

which it is to be
AND THE IRISH
satisfaction of tick's has refused Dublin, for the that cathedral on rch Mission So-

vessel still clings ion remains unr of men are en-cargó, consisting other articles of course, seriously ricating her from il Thursday next, ng the vessel will n confident hopes ot off the rock.—
claiming credit for o think that the rescued from der judgment may t a steamer will e deep. It is now d any additional s made to set her competent judges a the insufficiency cidents which unit the experiment
s. The strictest on to prevent the of extraordinary nal "lumps" will gutta percha tu-sustaining power cted from Liver-floating power.—
little doubt that d towed to a place by which she has no respect, she
r. Had it been probability have stem; but since ultimo, on which the harbour, her k on which she is ced an unfavour-
to be wished that me until arranget attempt to lift s attended with that yesterday rem selves of the eam boats to see ed with mingled and regret—Cork

Malone, C.C., Christopher B. Henessy, Esq., of Ballymacmory House, county Cork, to Mary Naish, daughter of Roger Keatinge Sheehy, Esq.

April 6th, in the Wesleyan Chapel, Wexford, by the father of the bride, John H. Hadden, Esq., second son of the late John E. Hadden, Esq., to Annie, eldest daughter of the Rev. Henry J. Giles, Wesleyan Minister, all of Wexford.

At St. Peter's Church, Dublin, Charles Sutton Garraway, Esq., Captain Duke of Lancaster's Own Rifles, son of the late Colonel Garraway, East Indian Army, to Frances Derenzey, daughter of the late Alexander Richard Pope, Esq.

At Lower Baggot-street, Dublin, Henry Simmons, Esq., of Manchester, to Anne, daughter of Lewis Harris, Esq.

At Castletown Church, the Rev. Abraham Stanley, LL.B., Curate of Killeban, to Caroline Catherine, daughter of the late Major-General Johnstone, C.B., of Rahinderry House, Athy, county Kildare.

At Brighton, the Right Hon. Lord Forbes, to Louisa, daughter of the late James Ormond, Esq., of Abingdon, Berkshire.

At All Souls' Church, Langham-place, London, Henry Hamilton Beamish, Captain Royal Navy, to Louisa M. A. Forman, widow of the late Captain E. Rowland Forman, Rifle Brigade, and daughter of John Slater Harrison, Esq., and Lady Louisa Slater Harrison, of Shelswell-park, Oxon.

At Our Lady's Church, St. John's-wood, London, Edward Charlton, M.D., of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, to Margaret Jane, daughter of Edward Bellasis, Sergeant-at-law.

At Dawlish, Silas Russell Whitney, Esq., of New York, to Marina Charlotte, daughter of the late Major-General Carpenter, Indian Army.

At St. Peter's Church, Melbourne, Frank J. Jones, Esq., of Melbourne, formerly of Trinidad, to Jeannie, daughter of the late James Boyes, Esq., of Belfast.

DEATHS.

At his seat, Tullamore, county Tipperary, William Finch, Esq., J.P., a gentleman much respected through a long life.

On the 13th February, drowned whilst attempting to cross during a flood the Keiskama River, Cape of Good Hope, Charles Proby Fitzgibbon, Esq., Senior Lieutenant in H.M.'s 10th Regiment, youngest son of T. C. Fitzgibbon, Esq., of Ballyseeda, county Limerick.

At Maryville, Liscannor, county Clare, James F. Macnamara, Esq.

At Cashel, Frances, daughter of the late John White, Esq., of Cashel and Ballynahinch.

At Lady-lane, Waterford, Mrs. Carlisle, mother-in-law of the Rev. Wm. McCance.

At Lower Glanmire-road, Cork, Thomas Richard, son of the late Richard Thomas, Esq., of Rathpeacon, county Cork.

At Fort Richard, county Cork, Richard Galwey, Esq.

At Blair's-hill, Cork, Mr. Thomas Condon.

At Rathmines, Dublin, the Rev. John Bury Palliser, of Annestown, county Waterford.

At Leinster-road, Rathmines, Jeanette, wife of John Gailey, Esq., and daughter of Thomas Little, Esq., Liverpool.

At Rutland-square, Dublin, Michael O'Donnell, Esq.

At Greenmount, Miltown-road, Dublin, Mr. Robt. Queale.

At Haystown, county Wexford, Charles, son of the late Samuel Wheelock, Esq., proprietor of the Wexford Conservative.

At Ballyville, King's County, Wm. Warren, Esq.

At Templeport, county Cavan, Mr. Henry Wilcocks.

Mary, daughter of William Cheyne, Esq., of Aughavallog, Rathfriland, county Down.

At Sandgate, Lieut.-General Robert Christopher Mansel, K.H., Colonel of the 68th Regt.

At Brighton, Colonel Charles Bingham, Deputy Adjutant-General, Royal Artillery.

At Harrow-on-the-Hill, Ruth, daughter of Lieut. C. Greaves, late of the 87th Royal Irish Fusiliers.

At Fort Gomer, near Gosport, Major Richard Wollaston Clerke, 26th Cameronians.

At Windsor Forest, Winkfield, George Dennistoun Scott, Major 1st Royal Surrey Militia, and late Captain 1st (King's) Dragoon Guards.

At Hackney, London, Frederick B. Dixon, Esq., M.D.
At Cawder House, Lanarkshire, Thomas Buchanan, Esq.

JOHN BERNAL

Has been favoured with directions by nard, Esq., J.P., who intends giving coming to reside in Limerick, to sell the very excellent furniture and ornaments on the premises, by strictly Unrese The articles specially worth particula

IN THE DINING ROOM,

12 excellent chairs and 2 arm do, 2 ch ican leather, very fine old St. Domi carved sideboard in great order and pair of sarcophagi lockers to match, pe crimson damask curtains for two wind cornices, mahogany book case of a design and manufacture, suited for a an office, chimney glass, carpet and r dinner tables in beautiful order on pil

THE HALL.

Grecian lamps, tarpaulin, 8 day clock, able globes, tables, bronze hat sta stair carpet, rods, paintings, &c.

THE DRAWING-ROOM.

Pair window curtains, Brussels carpe square piano by Collard and Collard mahogany case and of fine toned and balloon backed chairs, pair lounge chairs, an invalids reclining chair, pa hogany card table, sofa table, large cheffonier with book rack and plate fender, irons, &c.

PANTRY.

A very handsome dinner service. o stone, desert service, morning and eve glass in great profusion and variety, 1 urn, salvers, liqueur stand, coasters, te sticks, covered jugs, table and deser covers, coal box, delph crocks, and butler's press and wine binn.

THE SLEEPING APARTMEN

Contain state and albert bedsteads damask curtains, paillasses, 12 prime bolsters, pillows, window hangings, a loungers, cane and mahogany chairs, r robes, basin stands, dressing table chamber ware, carpetting, commoc horses, night chairs, servants' beds, bedding, kitchen chairs, tables, drainer, cooking utensils, and a ve light working mangle with chains, roll

THE OUT-DOOR EFFECTS CONS

One excellent and very light running very superior condition, a good strong car set harness, plated mountings, 5 carts and drays, tackling, ladders, quantity of timber, rick of straw, fa tools, and a variety of sundry effects.

One day's sale if possible, to co o'clock precisely. Prompt settlement

JOHN BERNAL, At
George Str

April 12