

on easily by Mr. Keyes Fox. The race of £50, added to a sweepstakes of three miles, was won very easily by La, who also won the Farmers' Stakes added. For this last race heats were first were won in a canter by Stella-hunt will soon take the field; cub immediately commenced by the Kil-hounds commenced cub hunting last out three days. They killed a brace, round. Foxes are plenty, with every good season.

It appears from a Return issued by the General that there are in all Ireland 311 bred in Ireland and 243 and 38 imported, Connaught 203 and 36 foreign. In Meath, Cork (East Riding), Galway. In Leinster there are 80 Irish horses and 38 foreign, in Connaught 16 and 7 imported. Totals 388. The information thus given direct from the owners of groom, more, in all likelihood, be depended and 41 English horses are entered for July of 1866.

were sold in Old Broad-street, London, at the rate of five hundred and sixty frontage, or three hundred thousand of Mahon, of Colt, near Maryborough, of his celebrated sire, Gamekeeper, to for £600.

last week in London with five hundred Confederate notes, was offered one lot at a City Bank.

men with fish, and having four men on returned on Saturday in front of 500 yards from the shore. Captain P., supplied the police with Ward's by this means they were able to bring to shore.

day a farmer at Lee, near Lewisham, to his garden and ate a ripe plum; immediately afterwards he told his daughter that he had been stung, and found the swelling increasing momently. There had been ripe plum; honey and vinegar were on the swelling, but in three quarters before the medical aid which had been used, the farmer was a corpse. It is that he had been stung by a wasp in his year before.

John died at Killenale on the 19th of his patriarchal age of 100 years.

hour.

MARRIAGES.

On the 25th inst., in the Presbyterian Church, Kilrush, by the father of the bride, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Wilson, of Limerick, the Rev. John Harper, Free Church, Bothwell, to Alice Dickson, eldest daughter of the Rev. Wm. Sorsby.

At Inniscarra Church, county Cork, Henry Leader, Esq., of Clonmoyle, county Cork, to Annette, daughter of the late Rev. Thomas Ellison.

At Queenstown, Capt. Albert Neame, 16th Regt., to Georgina Elizabeth, daughter of the late Rev. John Jackson, Rector of Tallow, county Waterford.

In St. Stephen's Church, Dublin, Robert Rice, Esq., B.A., S.T.C.D., of her Majesty's East Indian Civil Service, to Emmeline Augusta, daughter of the late Sir James Pitcairn, Inspector-General of Hospitals, Ireland.

In Mary's-abbey Church, Dublin, D. W. Thompson, Esq., of Belfast, to Maggie, daughter of the late William Cumming, Esq., of Kilkeel, county Down.

At Wexford, Wm. N. Roice, son of Clement Roice, Esq., Churchtown, to Anne Eliza, daughter of Robert J. Crean, Esq., M.D.

In St. John's Church, Paddington, London, James Robert Alexander Haldane, now by Royal license James Robert Alexander Haldane-Chinnery, to Anna Elizabeth Frances Margareta, daughter of the Rev. Sir Nicholas Chinnery, Bart., of Flintfield, county Cork, and of Hyde Park-square, London.

At Portsmouth, W. H. Sedgwick, Esq., Engineer R.N., to Mary Lucy, daughter of Mr. Thomas Cockson, Lower Camden-street, Dublin.

At Melbourne, Australia, Joseph, son of Joseph Gray, Esq., French Park, county Mayo, to Sarah Anne, daughter of Mr. George Hurst, Roscrea, county Tipperary.

DEATHS.

On Tuesday, the 23rd inst., at 111, George-street, Lucinda Fitzgerald, youngest daughter of the late John Fitzgerald, Esq., Carrigoran, county Clare. This truly estimable lady has, we understand, left a large sum of money to various religious and charitable societies. Her remains were interred on yesterday, in the family vault at Kilnasulla, county Clare.

At Clonmel, Isabella, daughter of Gerald Fitzgerald, Esq., Sub-Sheriff.

At Carrick-on-Suir, Mr. Phillip W. Shea.

At Carrick-on-Suir, Mr. Edward O'Halloran.

In Tramore, Mary, the infant daughter of Samuel Phillips, Esq., Beechmount.

At Pope's-quay, Cork, Mr. John Murphy.

At Monkstown, county Dublin, Jane, widow of the Rev. Arthur Ellis, late Rector and Vicar of the Union of Ardee, county Louth.

At Kinross, Helen Mary, the infant daughter of Captain P. F. Shuldham.

At Carrick-on-Shannon, Patrick J. Cunningham, M.D.

At Enniscorthy, Mr. Patrick O'Donoghue.

In the village of Cuman, Ellen MacHale, relict of Mr. Thos. MacHale, Castlebar, brother of the B. of C. Archbishop of Tuam.

At Eleanor, Derbyshire, suddenly, Dionysius Donovan, Esq., M.D., son of Michael Donovan, Esq., of Dublin.

At Wilberton Manor, Cambridgeshire, Marianne, widow of the late Marcus M'Canland, Esq., of Drenagh, Londonderry.

At Brighton, Emily MacMahon, daughter of Capt. G. R. C. Westropp, Bombay Staff Corps.

At Kemback House, Effeshire, Henry Lawrence, son of Lieut-Col. Clement R. Browne, late of H. M. Indian Army.

At New Orleans, U.S., Edward Parrish Aylmer, Esq., son of John Freke Aylmer, Esq., of Bray, county Wicklow.

At Douglas, Isle of Man, John Dudgeon, Esq., late of the 14th Light Dragoons.

At Quinsay, the Rev. Henry Orme Wood, son of the late Colonel Samuel Wood, C.B.

At Havana, Joseph Tucker Crawford, Esq., C.B., H. M. S. General in the Island of Cuba.

A NURSE; a For particular Paper; must be P.S.—The Parish Church. Limerick, 27th

COACH PENSION! lived for 2 and before with a tion. Address, M. Re August 27.

A RESPECT gaged, wa Dublin, who per care of plate, lan furniture varnish can be highly r no objection to height, 5ft. 10in. Address J. T. M August 27.

M. R. BRISON Leicester SATURDAY, the o'Clock, in the F Imported Rams, Ewes.

Fermoy, Augu
Pur
T. PHOENIX 1. miles of oester itans. Brooklands, L

FOR SALE Lackensy, Captain DAVENP August 27.

M. R. MO one mile Limerick and the large pop! AUGUST 27