

registry as a Protestant.

Mr. MacInerney said that Mrs. MacReidy had been a Presbyterian, and wished to become a member of the Church of England, and, so far as placing her on the registry as one of that religious profession could satisfy her, it had been done.

The Chairman observed that she only changed from one portion of the church to another.

A discussion arose on Mr. Drysdale's motion, seconded by Mr. Clancy, that the resolution passed on that day fortnight, which directed that the car bought from Mr. Peacocke be returned, be rescinded.

The motion was eventually put, when there appeared—

For the motion—Messrs. Holmes, Synan, Bresnahan, Drysdale, Verlin, and Myles.

Against—Messrs. Gabbett and Sexton.

The Chairman declared the motion carried by a majority of 6 to 2.

Mr. Gabbett said that he would give notice to have that resolution rescinded; but as Mr. Peacocke was a most respectable man, he would not put him to the trouble.

A cheque was ordered to be issued for the payment of Mr. Peacocke's demand.

The Board then adjourned.

The Lord Lieutenant has appointed Captain John M. Hatchell, to be a resident magistrate, in the room of Charles Hunt, Esq., resigned. Captain Hatchell is the eldest son of Dr. Hatchell, physician to the Lord Lieutenant and Inspector-General of Lunacy.

EXPENSIVE ROBBERY BY GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES.

—It has been discovered that a wholesale robbery has for some time past been carried on at Woolwich, at the manufacturing establishment known as the Government Clothing Stores, and that a number of non-commissioned officers and soldiers have been apprehended and charged with possession of part of the stolen property. It appears that the system of robbery was first brought to light by Ling, a detective officer of the R division, and steps were then taken by the military police to search the residences of a number of the Royal Artillery soldiers, some of whom are employed in a superior position at the establishment. The result of this prompt action was that the suspected parties were found to have in their possession a very large amount of serge, flannel cloth, calico, leather, &c., unmanufactured into military clothing, in addition to a number of manufactured articles, the whole being branded with the broad arrow, and evidently government property stolen from the clothing stores. At present, ten of the employees of the establishment are in custody of the military police, and a most searching investigation is now being carried on, which it is believed will result in the apprehension of other delinquents. A statement of the facts has been forwarded to the authorities at the War Department, and a military court of inquiry will be instituted to report on the matter.

NEW YORK, JULY 29TH.—On the 27th the Confederate were repulsed in an attack upon a portion of Grant's line, which had been transferred to the north side of James' River. They lost 50 prisoners and four cannon. It is since officially announced that a movement of the whole of Grant's army is in progress. Great results are promised, but no hint of the details is allowed to be published. The censorship over the news from the Upper Potomac is rigidly continued. Non-official accounts from Washington and Baltimore state that the Confederates are still south of the river, engaged in removing to Richmond the harvest in the Shenandoah Valley. The Federal loss in the retreat from Winchester was 1,200. The non-publication of General Sherman's official despatches causes apprehensions that his situation is not favourable. No fighting since the 23rd.

SATURDAY, 30TH JULY (Noon)—The Confederates have advanced in three columns into Pennsylvania and occupied Chambersburg; a portion of Grant's army has crossed the James' River and occupied Deep Bottom, ten miles from Richmond. The siege of Petersburg is supposed to be abandoned. Gold 56; cotton 162.

A French shipping company is formed in Bombay, with a capital of 2,000,000 rupees.

arteries and veins, so that, although the man was immediately removed to the General Hospital, and received prompt surgical attention, it will probably be a long time before he again recovers the use of his arm. The man is progressing as favourably as can be expected under the circumstance, and there is every probability of the limb being saved. The monkey has been shot.—Birmingham Gazette.
