 Feb. 9.

First-class Investment Paying 5 1/2 per Cent.

FOR SALE, a £3,600 Share of a First-class Mortgage, on a Fee-simple Estate—some of the prime land in this County. The character of this Security may be best understood by the fact of its having paid for over Thirty years a rate of interest now unheard of on similar Security, than which no better could be found combining a permanent increase of income with the safety and punctuality of Consols.

Apply (by Letter only) to HENRY NAISH, Esq., Clerk of the Union, Limerick.
 Feb. 9.

MOST DESIRABLE FREEHOLD INVESTMENT IN THE CENTRE OF THE CITY.

To be Let on Lease For Ever, OR THE FREEHOLD SOLD,

THE Large Mercantile Premises forming the Angle of Brunswick Street, and the Quay, comprising about 200 Feet, fronting the Street by 170 River-Frontage, suitable for Building, adjoining the Drawbridge, being the choicest, most central, and convenient commercial thoroughfare in the City. The Double Corn Store is capable of Warehousing Twenty Thousand Barrels of Grain, having six tiers of well lighted and ventilated Lofts, with Drying Kiln, Counting Houses, Sheds, three distinct entrances and everything necessary for a most extensive trade. Being Freehold the Warehouses may be advantageously converted into a Manufactory as they are sufficiently extensive for the operations of a Joint Stock Company, and were about being converted into a Steam Mill. If required for any purpose to develop local industry, part of the purchase money may be paid in Shares.

Tenders for Lease or Purchase received by HENRY NAISH, Esq., Clerk of the Union, North Strand, Limerick.
 Feb. 9.

To Building Contractors.

THE Limerick Harbour Commissioners will receive Tenders for the execution of extensive Mason Work adjoining the Limerick Dock, according to Plans and Specifications to be seen at their Office, Chamber of Commerce, from 10 till 4 o'clock each day (Sunday excepted), up to Monday, 29th February instant, after which date no Tender will be received.

Tenders to be considered at the Meeting of the Board, on Tuesday, the 1st March next.

By order,
STEPHEN ROCHE,
 Secretary.
