

phy, Esq., assistant traffic manager, arrived shortly before, and gave valuable assistance under the circumstances. The traffic manager, Mr. Forbes, arrived at the scene of the accident about eleven o'clock. He was accompanied by Dr. Fleming, of Dublin, and by Drs Duigan and Middleton, of Mullingar, who at once proceeded to visit the patients already so well attended to by the medical faculty here. Indeed, Ballinasloe behaved most creditably every way on the occasion. Not knowing the full extent of what had occurred, Mr Breen, the work-house master, had a number of beds, with bedding, &c, in readiness for any application, but such was not requisite.

SUNDAY.—This morning the medical gentlemen again visited their patients. I noticed during my visit to the Railway Hotel, so early as eleven o'clock Dr Eaton, accompanied by Dr Dillon, the visiting physician of the asylum, who, with his usual kindness, in cases of emergency, came forward to give the sufferers the benefit of his skill and lengthened experience. None of the cases, however, presented any dangerous phase. A special train brought down a number of the directors to view the scene of the disaster. Those present were—Sir Percy Nugent, T. Richardson, Esq; E. W. Maunsell, Esq; and R. S. Cusack, Esq. The directors having examined the spot where the accident took place, returned to Dublin at half-past three o'clock. It is understood no blame is attached to any of the officials, and the directors are much pleased with the arrangements made by the officials under the circumstances.

The following is Dr Fleming's statement of those who have been injured:

Glanville, aged about 20, wound of scalp over left ear, and contusion; doing well. This youth is nephew of the deceased of same name.

A harvestman, simple fracture of the shaft of right thigh; doing well.

Another harvestman, aged about 50 years, serious contusion on left side of pelvis and general contusions of lower limbs; doing well.

Another harvestman, aged about 40, broken collar bone, right side, and some slight general contusions; doing well.

A young man, aged about 20, a printer, from Nenagh, wound of scalp and tumour of scalp; progressing favourably.

All the other cases (about 20 of injury to harvestmen) are comparatively trifling in their nature, consisting of contusions and superficial abrasions, and are progressing favourably.

THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE
TUESDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 1, 1864.

The Queen has arrived at Windsor from Balmoral. This day Lord Wodehouse had audience of her Majesty at Windsor, and received the Queen's commands as Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

5 o'clock, and was going through Quay-lane, where he met a little girl, having a lighted candle in her hand, saying that a woman was hanging herself; he then met two women, who told him that a woman was hanging in the house; he then ran in, and saw the woman hanging from the cross rail of the stairs; he cut the cord, when the body fell on the stairs, the people underneath not being strong enough to prevent that accident.

The jury found that the deceased committed the act while in a state of temporary insanity.

It is said that several gentlemen, eminently qualified to undertake the task, are now engaged in preliminary arrangements for re-organising the Galway Packet Company, and on a basis which will be calculated to command success. It is proposed that the management shall be in Dublin, and in very different hands from those who undertook the conduct of the late Company.

The Original Christy Minstrels have arrived in Dublin, and will make their annual tour through the Provinces.

Murderous assaults upon law bailiffs are becoming very general not only in Ireland, but in England. A recent account states that a sheriff's officer entered the house of a Mrs Robinson and her son, living at Edge lane, Liverpool, yesterday morning, in order to serve a writ of execution. The son rushed down stairs, and with a cavalry sword cut open the officer's head and wounded him in the legs, while the mother attacked him with a poker and dealt him some dreadful blows on the head. The officer's hat only saved his life. The Robinsons have been committed for trial.

Cider is now selling at 10s per hogshead in the west of England.

HYDROPHOBIA.—We have unhappily to record another terrible death by hydrophobia, which occurred yesterday evening under all its appalling circumstances in the County Hospital. The victim of this fearful calamity was a man of the name of John Drew, aged about 60, who resided at Adare in this county, from whence he was brought to the County Hospital on yesterday, bound on a dray, and protected by two powerful men of the constabulary whose greatest efforts were required to detain him on the dray until they delivered him into the charge of the medical attendants at the hospital. We understand that about nine weeks ago the poor fellow was bitten by a small dog on the forefinger of the left hand—the wound was no greater than would be inflicted by the scratch of a pin, and as there was no suspicion about the state of the animal no remedy was applied, and no further notice taken of the matter until the fearful symptoms became developed in all their horrors. He was then removed to the hospital as stated where all the aid that great medical skill could give was rendered him, but without effect as death in a most fearful form was the result. This recent calamity ought to compel people to be exceedingly cautious how they treat those animals which they may have about them.

We are happy to hear that Messrs Hamilton and Mark O'Shaughnessy, sons of Mark T. O'Shaughnessy, Esq., have obtained lucrative situations under the government at Sydney, New South Wales.

MUNICIPAL REVISION.—The Right Worshipful Eugene O'Callaghan, Mayor, sat in the Council Chamber, Town Hall, on yesterday, for the purpose of revising the municipal list. He was assisted by Messrs P. Corbett, and E. Sheehy, who acted as assessors, and by John Ellard, Esq, Town Clerk. No objections of an important nature were raised against any claimant for the parliamentary franchise.

The Marquis of Bristol died on yesterday at his seat, Ickworth Park, Suffolk. He is succeeded in his title by his eldest son, Earl Jermyn, one of the members for West Suffolk.

It will be seen by reference to another column that 2 persons were killed and 25 seriously injured by an accident on the Great Midland and Western railway on Saturday last.

