

THIS DAY'S NEWS

FUNERAL OF THE LATE REV. WILLIAM N. WILLIS, RECTOR OF KILPEACON.

The Duke of Newcastle died on protracted illness. His Grace entered the auspices of the late Sir I. liberality of his ideas was the pleasure to his father, who, in his property, visited him with sentiments for his political principles the highest offices in the state, Secretaryship of Ireland, which he period in 1846.

Fourteen large potatoes grown in garden, Dromoland, Newmarket 2 stone; they were the green-top s. It is calculated that between sired persons enter the city of Lon to their daily occupations, in sixty public conveyances.

Owing to the death of Henry Ra Isle of Ely, the daughters of Doc for the county of Leitrim, have in upwards of a million of money. T man was grand-uncle of the youg now in a convent school in France.

The smallest village at the re British empire, being Tinaru, in taken on itself to establish a new papers wish success to "our youg the direct antipodes of London."

The embankment of Thames W. gress that between Waterloo Bridg dens a length of 120 feet of the d made complete. The three great s side of the river have been closd f nearly the whole of the drainage downwards is interrupted and conv Now it is beginning to be discovere is half poisoned by the town slo what is to be done with Oxford an age! Another item of metropoli Southwark Bridge is at last likel public by taking off its tolls, for v pay the company for one year the if the Corporation have a mind to p of £200,000 is asked. This chang dangerous throngs of vehicles on Le in Cheapside, and save much valuab gers.

A French paper relates a very cu that has come under the notice of A young lady, eighteen years of age the rare, though not unparalleled u unable to see while the sun is above is perfectly well able to see at night, darkness.

Captain Charles Fitzgerald, 49th this city, and nephew of Henry Ma George's-street, has purchased his retirement of Major Armstrong.

Lieut. Stephen D. Power, 68th I at his brother's residence in this co absence from Colchester.

The following officers of the 17th in this Garrison, have proceeded on to the 14th December:—Lieutena venhill, and Mason, 17th Regt.; Li Buffs; and Lieut. Sunderland, 9th F

We perceive by Tuesday night's 6 change has been effected between 2nd Batt. 9th Regiment (son-in-law Esq., 33, George's-street), and Col Depot Battalion, Colchester. Colon well known in this Garrison havin here when in the 85th Light Infan of the late respected Archbishop Ma

Lieut. General Sir Charles Routled native of Limerick, an officer who quished service, has, we are glad to a-painted Colonel of the 18th Hussa which his superior military tact and entitle him. Sir Charles was hi private gentleman, in recent years, desirous to advance the interests, a welfare of his tenantry. The annot appointment will afford much satisfac

Captain Addy thankfully acknowle of 10s from B. Logie, Esq., for the Readers' and Soldiers' Friend Society

The annual inspection of the Ro Ireland having been completed, Col has returned to Dublin.

General Hay, of the Hythe Schoo has constructed a new form of cart the Whitworth rifle; he finds the u cleanly, having the advantage of not and having much less recoil, though t same. One-third of the weight of ch valent proportion, and it does not ha General had fired at a target with g yards, and twelve successive shots we a space one foot wide by two feet high radius of deviation from the centre w and ten inches. But the chief app cotton in Britain is to the driving shafts; one-sixth of the weight of ch equal in blasting effect to gunpowder, of it is able to detach from 30 to 60 proved in the slate quarries of Slanb mines of Allan Heads.

The increased expensiveness of war tions of war is strikingly demonstrat that a few years since a first-rate i standing, cost £100,000; now the h iron-clad frigate costs three times t when ready for sea she represents a bil lion. A single piece of cannon often and there is one sort of shell—the o using, say the best authorities—which paid for by £50.

The Rev. James Mangan, LL.B., Preacher and Reader in Limerick Cath appointed to the Minor-Canonry regid the lamented demise of the Rev. W. N Mangan's high efficiency as a chorist acted for a considerable time as the re absent canons, and his ardent self-sa tness to the interests of the Cathedra at once as peculiarly eligible for a post special qualifications.

