

rent, as well as to all the Blackwater. He defend the nets One Summerfield.

on Summerfield lay Duke claimed as his interested in any way removed.

ferred last week in Brus-photographer by a gen-graph at the shop-door. umstance, and the ugly-had lost a good chance We have not learned at the chance.

e never was a season in ny marriages were ar-two months it will be hurches.

g.—On Tuesday an ar-kealy, the seat of John occasion the club prizes umerous assemblage of petitors were as follows

Miss L Quinn, second s ; Miss R Dawson, re-

Mr Wise, first prize ; Mr J Bathe, best gold.

prize ; Mrs J C Gray, ird do. Amongst a few

Wm Duckett, Miss , Lady and Sir John

F Lecky, Captain and harles Burton, Bart ; Mr

, and Miss Stack, Cap- Gray, Miss T Watson,

ward, Captain the Hon son, Mr Wm and Mr

Mrs Wise, the Misses , MacDougall, Mr and reon, &c.

Thursday there was pub- us of the House of Com-

Kung's answer to Sir um of the substance of Foreign Office, and ad- lung on the 5th day of the affairs in China." r F. Bruce's reply to the ing extract from a dis- also prefixed :—"Pekin, innation of my dispatch e the honour to inclose

with the Chinese Govern- ed during my interview

ugh I have not succeeded shed, still I have reason na have produced a con- they will be followed by ortifies to avoid proced- onstrances for breach of Charles MacNevin, Esq., to Maria Eleanor, daughter of Alban Croft, Esq., of Dublin.

At Granard Church, county Longford, Henry Chamberlayne Farrell, Captain Royal Artillery, son of Major Farrell, of the same corps, to Sophia Margaret Watson, daughter of William Webb, Esq., of Castle-Nugent, county Longford.

At St. Mark's Church, Dublin, Mr. Samuel Maddock, to Catherine, daughter of Captain Edward Dempay.

At St. Peter's Church, Dublin, Hollester George, son of the late William Norman, Esq., to Anna Rebecca, daughter of the late Edward Walker, Esq., both of Dublin.

At the Church of the Holy Trinity, Paddington, Augustus Fennell Danvers, Captain Bombay Staff Corps, to Margaret Elyetson, daughter of Robert Burra, Esq., Cleveland-gardens, Hyde-park.

At North Repps Church, George Augustus Way, Esq., Lieutenant Bengal Staff Corps, son of the Rev. Charles Way, Vicar of Boreham, Essex, to Catherine, daughter of the late Rev. William Corbould-Warren, Rector of Tacolneston, in the county of Norfolk.

At Fareham, Hants, Captain John Borlase, C.B., Royal Navy, to Jane Troughton, daughter of William Chads, Esq., of Fareham.

At Christ Church, Paddington, Captain A. H. Waldy, 46th Regt., to Georgiana, daughter of the late W. Bradshaw, Esq., of Homerton, Middlesex.

At Christ Church, Lancaster-gate, London, G. F. Wilkinson, Esq., Military Train, and late 68th L.I., to Elizabeth Mary, daughter of R. Clarke, Esq., of Cleveland-square, Hyde-park.

At St. James's Church, Paddington, London, Capt. George Haggard, Royal Artillery, son of the late John Haggard, Esq., LL.D., of Doctors' Commons, to Ellen Marian, daughter of James Parker Deane, Esq., D.C.L., one of her Majesty's Counsel.

At Hongkong, Frank Potter, Esq., 99th Regt., to Mary Elizabeth, daughter of the Rev. John J. Irwin, D.D., Colonial Chaplain, Hongkong.

DEATHS.

August 6th, drowned accidentally while bathing at Kilkee, John, youngest and beloved son of John Massy, of Kingswell House, Tipperary, Esq., aged 16 years.

In Broad-street, aged 13 years, Michael, son of Mr. Patrick Bowles, grocer.

August 4th, at Morrinstown Rectory, near Newbridge, county Kildare, after a long and painful illness, which he bore with Christian fortitude, deeply regretted by his sorrowing family and friends, the Rev. Francis Langford, for many years Rector of the united parishes of Morrinstown and Old Connell, and also for a very long period Chaplain to the Garrison at Newbridge.

At Church-street, Ennis, Mr. Michael M'Mahon.

At South Main-street, Cork, Mr. Denis O'Connor.

At Clonmel, Emily, infant daughter of J. Hume Mayston.

At Richmond-street, Dublin, Elizabeth, daughter of the late Samuel Figgis, Esq., of Dublin.

At Upper Dorset-street, Dublin, Mary, relict of the late Mr. Nicholas Barlow.

Miss Mary Anne Killingley, daughter of the late Mr. Thos. Killingley, of Dublin.

At Woodfort, Killucan, county Westmeath, Edmond R. Nugent, Esq.

At Black Rock, near Dundalk, Henry Wm. Gregory, son of the late Henry Ellis Gregory, Esq., M.D., Rathmines.

At Tullamore, Martha, wife of Mr. Charles W. Atkin.

At Kilberry Vicarage, William Naper Carleton, Esq., late Lieutenant 9th Lancers, son of the Rev. H. Carleton.

At Ballymore-Eustace, county Kildare, John Bradley, Esq.

At Mountrath, Elizabeth Brophy, daughter of the late Mr. Michael Brophy, of Lisdowney, county Kilkenny.

At Brixton, Captain R. H. Ker, unattached, of H.M.'s 37th Regiment.

At Kincardine Castle, Perthshire, Captain Francis Grove, Royal Navy.

At Woolwich, George Dudley, son of Lieut-Colonel George T. Field, Royal Artillery.

At Dover, Herbert John Fitzroy Kelly, son of Captain John Kelly, Royal Artillery.

At Portsmouth, Cyril Cooper, infant son of Captain Cooper Key, R.N., C.B., of H.M.S. Excellent.

At Shanghai, Henry Gray, Esq., R.N., Paymaster H.M.S. Leopard.

PHOTOGRAPHIC
55, PARK ST
BRISTOL

LATE OF GEORGE STREET
Cartés de Visite Post F

TO avoid mistakes Parties or requested to send a Sample returned,) and Postage Stamps.
July 19.

T E A

Best Black Tea, ...

Finest Congou, ...

Fine Congou, ...

Good Stout Congou, ...

Sound Congou, ...

C O F F E

Good Coffee, ...

Superior Coffee, ...

Best Coffee, ...

S C A R R B R O

TEA-ME

15, PATRICK-

LIMERIC

April 26

TAYLOR BR
GENUINE MU

DR. HASSELL, having to a rigorous microscopical
chemical analysis, reports that essential properties of good M

PURITY, PUNGENCY,
FLAVOUR

See that each Package bears
"Prize Ox," and Dr. J

Sold by all Grocers, &c., thro
TAYLOR BROTHERS, Br

Street, London

March 22.