetherington, son of George Hetherington, Esq., of Athlone.
 At Madeira, Arthur Usher Roberts, Esq., J.P., of Glendine, county Wexford, son of Edward Roberts, Esq., Weston, county Waterford.
 At Dodington, Gloucestershire, Sir Christopher William Codrington, Bart., M.P.
 At Paris, Major-General Horatio N. Vigors.
 At Melbourne Lodge, Claremont, London, General Sir Robert Gardner, Colonel Commandant of the B Brigade Royal Horse Artillery.
 At the Parsonage, Peyton, Cheshire, the Rev. R. Littler, incumbent of that parish.
 In India, Henry Patrickson Gregory, Staff Assistant Surgeon, son of the late Wm. Gregory, Esq., of Finglas.
 At Nassau, Bahamas, Edith Frances, wife of James E. R. Moffit, Esq., 1st West India Regt., and daughter of the late James Nicholson, Esq., Glasnevin Lodge, county Dublin.

at the Corn Stores of Mr. Polglin, will be Sold by Auction it may concern,

A QUANTITY more or less damaged, saved f All will be put up in Lots t Terms at M. O' Auc HENRY BENN and Bristol and Fine Insurance (Partic June 28.

FOREIGN WINES FOR 186

JAMES

BEGS to bring before the of FOREIGN WINES specially selected for the present and well-matured Stock, which CUSTOMS BONDED STO

- Sherrys, Pale, Brown, and G
- Sherrys, Pale, Brown, and G
- Garvey's Celebrated V. P., I
- ported, ...
- Sundiman's Port, 5 years in
- Offley and Co., Port, 3 years
- Port, other Shippers, ...
- Claret (Violets), Bordeaux, ..
- Clarets (Violets) Ditto, ...
- Sparkling Champagnes, ...
- Sparkling Moselle, ...
- Sparkling Hock, ...
- Burgundy (Still) ...
- Hockhimer (Still) ...
- Sautern (Still) ...
- Henassay's Brandy, 5 years in
- Gauter Freirs' Do., into Doze
- Sing
- Holland's Geneva, in Dozen
- Sing

The above Wines and S DIRECT by the SUBS CLASS SHIPPERS, and Quality and Moderation in house in the Trade. GEN Bottling their own Wines c the original Packages, as they Vaults.

JAMES

DIRECT IMPORTER OF AND SP 4, GEORGE'S STREET January 14, 1864.