The Rev. J. F. Gregg thankfully ack receipt of £1 for the Limerick Ragged Rev. Wm. F. Maunsell; also £25 18s. 3 Trinity Church on last Sunday after d behalf of the Church Missionary Society

The annual missionary services in co the Primitive Wesleyan Methodist Sa conducted in their Chapel, Bedford-R Sablath day, by the Rev. R. Kerr, their minister. Service in the morning at 10 in the evening at half-past 6 o'clock.

Limerick Philogotical Society, 45, Ge Essay and Debating Class.—Mr. Edward read an essay on to-morrow evening, Subject—"Lord Castlereagh."

The Right Hon. J. Napier, and the James Whiteside, M.P., delivered address ing at a meeting of the Young Men's C sociation at Bray. The Right Rev Dr. sided.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE AT WELFON

17th, D Wynne ... 1
Mr Longfield's, ch f Laurel, 8st 10lb, including 6lb extra, Lynch ... 2
Marquis of Drogheda's Henry of Navarre, 8st 4lb, J Dunne ... 0
Mr P Orford's Bold Soldier Boy, 8st 7lb, J Doyle ... 0
Mr James's Holy Hill, 8st 11lb, L Mahon ... 0
Mr P Plunkett's St Ruth, 8st 4lb, Taylor ... 0
Mr Wm Clarke's Rocket, 8st 7lb, D Doyle ... 0
Betting—6 to 4 on Laurel, 5 to 1 agst Grapeshot, 10 to 1 agst any other.

Immediately the flag fell St. Ruth turned round and bolted. Laurel and Grapeshot coming away by themselves to just below the stand; a most exciting set-to between the pair, ending in favour of Grapeshot by half a length.

Kildare Handicap—5 sovs each. 50 sovs added. Waterford post. Mile and a quarter. Winners of any handicap race value 100 sovs, after the publication of the weights (9th September) up to the time of running, to carry 7lb extra; if of two races of that amount 10lb extra. To start at a quarter past three.

Mr Keary's Outcast by Voltigeur, aged, 7st 12lb, Lynch ... 1
Mr Cockin's Ross, 5 yrs, 7st 8lb, Taylor ... 2
Mr G Knox's Leprechaun, 3 yrs, 11lb, including 7lb extra, L Mahon ... 3
Mr Knight's Pitman, aged, 7st 8lb, Kelly ... 0
Mr Walshe's Spring Daisy, 4 yrs, Murphy ... 0
Betting—6 to 4 agst Outcast, 7 to 4 agst Leprechaun, 3 to 1 agst Ross, 4 to 1 agst Pitman.

The running was made by Spring Daisy, Outcast 2nd, Leprechaun 3rd, Ross 4th, Pitman last. At the turn home Spring Daisy was beaten, and Outcast and Leprechaun drew to the point just below the stand, Ross came with a rush, passed Leprechaun, but failed quite to reach Outcast, who pulled through by ahead; half a length between second and third.

To be Let,
FROM 1st DECEMBER, '64,
EAGLE LODGE, Military Road, with Kitchen Garden and Out Offices. Gas and Pipe Water laid on.
Apply to
WILLIAM PEACOCKE,
George-street.

Also now ready and TO BE LET,
AT MOUNT VINCENT TERRACE,
Adjoining Eagle Lodge,
Nos. 8, 9, 10, and 11.
Each House contains Drawing-room, Parlour, four Bedrooms, Servant's Room, Kitchen, Pantry, Scullery, and Out Offices. Also Pleasure Ground, 50x20, at Front and Vegetable Plot at rear. Pipe Water and Gas laid on. No expense has been spared to make the above Houses comfortable and commodious.
Apply to
W. PEACOCKE,
George-street.

