

Town of Adare within 8 miles of the City of Limerick. The country in which these Lands and Places are placed is picturesque and full of anti- quities of great interest, while to sportsmen there are many sources of amusement, the river in the im- mediate vicinity of the Lands being much frequented of every description, and the country around affords ample supplies of game.

To see the House and Lands can be had on application at 55, George-street, Limerick.

Proposals from persons desiring to purchase will be received down to the 1st of January, 1865, by me—

JOSEPH MURPHY, Solicitor
for the Executor of Thomas Ball,
