

School of the workhouse was is personnel was, of course, entered, a monitress was class of girls on the map of unted by the visitor, the mo- her examination, which was t with the utmost attention, ssed his entire satisfaction at he pupils had answered, a cir- creditable to the teacher, Miss retted that time did not permit sent at the proceedings of the st he observed from the train e and extent of the inundations estern Star.

members of the Donoughmore 44, met on Wednesday, the ge rooms, Nelson-street Clon- celebrating the festival of St. icers for the ensuing six months. embled at the appointed hour, members were installed viz. :— rald, as W.M. ; Brother Thos. V. ; Brother Frederick Sayers, Dunkerly, as S.D. ; Brother R. after labour had terminated ad- t, when everything that was cal- eye and taste was provided in as one special incident in the deserves a place in this notice, of a poor brother who had once was now reduced to penury by circumstances. The claim was by Brother John Prendergast, promptly responded to, and a pot which will help the poor to come. We could wish that nary were better understood.—

is to preside as Chairman at the ns for the County of Kerry, in ness of Mr. Copinger, Q.C.

is a fact in Natural History ainted with birds—that if you of those totally devoid of song ee days old, and bring it up be- her bird of a class distinguished tion, the bird will have none of es, but will emulate and acquire song even of the nightingale or this should encourage parents, al period of existence, to train up ed with faculties which, the more e the more susceptible of help— honour in time and glory in Times.

At St. Mary Abbott, Kensington, Anne Harrison, Esq., 3rd Dragoon Guards, son of Lieutenant-General Sir Michael White, K.C.B., to Mary Ridsden, daughter of Edwin R. Davy, Esq., of Pilton, Devonshire.

At Holcombe, Captain William Little, Adjutant of the 12th Depot Battalion, Athlone, to Emma, daughter of Lawrence Wood Fletcher, Esq., of Bury.

At St. George's Church, Dublin, Mr. George Thos. Beckett, to Mary Jane, daughter of Mr. James M'Namara.

At Sidmouth, R. R. M. Daw, Esq., of Exeter, to Frances, daughter of the late Lieutenant-Colonel Hoeker, C.B., Royal Marine Light Infantry.

In the British Church, St. Petersburg, Ainslie Grant Duff, Esq., of H.B.M. Embassy, to Fanny Elizabeth, daughter of Edward Morgan, Esq., of St. Petersburg.

In St. Mary's, Kingston, William O'Reilly, Esq., of Esplanade House, Portsea, to Elizabeth, widow of the late Robert Hemington, Esq., of Southsea, and of Thorp Arch Vicarage, Yorkshire.

DEATHS.

On Saturday, the 2nd inst., at Annacotty, Anna Greer, wife of Robert S. Grubb, Esq., aged 73.

Jan. 2, at Percy-place, Dublin, Major Robert Mackintosh, late of H.M. 4th (or King's Own) Regiment, and formerly Barrackmaster of Limerick, aged 71 years. The deceased officer received the war medal with six clasps for Fuentes d'Onor, Badajoz, Salamanca, Vittoria, St. Sebastian, and Nive.

January 3rd, at 1. Lock-quay, Limerick, Anne, the beloved wife of Timothy O'Brien, Esq., deeply and sincerely regretted. On yesterday, at 10, George-street, Anna Maria, the infant daughter of Samuel Bradshaw, Esq., solicitor, aged thirteen months.

At Dinnington Hall, Yorkshire, Mary, the beloved wife of J. C. Middleton Althorpe, Esq., and daughter of the late T. G. Fitzgibbon, Esq., Ballyseeda, in this county.

At Curraghmore, on the 23th December, of scarletina, aged 9 years and 8 months, William, the interesting son of Mr. R. Wilson.

At Nelson-street, Tralee, Michael Kennelly, Esq., for many years a leading merchant in that town.

At Youghal, Mary Josephine, wife of John Pine Hurley, architect, Victoria-terrace, St. Luke's, Cork.

At Russell-street, Mountjoy-square, Dublin, Jane, wife of Charles Crawcour, Esq.

At Hollycourt, Blackrock, county Dublin, Anne, relict of Thomas Maunsell, Esq.

In Dublin, Theodore, son of the Rev. A. Drought, of Clontarf, county Galway.

At Graham-terrace, Dublin, Cadwallader W. Roberts, Esq.

At Fairview-avenue, Clontarf, Eliza, wife of Edward Pennefather, Esq.

At Courtstown, the Rev. Richard Budds, of Castlefleming, Queen's County.

On the 31st ult., Leslie Eames, late Lieutenant 66th Regt., son of the Rev. William Eames, Rector of Castlepollard.

At Albemarle-street, London, suddenly, the Dowager Lady Abercromby, of Birkenbog and Forglen.

At Bletchington Park, Oxfordshire, the Right Hon. Arthur Annesley, Viscount Valentia.

In London, Mr. Robert Baily, of the House of Commons.

At Bath, Mrs. Elizabeth Fawell, relict of the Rev. Robert Fawell, Rector of St. Swithin's, Demerara.

At Stanhope-terrace, Hyde-park, London, Miss Alicia Campbell, daughter of the late Lord Clyde.

At Amwell, Herts, Wm. C. Mylne, Esq., C.E., F.R.S.

At Liverpool, Mr. Patrick Stephen Hogan, formerly of Littleton, county Tipperary.

At Southsea, very suddenly, Elizabeth, daughter of the late Rear-Admiral Renwick.

At Panton Rectory, Lincolnshire, Emma, wife of the Rev. A. W. Baily, curate of Panton.

Killed in action at Umbaglia Pass, while on duty a volunteer with the 71st Highlanders, Lieutenant T. B. Dougal, 79th Cameronians.

IN this College, which of the SOCIETY OF receive a sound, refined, and are prepared for the Univer- cal Colleges; for the Le- Public Service—Civil various departments of life.

The Programme of Stu- Latin Languages; Mat- osophy; French, German branches of a complete E Geography, Elocution, E Writing, Arithmetic, &c.

In the Mercantile De- great importance in a co- ducted with especial care knowledge is imparted Abstracts, and the other chant's and the Actuary

In the Elementary, or ing and method of instru- ren of very tender year- mitted who have not lea-

The Religious Educat- attended to; they are in the Catholic Faith, and piety and virtue.

The Drawing Class is the School of Design.

Business will be resu- 7. A punctual attenda- portant.

Application to be ma- KELLY, S.J., or to an- chin's College, Crescent January 2.

Price's P

WHICH, in conse- quality, and now in larger demand t in the world, can be ob- 7s. 6d. per c

MICH

(Corner of Patrick a- Nov. 21.

Genera

THE PROV

50, CATHERIN

A N Ordinary on B Sunda

March 24, 1863.