FRANCE. The Paris correspondent of the Advertiser says that the apprehension of Parisians have been increased by the knowledge that Marshal Magnar and other indiscreet Imperialists are urging the parity or to dismiss a Cabinet which has already proven that a useless incur branch to the Imperial regime and a vent for the cumbrance to the Imperial regime, and a vent for the worst passions; but these apprehensions are probably ill founded, as there is little probability that the Emperor will provoke a collission with his sub-

MEXICAN AFFAIRS.

The taking of the city of Guauaxuato is an important incident in the Mexican campaign, as it is the centre of probably the largest mining district in Mexico.

The correspondent of the Times says that the French troops have been everywhere well received, and that the most perfect order had been preserved along the line of march. Notwithstanding the ravages committed by the Jaurez force in their retreat, and the great drought from which the country has suffered during the last two years, provisions and forage in abundance were everywhere met with. The Paris correspondent of the Globe says: -The amendment to the address touching Mexico will be met by a ministerial statement that since the 1st of January all charges for the French troops have been borne by the Mexican government.

THE HOLSTEIN QUESTION.
COPENHAGEN, JAN. 18.—The Dagbladt of to-day says - The ultimatum of Austria and Prussia delivered says—The ultimatum of Austria and Frussia delivered to the Minister for Foreign Affairs on Saturday demands the retraction of the Constitution of the 18th of November before this day, and the temporary return to the status quo existing before its proclamation. What will happen if Denn.ark complies with this unjustifiable and bental demand that do not state. If justifiable and brutal demand they do not state. If, on the other hand, the ultimatum should not be complied with, they threaten all misfortune at their command, commencing with the withdral of their ambas-The same paper goes on to remark it is selfsadors. evident that no idea can be entertained of compliance with the ultimatum; what will then happen depends upon eventualities in Europe and Germany. upon eventualities in Europe and Germany. We may observe that in case of war the armies will require from three to four weeks to collect the necessary strength. By that time the Danish army will be larger than ever, and the fortified works be added to hold in check an enemy nearly twice as strong-

The Berlin correspondent of the Times says, a fort-night must clapse before the 60,000 Austro-Prussian tro ops can be got ready to enter Holstein.

The Globe cannot imagine that Denmark will yield any further to German demands, and then the imany further to German demands, and then sale in mense responsibility of breaking the peace will develop the two great German powers. The convelve upon the two great German powers. The conduct of England in this crisis will be firm and circumspect, having one respect to the national honour, the welfare of the empire and of Europe, and the sanction of national opinion.
