

MARRIAGES.

At St. John's Cathedral, Limerick, by the Very Rev. Dr. O'Brien, R.C. Archdeacon, T. Lynch, Esq., Coote Hill, co. Cavan, to Anna, daughter of Dr. O'Brien, Newcastle West.

At the Parish Church of Forney, Robert Armstrong, Esq., of Creagh, Nenagh, to Margaret, daughter of Thomas Bredin, Esq., Prospect, county Longford.

At New Abbey Chapel, Kilcullen, county Kildare, Philip, son of Philip Brennan, Esq., of Tinagarney House, Bagnalstown, county Carlow, to Sarah Anne, daughter of Michael Murphy, Esq., Kilcullen Mills, county Kildare.

At the Roman Catholic Church, Dunboyne, county Meath, Mr. Peter Duffy, Harbourstown, county Meath, to Alicia Mary M'Donald, Glearyland House.

At St. James's Church, Dover, the Rev. Frederick Thomas Salmon, son of John Salmon, Esq., of Clifton Park, Clifton, to Arabella, daughter of the late Rev. Robert Denny, and grand-daughter of the late Sir Edward Denny, Bart., of Tralee Castle, county Kerry.

At St. George's, Hanover-square, London, Frederick Henry Maitland, Esq., 8th Royal Irish Hussars, son of Colonel Frederick Colthurst Maitland, to Charlotte Sarah, daughter of of Lieut.-Colonel B. W. A. Sleight, late Colonel-Commandant 2nd King's County Regt, B.N.A.

At St. Stephen's-the-Martyr, Regent's-park, London, George Harris Lea, Esq., of Trinity College, Cambridge, to Mary Inglis, daughter of Edward Futvoye, Esq., of John-street, Bedford-row, London.

At the British Consulate, Genoa, the Baron Iver H. Rosenkrantz, Chamberlain to the King of Denmark, to Julia Louisa, daughter of the late Major Lewis Mackenzie, of Southwick-crescent, London.

At Valparaiso, John A. R. Petch, Esq., R.N., of H.M.S. Leander, to Louisa Olivia, daughter of the late Lieutenant G. W. Tomlin, R.N., of Bembridge, Isle of Wight.

DEATHS.

Yesterday morning, at his residence, George-street, in this city, at the advanced age of 92 years, Alderman Joseph Gabbett, a most worthy gentleman, who, under the old Corporation, filled the office of Mayor of Limerick 45 years since with credit and distinction, and was held in high repute. In after life he was esteemed and respected by his fellow-citizens generally. Upon every occasion where the wants of the poor or the cause of charity was brought to bear, the deceased excellent gentleman was foremost in his contributions to relieve the sufferings of the distressed. He was father-in-law of the late William Smith O'Brien, whose memory is held dear by the present generation.

Last evening, at Askeaton, Mary Kate, the beloved daughter of Thomas Casey, Esq.

At Bruff, on the morning of the 30th ult., Mr. Standish J. Harris, clerk of petty sessions, to the deep regret of a fond wife and four children.

At Monkstown, county Dublin, Anna, widow of the late John Mayne, Esq., barrister-at-law, and daughter of the late Very Rev. Richard Graves, D.D., Dean of Ardagh.

At Harcourt-street, Dublin, Edward Alexander, son of Hugh Beresford Stanley, Esq.

At Bray, county Wicklow, Captain John Nixon Read, late of the 69th Regt.

At Swanlinbar, county Cavan, Captain John Johnston, formerly of the 70th Regt., J.P. for the counties of Fermanagh and Cavan.

At Lausanne, in Switzerland, Robert Metcalf, Esq.

At Adelaide-road, Dublin, Miss A. M. Metcalf, a sister of the foregoing.

At South Great George's-street, Dublin, Ann Eliza, wife of Mr. Wm. Hug.

At his residence, Carmarthenshire, Capt. J. G. H. Phillips, late of the 61st Regt.

At St. Helier's, Jersey, Anthony Tassington Tatlow, Esq., M.A., of Trinity College, Cambridge, and of Drumrora, co. Cavan.

At Hans-place, London, the Rev. Thomas Archer, D.D., minister of Oxenden Chapel.

The Rev. Wm. Powell, M.A., of Jesus College, Oxford, and Vicar of Mundon, Essex.

At Malta, Joseph Nathaniel Portlock Dadson, Esq., Captain Royal Artillery.

At Kingston, Jamaica, the Hon. Alex. Barclay, Receiver-General.

12 Quarter-cases, and 60 Cases of sa '59, and '60, shipped by Auguste Tril Fils and Cie Cognac, and 60 Cases of sa Brand.

The Case Brandy will be sold in Bond or Duty P at the option of the Buyers; and the Brandy in Wo in Bond only.

"Samples of each class day of sale."

EDMOND BEVERIDGE,
Auctioneer, Valuator, &c., Limerick.

Approved Bill for £20 or upwards at 3 mo including Interest, will be accepted.

For another account, about 14 dozen of fine Hock, the property of a gentleman who is leaving the country, will be sold in quantities to suit purchasers.

E. J.

December 1, 1864.

Profitable Investment.

MR. BEVERIDGE

Is Favoured with instructions from John Russell Esq., Glenview, to Sell by Auction at his 53, Thomas Street, on SATURDAY NEXT, Instant, "Subject to a small Head Rent," the following House, Store, and Premises, situate at Corner of UNTHANK'S LANE, MUNGRET-STREET, Limerick. The House is in Tenantable Repair and the Store to Rere is also in excellent Order.

For further particulars as to Title, apply to PATRICK LYNCH, ESQ., Sole Notary Public, 56, George Street or to, EDMOND BEVERIDGE Auctioneer, Valuator, Limerick, 3rd Dec.

THE TEMPERANCE HOTEL.

THE TEMPERANCE HOTEL,
No. 6, BEDFORD-ROW,
LIMERICK.

SCALE OF CHARGES:—

Cup of Coffee,	6d.
Breakfast,	1s. 3d. and 1s. 6d.
Dinner,	1s. 6d. and 2s. 0d.
Tea,	1s. 0d.
Beds,	1s. 0d. and 1s. 6d.
Attendance,	6d. per day.

A trial respectfully solicited.

John Norton.

December 3.

Limerick Protestant Orphan Soc

"SPECIAL FUND."

THE REV. CHARLES WARD, Hon. Secretary, will feel greatly obliged if the Friends who have not as yet forwarded their Donations towards the above Fund, will be pleased to do so soon as possible, as the List must close, and the names be lodged with the Treasurer before the 30th inst. as to enable the Committee to apply to Canon M. for the £50 promised.

Kilmurry Rectory, 19th November.