James M'George, Esq., of Carnmeen, Newry, in the county of Down, has been appointed by the Lord Chancellor to the commission of the peace for that county, on the recommendation of the Right Hon. Lord Dufferin and Clandeboye, Lord Lieutenant of the County.

John Leslie, Esq., of Pettigo, has been appointed to the commission of the peace for the county of Donegal.

Richard A. O'Donel, Esq., has been transferred, as resident magistrate, to the county of Longford.

William Casey, of Kanturk, county Cork, was killed by his brother John on Thursday. They had a dispute about money, and, in a fight which ensued, deceased received a fatal blow of a stone upon the head.

At the Lurgan Coursing Club meeting on Friday, the winning dogs were Mr. Gardiner's Donald Blue; Mr. Campbell's Calaborona; and Mr. Bateman's Red Robin.

Since Friday last the weather has been exceedingly mild and genial, totally devoid of a wintry aspect.

The circular of Colonel Taylor, who has charge of the general electioneering business of the Conservation is now possible. The P. & O. Co. are their own insurers. Two of their ships, Nemesis and Bengal, were driven ashore. Happily, owing to the manner in which most of the ships were stranded, it is believed that cargoes will be found in the majority of cases to be entirely safe. With regard to the steamers belonging to the British India Steam Company, a telegram dated Calcutta, Oct. 13th, seven days after the storm, states that Sydney, Punjab, Madras, and Moulmein, were driven ashore; but that the two latter were got off much injured, the others remaining a-ground. Another of their vessels, the Persia, were lost at Sandheads, and only 2 of the crew saved.

PARIS, 1st Nov.—The Paris papers publish a telegram from Calcutta giving the following details of the destruction caused by the late hurricane at Calcutta:—"110 ships were wrecked, and 12,000 persons drowned. The total loss is estimated at 200,000,000 francs. A great portion of the city was inundated, and villages bordering on the river were under water."

BOMBAY AND MAURITIUS MAILS.
ALEXANDER, 31st OCT.—The Ellora and Poonah left to-day—former for Marseilles, and latter for Southampton.

THE PAPER MANUFACTURE.
It is now stated that the Belgian Government is about to reduce the export duty on rags to 2 franks the kilogramme, and that the French Government will follow its example.

CABINET COUNCIL.
Yesterday summonses were issued by the Premier for a cabinet council on the 15th inst., at the First Lord of the Treasury's official residence.

GENERAL NEWS.
LIVERPOOL, 3 P.M.—The Confederate war-steamer Florida, has been captured at Bahia by the Federal steamer Wisconsin.

The next mails from Calcutta, China, and Australia, will, doubtless, be delayed some days, owing to the disasters to the vessels of the P. & O. Co.

The death of Lieut.-General Bentinck causes a vacancy in the colonelcy of the 12th Foot.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.
Increased hopes are now entertained of an immediate fall in the value of money, and prices are strongly supported by the determination lately shown by the moneyed public to avail themselves of the reduced prices of many classes of securities. The funds have risen 1/4 per cent. The chief movement of yesterday was in home railways, which have received a great impulse from the recent absorption of stock by investors. The rise in many lines ranged from 1 to 3 per cent. There were also rather decided indications of a renewal of the demand for banking and financial shares; and the public are evidently disposed to resume on any slight encouragement their recent speculations in undertakings of this class. The chief feature of the discount market is scarcity of bills, owing partly to the contraction of trade, but chiefly to the withdrawing of paper from negotiations in expectation of lower rates.

The discount demand at the bank continues slight. In the open market the terms for the best paper are 8 1/2 per cent. Financial accounts from the continent indicate considerable uneasiness, attributable in some measure to the uncertainty connected with Dutch and Spanish credit companies. At all points, however, the rates for money are below those current in London. No quotations of funds to-day. Stock Exchange closed.

LONDON PRODUCE MARKET.
Sugar fair demand, full rates; brown West India, 29s to 32s; yellow, 32s 6d to 37s; refined wanted; low lumps, 45s; coffee firm, fair business; native Ceylon, 65s to 68s; tea unaltered; rice cargoes wanted; white and soft grain quiet; saltpetre demand good; fine Calcutta, 29s to 29s 6d; British refined, 33s 6d to 34s; tallow, free sale; new P.Y.C. 40s 6d spot.

LIVERPOOL CORN MARKET.
Market well attended; wheat in moderate demand at full rates; flour unaltered; Indian corn in good demand, and 6d dearer; beans steady, oats rather dearer; oatmeal held for 6d dearer. Imports, inland—Oats, 1,842; barley, 233; malt, 153; peas, 20; oatmeal, 3,414. Foreign—Wheat, 11,802; beans, 2; peas, 1,049; Indian corn, 6,550; flour, 1,437.

LIVERPOOL COTTON MARKET.
Market very firm; sales probably 8,000 bales; business somewhat interfered with in consequence of local election.

LIVERPOOL CATTLE MARKET—MONDAY.
OFFICIAL REPORT.

Supply of cattle was much larger than on last Monday; of sheep about the same. Very good demand without much change in value of good cattle. All other kinds cheaper. Sheep slow and rather low. Prices—Beef, 5d to 7 1/4d per lb; mutton, 7d to 8 1/4d per lb; 3,342 cattle and 6,628 sheep at market.

MANCHESTER TRADE REPORT.
Market strong, and rates rather in advance of Friday last. Producers, however, are checking buyers by extreme quotations.

NEWCASTLE CORN MARKET.
Wheat held firmly for rather more money. In foreign rather more doing than on Saturday; flour quiet; malting barley dull, and prices still dropping.
