

He admits that on Thursday and injury was inflicted on were promptly quelled, and he Mayor)--- novel in the history of Bel- About four o'clock on Friday sons assembled, apparently e was more or less of rioting rious consequences resulted; was attached to anything me occurred, that the Mar- dls us that "he was doing n the riots," attended at an sic Hall on Friday evening. no more have been present at Friday evening, if he had ap- rioting, than I would have Thursday, if there was a a my mind. From the riot Friday morning, until the e was no disturbance in evening, as I have men- sr of ladies attended at Barrack-street, and on Sun- ult on person or property. ates, any more than to other ture; and it could not have navvies would, on Monday, vantage of a holiday in their . Malac y's Chapel to Brown- ng of which is admittedly the riots which have disgraced s, as I have said before, I 'uesday afternoon by spsial and I am only surprised that pears not to be altogether d tone, should venture to say, re him, that "though within Belfast, and probably informed telegrams of the disturbances ay for about a week." The e the riots of Monday, the to require my return, and science could have foretold.

by asserting that he was his return in the work of sup-sequent peace of the town disposition of the constabu- made, will probably be known the cause and character of ids handed over to the Com- ion of the National Debt, and e public funds, amounted at ancial year to no less than re is also in the hands of the n £500,000 stock on which no ed for upwards of ten years-

At Ardman, county Tipperary, the Rev. John Cooke, Esq., C.D., son of the Rev. John Cooke, to May, daughter of the late Samuel W. Barton, Esq., of Rochestown, county Tipperary.

At Killaleon Church, county Tipperary, John Ball, Esq., V.S., to Ellie, daughter of Daniel Hearne, Esq., both of Clonmel.

At St. Thomas's Church, Dublin, Stanley Hamilton Hayes, son of the late William Hayes, Esq., of Dublin, to Eleanora Lydia Mary, widow of the late Anthony M'Onlough, Esq., of the Bank of Ireland, and daughter of the late John Mighmore Jeboult, Esq., Captain 41st Regt.

Joshua Michael Magee, Esq., of Laurel Lodge, Newry, Crown Solicitor, to Kate, daughter of the late John Steel, Esq., of Cork.

In the Parish Church, Moira, county Down, the Rev. Robert Hannay, Minister of Christ Church, Belfast, to Emily, daughter of the Rev. Wm. Henry Wynne, Rector of Moira.

At St. James's Church, Westbourne-terrace, London, Capt. Burgoyne, R.N., son of General Sir John Fox Burgoyne, Bart., to Evelyn Laura, daughter of Rear-Admiral Sir Baldwin Wake Waller, Bart.

In St. Peter's Church, Hammersmith, London, Major-General Haughton James, H.M.'s Indian Army, to Rachel Augusta, daughter of the Rev. W. G. Cookesley, Incumbent of St. Peter's, Hammersmith.

At Brighton, John G. Pilcher, Esq., of Stockwell, and Egham, Surrey, barrister-at-law, to Caroline Ellen, daughter of Major-General Munsey, Madras Cavalry.

At Broadwater Church, Sussex, the Rev. Charles William Bradford, vicar of Clyffe Pypard, Wilts, to Caroline Bradford Blanche, daughter of the late Rev. T. Wyatt, vicar of Wroxton and Balscot, county of Oxford.

At Newport, Isle of Wight, Mr. Henry George Willis, Inland Revenue Officer, to Annie, daughter of E. B. Hill, Esq., Supervisor of Inland Revenue for the Isle of Wight.

At Dunedin, New Zealand, Joseph Martin, Esq., of South Yarra, late of Dublin, to Susan, daughter of the late Samuel Allworthy, Esq., Sub-Inspector of Irish Constabulary.

DEATHS.

In the 18th year of his age, on his way from Lisdoonvarna to Seamount House, Kinvara (the residence of his father), Thomas, eldest son of Denis J. Hynes, Esq., M.D.

In Baltimore, of typhoid fever, Adam Denmeade, Esq., an extensive iron founder and mechanist of that city, where he was highly respected. Mr. Denmeade's parents were natives of Limerick.

At Macroom, county Cork, Francis Harding, Esq., J.P.

At Lehenaghbeg, county Cork, Mr. Edward J. Casey.

At Leinster-road, Rathmines, Dublin, Wm. O'Neill, Esq.

At Portobello, Mr. James M'Master, of Parliament-street, Dublin.

At Gresham-terrace, Kingstown, Maria Marcella, daughter of Wm. Gibson, Esq.

At Acton Lodge, Dublin, Mary Ann, relict of Edward Lucas, Esq., aged 92.

At Grafton-street, Dublin, Mrs. Leeman.

John Thomas Taylor, son of the late John Taylor, Esq., of Woodberry, Merrion, Dublin.

At Abbey Hall, Omagh, county Tyrone, John M'Crossan, Esq., solicitor.

At Ballynahinch, county Down, Anna Richardson, wife of James Dickson, Esq., M.D.

At Windsor, W. Hessey, Esq., late of the 1st Life Guards.

At West Brompton, Captain John Lindsey, R.N.

At Bedford-place, Brighton, Robert G. Dunnell, Esq.

At Old Steine, Brighton, Charlotte, widow of the late Rev. E. Hodgson.

At Hampton Lodge, Brighton, Mary Ann, wife of J. W. Holliday, Esq.

At Southsea, Mr. Thomas Parry, R.N.

At Umballa, East Indies, Captain Burke Cuppage, 21st Hussars, son of Major-General Burke Cuppage, Royal Artillery, Lieut-Governor of Jersey.

On the West Coast of Africa, suddenly, Wm. Ansell Martin, Esq., R.N., H.M.S. Jaseur, son of the late Charles Martin, Esq., Surgeon, Twickenham, Surrey.

R A
M R. F. MORICE ha one mile from Six Limerick and Ennis Rail the large long woolled br August 13, 1864.

Country
W ILL find they can vantageous House Samples forwarded with p and upwards. The Tea at 3s. is found approved of.

Bennis
26, Patr Lin August 11

Limerick Philo
(In connexion with the and 1
OPENING OF THE F
A SOIREE will be b ING, 2ND SEPT MITTEE ROOM, PI HALL.

Recitations and Adre the following Members, Suche, Edward Bennis, Trotter, and Joseph F. Chair to be taken at E Tickets six-pence each Members. GORDO September 1.

To I
T HE House with No. 37, George's Hotel, Limerick, as late Firm of Brown and Pay extensive and flourishing many years by Mr. Na Establishment. The situ the city.

A T O B
THE HOUSE, No. 9 LIM WITH STORE AT RERE, w requiring spacious accom Store, 36 feet long, and Dwelling by a Closet an per annum. Application EDWAI

Feb. 25.