

... made by
... public
... Hearn, Q.C. on the ... elected
... money so presented, and
... in order that Council should
... the presentment.

ded that the grand jury had m presented, and that the judge nd referred his Lordship to the e 6th and 7th, Wm. the 4th, ch empowered the grand jury dge to fiat.

after hearing the arguments of said that as the presentment urer of the Infirmary and not to and although there might be there might be one to-morrow.
sentment.

rd, I object.
ou do, but nevertheless I will

LIMERICK HOUNDS AND HALLOW HUNT.

owing with pleasure from the co-ed cotemporary the Cork Constiry proud of our county fox fied to find that the Cork sportsppreciate so noble a pack—our he day was not more favourable grand essential "scent." Had oth the pace and the music would test horse and the sweetest ear.
is far more favourable than could rom the severe frost of the pret was doubtful and unpropitious ed out a decided success in the ils of the "find" and the hunt, o the graphic pen of the corres-
:Constitution). The master, D. the members of the Co. Limenpanied him, speak in the warmliteness and hospitality evinced master of the Duhallow hounds, and all their brother sportsmen who met them on arrival at Mal-to the covert, offered innumerams to lunch at their residences, rown open to receive them, and y's sport was over, accompanied ndering every assistance in their horse, and when all were secure, de sounded "gone away," gave v halloo, such as Duhallow men

WITH THE DUHALLOWS.
(a Correspondent).
w managed by a committee, are

At Singapore, the wife of Captain...
Corps, and Officiating Resident Councillor of Singapore, of a daughter.
At Kirkee, India, the wife of M. A. Chaldecott, Esq., Royal Artillery, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

On the 25th of February, at St. Luke's, Cheltenham, by the Rev. Canon Darall, Bart., W. Adolphus...
Colonel Royal Engineers, eldest son of Sir Frederick William Frankland, Bart., to Lucy Ducarel, eldest daughter of Francis Adams, Esq., of Clifton, and Gotswood Grange, Gloucestershire.
At St. Peter's Church, Dublin, Wm. G. Tibbando, Esq., of Porterlington, to Elizabeth, daughter of the late William Minnitt, Esq., Blackfort, county Tipperary.
At Peckham, Samuel Vallis Pest, Esq., of Dublin, barrister-at-law, to Augusta, daughter of Samuel Driver, Esq., deceased, late of Whitehall, and Bedford-place, Russell-square, London.
At Bellary, Madras, Captain William S. Hunt, 74th Highlanders, to Sarah Jane, daughter of Robert Montgomery, Esq., of Castle-avenue, county Dublin.
At Toronto, Canada, Edward Osborne Hewett, Esq., Capt.
Royal Engineers, to Catherine Mary, daughter of the late Major Vincent Joseph Briscoe, Royal Engineers, of Hook-wood, Kent.
At Brisbane, Queensland, Australia, Edward Augustus Frederick Chamberlain, son of the late Sir Henry Chamberlain, Bart., Royal Artillery, to Sophia, daughter of Captain R. R. Pym, Royal Navy.
In the Church of St. Botolph, Aldersgate, the Rev. George Collis, of Calne, Wilts, to Mary Anne, daughter of Mr. Henry Piper, of Aldersgate-street, London.

DEATHS.

At Ballycrane, on Wednesday, the 2nd of March, Jane, the beloved wife of Christopher Corneille, Esq., to the inexpressible grief of her family and friends. Her end was peace.
On the 23th February, at Halifax, Yorkshire, after a painful and protracted illness of several months, aged 52 years, Anne, the beloved wife of Nigel Gresley, Esq., and eldest daughter of the late Robert Peare, Esq., formerly of Newcastle West, in this county, Supervisor of Excise.
In Dublin, at an advanced age, Miss Ferrar, grand-daughter of John Ferrar, Esq., author of Ferrar's History of Limerick, and the Limerick Directory.
At Headview, Lismore, John A. Baldwin, Esq.
At Bandon, Mr. T. Lannon.
At Upper Pembroke-street, Dublin, Leonard Trant, Esq., F.R.C.S.I., Principal Surgeon of Cork-street Fever Hospital.
At Merrion View, Dublin, Mr. Charles Bolger, late Quartermaster of the Royal Longford Rifles.
At Sallins Lodge, Anne Martha, wife of John Bull, Esq., Arran-quay, Dublin.
James Agnew Green, Esq., late of her Majesty's Customs, Belfast.
At Canning-street, Belfast, Captain John Barkley.
At Clermont, Holywood, Elizabeth Boyle, daughter of the late Thomas Boyle, Esq., of Drumcovit, county Derry, and relict of the late Rev. James Alexander Johnson, of Holy-wood, county Down.
At Durham-street, Belfast, Mr. Wm. M'Alister.
At Shaftesbury-place, Belfast, James Moore, son of the late Robert Thomson, Esq., merchant, Belfast.
James M'Math, Esq., of Castleblayney, county Monaghan.
At Lakeview, near Antrim, Mr. Wm. M'Quillan.
At Delamere House, Cheshire, Lady Anne Wilbraham, daughter of Hugh, first Earl Fortescue, and widow of the late George Wilbraham, Esq., of Delamere House, formerly M.P.
for South Cheshire.
At Yaxham, Maria Dorothy, widow of the Rev. John Johnson, LL.D., late Rector of Yaxham-with-Welborne, Norfolk, Cowper's kinsman and biographer.
At Bath-place, London, Mr. Peter Nicholas Walsh, son of Mr. Nicholas Walsh, Lower Ormond-quay, Dublin.
At New York, David J. Leahy, of the parish of Newmarket, county Cork.
At New York, Elizabeth, wife of Denis Scully, formerly of Garrett Mountgarrett, county Cork.

and within 5 of Earls.
The terms, &c., apply
street, Crescent, Dublin
CAP
C
No. 10

TO (EITHER SEPARA
IMMEDIATE P
HOUSE AND LA
NEAR

THE HOUSE is a surrounded by well
ful and salubrious situ walk of the Railway T able, and substantially Drawing-Room, five e Pantry, Scullery, Close
vants'-Rooms, large Co
Horses, Cow-Houses,
Yards, &c.

A Walled Garden,
the House.

The LANDS, contain are extremely rich an Grass in good heart.

A Tenant can have with or without the La

The long established at Janesboro' with all Machinery can also be or separately from, th agreed on.

A lucrative and exte for many years in this w has a large business co ing out every variety of finished Ropes of the la

Application to be ma in Limerick to

WILLIAM L
Lower
W. D. B
116, Bishopgate

The report of the jo of parliament on the just published. The the bills is recommend in the ordinary way.