October 20.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.
All post-office orders and letters of credit, and communications generally, to the CHRONICLE, are to be addressed to the Proprietors, MRS. SARAH BASSETT, or WILLIAM HOSFORD.
No communication whatever will be attended to unless authenticated by signature of the writer as guarantee for accuracy, but not for publication.
Advertisements intended for publication in the LIMERICK CHRONICLE should be sent to the office before 12 o'clock on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, otherwise they will be late for insertion.

THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE

THURSDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 20, 1864.

Lord Wodehouse will leave London to assume his high office of Lord Lieutenant of Ireland as soon as possible after his appointment shall have been formally declared by her Majesty in Council, probably about the 28th or 29th inst.

Lord Wodehouse, the new Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has appointed Mr. Edward Wodehouse, son of the Governor of the Cape Colony, his private secretary. Captain R. Williams returns to his old post of Comptroller of the Household, and Colonel Wodehouse has been appointed Master of the Horse.

The Right Hon. Judge J. W. Fitzgerald, when lately in this county, paid a complimentary visit to the Rev. Luke Hanrahan, P.P., Castlemahon, accompanied by Lord Southwell.

Ads. Viscountess Guilmare and suite have arrived at Rockbarton, in this county, from Kilkree.

John Brook Blannerhasset, Esq., and family, have arrived at his residence Rockfield, in this county, from Kilkree.

The Earl of Carlisle is reported to have much improved in health during the last few days.

Laurence Waldron, Esq., M.P., 28, Rutland Square, West, Dublin, and John Thomas M'Sheehy, Shannon Lawn, Limerick, Esq., J.P., were admitted members of the Kilkenny and South East of Ireland Aethnological Society at its last meeting.

A gentleman was kind enough to leave at this office on yesterday, a "marked card" of the coursing match at Knockree, but of which we were unable to avail. A return from the stewards was expected by us.

COBURN.—This pugilist made Limerick his route to America and left by the 4 p.m. train yesterday. He was loudly cheered when taking his departure by a large concourse of persons assembled at the station.

THE FLAX MOVEMENT IN THE SOUTH.—So far as matters have gone as a commencement to encourage the culture of flax in this district, the promoters of the movement have reason to congratulate themselves upon the success which has attended their efforts; and farmers who have grown the crop even in small quantities, as an experiment, must feel proud of the result, the prices already obtained showing that the returns have proved more remunerative than would those of any other description of agricultural produce wherein to speculate. In every part of the South, where markets have been opened, we perceive that sales to the fullest extent were effected, and, what is still more gratifying, with satisfaction to all parties interested. We trust that this gratifying state of things will stimulate our leading agriculturists to increased action, and as it will be seen by advertisement that our respected County High Sheriff has convened a meeting of his bailiwick for the 28th inst., to take steps, in order to unite with the local committee, so as to place the flax movement upon a firm and substantial basis, it is to be hoped a combination of strength and influence upon the occasion will give assurance of future progress, with fixed determination to work out the project.

COUNTY LIMERICK PETTY SESSIONS.
The presiding magistrates to-day were—Major Gavin, M.P. (Chairman); John ...

Mr Longfield, Esq.; Wm. Quinn, Esq.; Clement. Ranger, Robert Browne, Esq.; and keeper of the match book, J. R. Esq. Judge, Robert J. Hunter, Esq.; Michael Clancy, V.S.
Four races set up for decision yesterday, the Scurrys, the Three Mile Plate, and Kildare Handicap. The two former title description, Arbutus and Clarat Cup Mr Longfield's Samuel, although penas backed at 6 to 4 to win the Beresfords then cleverly by Grapeshot. The Kildare

DUBLIN, OCTOBER 20.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 18.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at present confined by jail at Kilmahon, and exhibits no mental aberration, although medical divided in respect of insanity. He rested during the night sleeps soundly. He is treated, especially during the period of exercise in the grounds, but seldom crime with which he stands charged, d relatives have the privilege of occasional with him.

FRIDAY AT RATHMENS.—The unfortunate J., who stands charged with the murder of a girl, by shooting him, will be brought up at the ensuing Commission, which commences Monday next. He is at