

and a special jury in the yesterday. The plaintiff is Dr Travers, of Williamsbourhood of Dublin, and William and Lady Wilde. signed in a letter written by her, in which she made certain of a defamatory character, intimacy with Sir William she sought to extort money."—See Report.

NAVY AFFAIRS.

A letter in the Times, showing in Tennessee are more are likely to be in Georgia. Hood succeeds in taking fall into his hands, the ad-ville, Chattanooga, Decatur, me untenable, and their no time in finding a diffi-often said that Chattanooga Southern defence. As to more clearly proves the im- such a country as the South-essful general, without an him, cannot advance into oning all that he had gained correspondent says that hgh Georgia was his only hilation or forced surrender Washington put off the ington in order to be ready reaching the coast. At-tempt was made by 13,000 nake their escape. They the inner guard, and were ir way through the outer opened upon, and 40 were e Confederates have been ccesses. In a raid at New-nd Ohio Railway they sur-eral garrison, and destroyed t stores. Hood is engaged hes with Sheridan in Ten- in an attack on the Fede- but on the whole, he seems strongly pressing his oppo-ess, however, is dissatisfied s he would be better em-ia. Early is stated to have al Lee's army for that pur- ed that Grant will take state to renew his attack the Metropolitan Sewage used to be the cause of an ich. Mr. Parkyn, deputy Stores, has lost four of his civil engineer, has lost all er.

daughter.

At Kurrachee, Bombay, the wife of Major Browne, 100th Regt., of a son.

At Lucknow, the wife of Lieut.-Colonel H. Le Geyt Bruce, Royal Horse Artillery, of a daughter.

At Sealkote, Punjab, the wife of Capt. Robert Alexander, 20th Hussars, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

At Millstreet, county Cork, James Cooper, Esq., V.C., Millstreet Board of Guardians, to Miss Justice, of Millstreet.

At Cheltenham, Charles M. Hogg, Esq., Bombay Civil Service, to Letitia Anne, daughter of the late R. Morris, Esq., of Ballycanvan House, county Waterford, and widow of the late A. Daniel, Esq.

At Torre Church, Major A. A. Shaw, late of the Madras Army, to Erina l'Amore Soppitt, daughter of the late J. P. Malcomson, Bombay Medical Service, and widow of the late Lieut. A. Soppitt, Bombay Army.

At Preston, Wm. Cole, Esq., of Belfast, to Eliza Smith, daughter of Wm. Heaton, Esq., Preston.

At Shalford, Surrey, J. Liddell, Esq., Commander R.N., to Sydney Elizabeth, daughter of the late G. Carew-Gibson, of Bradston Brook, Surrey, Esq.

At Bishopstoke, Perceval Clark, Lieutenant 9th Lancers, to Alice Margaret, daughter of the late W. Richards, Esq., of Ely Rise, near Cardiff.

At Wadsley, the Rev. F. C. Morton, Incumbent of Wadsley, near Sheffield, to Jane Charlotte, daughter of Lieut.-Colonel Cassan, Staff Officer of Pensioners.

At Kurrachee, India, Captain F. Talbot Cornwall, Bombay Staff Corps, Major of Brigade, Kurrachee, to Caroline Thompson, daughter of B. D. Ker, Esq., of Clifton, Somersetshire.

DEATHS.

At Cheltenham, on the 9th inst., Eliza Grace, only child of the late Major-General George Evans Hunt, Royal Marines, and grand-daughter of the late John Hunt, Esq., of Mantle Hill, in this county.

On the 12th inst., at Milltown Castle, Charleville, after a long illness, the beloved wife of George Brine, Esq., deeply regretted.

At Shroneil, near Tipperary, Clement Sadleir, Esq., aged 94 years.

At Kingstown, Letitia Anne Babington, daughter of the late Thomas Richard Babington, Esq., barrister-at-law.

At Westport, county Mayo, Bridget, wife of Lieut.-Colonel Pownall, retired, Hon. Indian Army.

At Carrick, Queen's County, Anna, widow of the late Wm. Pilkington, Esq.

At Arklow, county Wicklow, Letitia Amella, widow of S. H. Eaton, Esq., late Captain 2nd Regt.

At Ballymoney, county Antrim, Daniel, son of James Cameron, Esq.

At Enniscorthy, county Down, Wm. Malcolm Orr, Esq.

At Camden-square, London, Wm. Wright Swain, Esq., late Major 5th Regt.

At Richmond-road, Islington, London, James Heckford, Esq., late of the Exchequer Office, Lincoln's Inn.

At Galston Park, the Hon. Clementina Browne, daughter of Lord and Lady Kilmaine.

At Boulogne-sur-Mer, Margaret, widow of the late Wallop Brabazon, Esq., of Rath House, county Louth.

At Dover, Major-General Wm. Nepean.

At Worthing, Georgiana, daughter of the late General Sir H. Wheatley, Bart.

On his way home from Ceylon, Lieut. Henry Rogers Ievers, Royal Artillery, son of the late Rev. Colin Ievers, Prebendary of Rasharkin, county Antrim.

On his passage home from Bombay, Edmund Burke, Esq., T.C.D., Deputy Registrar High Court of Bombay, son of the late Wm. M. Burke, Esq., Ballydugan, county Galway.

At Toronto, Canada, Frances, relict of John Keogh, Esq., of Ballinasloe, county Galway, and daughter of the late Rev. Wm. Persse, Rector of Tynagh, same county.

Drowned by the capsizing of the ship's cutter in Tunis Bay, Samuel Brooke Kemble, midshipman of H.M.S. Orlando, son of the Rev. Charles Kemble, Rector of Bath.

Lost in the Persia, on his homeward voyage, Captain H. M. Caulfeild, 4th European Cavalry.

has been miraculously im-plied by Mr. Solomons' se-read newspaper print w-before, even without artif-town House, Churchtown, (From the Very Rev.

"DEAN FARRELLY is em-perience, to state that Mr. are really what they are r Preservers for the sight ev-him the greatest ease and many hours, either by day o-ment he had not previously glasses or pebbles."—Ardag (From the Rev. M. J. M.

"I have tried glasses fo-derived from Mr. Solomons-repose for the eye, in-additi-comfort. M. J. M'Donne-Kerry."

(From the Rev. M.

"Allow me to express my-tacles supplied by Mr. SC-comfort with them. They-most perfect ease, creating a-out the slightest sensation-eye.

"MAY

"Rathcormac, county Co-The REV. PATRICK M'KE-for a very lengthened perioo-sight, occasioned by constar-Solomons for a pair of his ce-have rendered so much serv-him to be grateful—his si-The Rev. Mr. M'Keon is to discharge a duty to the p-own case, the opinion so-"Solomons' Spectacles," as-enced much injury and an-pebbles purchased at other-ford.

Mr. E. SOLOMONS' Spe- eminent members of the Fac-&c., including—The Lord-Lords Clonbrock, Crofton, the Deans of Ossory, Drom-&c., &c.

The limits of an advertis- bility of publishing the num- are in Mr. SOLOMONS' pos- gished persons, and from Faculty of the United King

CAUTION.—To prevent- sary to observe that Mr. I

NO AGENTS OR- and, after his departure fron- can only be obtained at his- 19, NASSAU-STR- to which Address all Comm- for Repair should be sent, prompt and particular atten- Dec. 10.