

at us go down and confound (r). Man by himself can do together they can do much, to this principle that the reach truth. God chose 12 his Gospel and overturn a here you see illustrated the together can do great things old also be seen from the fact which men generally act, for world they would hear of all as for good, and young men and in troops to lead others to ruin, and if that be the if it be that the devil binds which is wrong, how much men be bound together to do asing in the sight of God (hear).
 had read of three young men it down evil, and when the l ordered it to be worshipped men said that they would mand, for to do so would be —they were cast into the furr lives, and thus, if the young ould be bound together on this working for God, for their that of their friends (hear, second part in the resolution library. It had been said of e known by the books they a house to pay a visit and had g over the drawing-room table nion as to the character of the ad over its surface a number of l trash, and if even a few only re cut he might fairly infer very little conversation beg the visit, but if he saw a useful works one would be able conversation there (hear, a library connected with that solution pledged it to increase ing so they ought to look about of books which they would most important what descripshould be placed before the things let the bible be placed for it was a library in itself, many books, and the most ins, inasmuch as it made it wise unto salvation.
 e last part of the resolution u to increase the members of as the missionary part of the ough men could say to each and we will do you good;" and uly adopted, they would soon ship. Let the young men, r—for in union there is strength determination to make a long d a pull all together, and there the Rev. T. Pyne Weldon, Vicar of Killefergie and Kilmoylan, John Henry Weldon, of Riversfield, in this county, Esq., J. P., to Katharine Spaight, second daughter of the late Paul Lindsay Maylor, of Chiplee, county of Cork, Esq. (No cards.)

 At Queenstown, Joseph Sladan, of Ripple Court, Kent, Esq., Lieutenant Royal Artillery, to Caroline Mary, daughter of Sampson T. W. French, Esq., of Cuskinny, co. Cork.
 In Tracton Church, Thomas Parsons Stammers, Esq., J. P., Tureen House, Passage West, to Jane Agnes, daughter of
 Wm. M'Dermott, Esq., M. D., Glenview, Kinsale;
 At Monkstown, county Dublin, David Aston, Esq., of Bally-laghy House, county Tipperary, to Lizzie, daughter of the late Wm. Denis, Esq., of Waterford.
 At Portstewart Church, the Rev. Thomas M'Clellan, Rector of Macosquin, to Matilda Sophia, daughter of the late Rev.
 Alex. Ross, Rector of Banagher, diocese of Derry.
 At Gayton-le-March, Lincolnshire, Richard Francis Chaplin, Esq., late 5th Dragoon Guards, to Emily Susannah, daughter of the Rev. W. B. Harrison, Rector of Gayton.
 At the British Legation, Berne, Robert, son of the late M.
 M'Culloch, Esq., of Balgray, Lanarkshire, to Lucy, daughter of the late Henry Prendergast Garde, Esq., of Garryduffe, county Waterford.
 At Kensington, London, John King, Esq., son of the late Admiral Phillip Parker King, R.N., to Antoinette Stratenus, daughter of the Rev. Henry Geble, D.D.
 In London, the Rev. Willoughby J. E. Rooke, Vicar of Tunstall, Lancashire, son of Major-General Sir H. Willoughby Rooke, K.C.H., to Catharine, daughter of the first Lord Ribblesdale, and widow of the Rev. J. Fleming Parker.

DEATHS.

At Kingstown, Susan Catherine, wife of Captain Elliott, daughter of the late Captain Warburton, R.N., and granddaughter of the late John Croker, Esq., Grange Hill, county Limerick.
 At Killerny Lodge, Cahir, county Tipperary, Maria, wife of the Rev. Wm. Stevenson, M.A.
 At Mallow, Edward Graves Reardan, Esq., Engineer-in-Chief of the southern district of the Great Southern and Western Railway.
 At Parsonstown, Ellen, relict of Francis Shields, Esq., late proprietor of the King's County Chronicle.
 At Tramore, John Montagu, infant son of J. C. Cooper, Esq., Lieutenant 8th Regt.
 At Tullamore, Francis Berry, Esq., of Tullamore and Eglis Castle, King's County.
 At Bachelor's-walk, Dublin, Mr. Terence M'Case, proprietor of the Carlisle Tavern.
 At Moate, county Westmeath, Charlotte, relict of the late John Barlow, Esq., of Bushy Park, county Roscommon.
 At the Globe, Kilmacrenan, co. Donegal, the Rev. Anthony Hastings.
 At Donnegarney, George Richard Hanbury, son of Hugh Hanbury, Esq., Trim, county Meath.
 At the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, Cecil Anne, wife of Capt. Wm. Patterson.
 At Tunbridge-wells, Eliza, daughter of the late Sir Henry Hawley, Bart., of Leybourne Grange, Kent.
 At Clifton, Amy Beatrice, youngest child of Captain E. B.
 Holland, R. E.
 At Bath, Honoria Valpy, daughter of Major T. G. Palmer, Madras Staff Corps.
 At Ickworth, Suffolk, the Most Hon. Frederick William,
 Marquess of Bristol.
 At Keswick, Bessie, wife of the Rev. Holden Donald Hill.
 At Boughelm, in the Principality of Waldeck, Lieutenant-General Charles Anthony Ferdinand Bentinck, Colonel of the 12th Regt.
 At Paris, the Lady Catherine Bruen.
 At Boulogne-sur-Mer, Elizabeth Essex, Lady Honyman, widow of Colonel Sir Ord Honyman, Bart., formerly commanding the Grenadier Guards.
 At Therapia, near Constantinople, Phillip Sarell, Esq., of H. E. M.'s Embassy.
 At Nagpore, India, Lieutenant John Downing Swinney, Royal Engineers.
 At Bermuda, Louisa Frances Ellen, daughter of Captain W.
 J. B. Pullen, R. N.

Doors open at half-past 7
 Boxes, 2s; Stalls, 1s 6
 Children under 12 half only.

New Glass! N
 Earthe

MURRAY A
 65, WILLIAM-ST
 (Opposite W

M & G. having just assortment of the above named articles attention of parties about Glass in Tumblers, Wine
 Tea Setts, Breakfast Se
 China, Dinner Ware, Ch
 Uncovered Jugs, &c., &c.
 1 pint to 12 gallons, Wat
 Goods hired out for Bal
 October 18.

T E

- Best Black Tea, ...
- Finest Congou, ...
- Fine Congou, ...
- Good Stout Congou, ...
- Sound Congou, ...
- Good Coffee, ..
- Superior Coffee, ..
- Best Coffee, ..

C O F

S C A R R B

TE

15, PATR

LIM

April 26