

able farmer, was fined 18s. 6d. for an assault upon one of the Trustees in the Corn appeared for the defendant, but not knowing that the condition, but seeing him with arms and, believing he had no arms on the horse, and words were said that their officers would discharge of their public duty at this offence was committed, the fine would be a re fined in small penalties amounting at large without either being announced the determination of heavy fines in future under the law in this way.

red £1 and costs and to be paid, for keeping a

William-street. executed, said that numbers were in the habit of regaling themselves at the establishment at all hours of the day in the vicinity of the defendants not the fine ready was given which sentence she set at a concert pitch and created her removal to the jail her rough the stone walls and noise. The fine and costs of Hebe liberated. of any public importance which shortly adjourned.

ZEALAND—The Gazette Lieutenant-General Sir D. count of the interview with Durango, which resulted in finally to the Queen's surplus lands at the disposal of New Zealand, Sir D. hope that the liberal terms tribes to make their sub-to decide as to the relative of and scutching machines in the Court of the Exhibition won their decision. They were assessing all the advantages secured.

Dublin, was burglariously entered on Friday morning, and articles which were worth carswinnigg, yesterday from Queen's named James Mahoney on her voyage out a sailor lost overboard. Efforts to recover without success.

son of Richard Chute, Esq., M.D., Tralee, to Jane Price, daughter of the late James Price, Esq., Clonmel.
This morning, in St. John's Church, Limerick, by the Rev. John Elmes, Vicar, Mr. John Hall, of this city, to Catherine, eldest daughter of Mr. Wm. Sealy, Dingle, county Kerry.
At Roscommon, the Hon. Charles St. George Crofton, to Theresa Augusta, daughter of Daniel Tighe, Esq., Rossanna, county Wicklow, and the Hon. Mrs. Tighe.
At St. Stephen's Church, Dublin, Frederick George, son of David Wright, Esq., J.P., of Emma Vale, Arklow, to Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas Edwards, Esq., Avondale, county Wicklow.
At Tallaght Church, county Dublin, the Rev. Luke Fowler, son of the late Bishop of Ossory and Ferns, and prebendary of Aghour, county Kilkenny, to Dora, daughter-in-law of the Very Rev. Charles Vignoles, Dean of Ossory.
In Dublin, the Rev. Walter T. Turpin, Minister of Albert Chapel, Dublin, to Ellen Wade, daughter of Thomas H. Thompson, Esq., Lower Leeson-street, Dublin.
At Danganon, Joseph Leycoster, son of John Devenish-Meares, Esq., D.L., of Meares Court, county Westmeath, to Frances Georgina, daughter of Basil George Brooke, Esq., of Miltown House, county Tyrone.
At Lucan, Major A. L. Marsh, late of the 55th Regt., to Susan Agnes, daughter of the late General Sir Hopton Stratford Scott, K.C.B.
At Warrenpoint, Robert James, Esq., Manager of the Ulster Bank, Portadown, to Annie Eliza, daughter of Wm. Sinclair, Esq., Warrenpoint.
At Portsea, Frederick Augustus Foster, Captain Royal Marine Artillery, to Mary, daughter of Captain H. B. Rose, of Southsea.

DEATHS.

This morning, at 6, William-street, Thomas Hugh, second son of Joseph Bodkin Kennedy, Esq., aged 6½ years.
On the 22nd August, after a short illness, at Bignell's Hotel, Miss Maryanne Goggin, late of Limerick, Ireland.—Melbourne Argus.
At Prior Park-terrace, Clonmel, John O'Brien, Esq.
At Dungarvan, Edward Usher, son of the late Richard C. La Barte, Esq., of Clonmel.
At Highlands, near Nenagh (the residence of his father, the Rev. W. B. Fry), Dr. John Fry, Medical Officer of Ballyfarnon Dispensary, county Roscommon.
At Ardcroney, near Nenagh, Mr. Darius Hogan.
At Johnstown, near Nenagh, Mr. Martin Hogan.
At Listowel, on Wednesday last, Sister Teresa, Superiress of the Convent.
At Milltown, county Kerry, Mary Anne, daughter of Mr. Abraham Huggard.
At Nelson-street, Tralee, Wm. M. Mulhinoch, Esq.
At Castle-street, Tralee, Mr. George Goodman.
At Stephen's-green, Dublin, Mrs. Henry O'Hara, late of Belgrave-place, Cork.
At Lower Mount-street, Dublin, Kate, daughter of Patrick Ryan, Esq.
At Monkstown, county Dublin, Z. D. Williams, Esq.
At Lefkipp, Eliza Mary, wife of George Kilbride, Esq., formerly of the General Post Office, Dublin.
At Belfast, Rebecca, daughter of John Fraser, Esq., County Surveyor of Cavan.
At Belfast, Mary, widow of the late Geo. E. Carter, Esq.
At Derrigahy, county Antrim, Sarah Hutchinson, daughter of James Tait, Esq.
At Granard, county Longford, James B. Kirk, son of John Kirk, Esq.
At Canon-hill, London, Vice-Admiral Henry Francis Greville, C.B.
At Four Oaks Park, Warwickshire, Sir William Edmund Cradock Hartopp, Bart.
At Buxton, Derbyshire, John Evans, Esq., Q.C.
At Stanford Court, Worcestershire, Edith, daughter of Sir Thomas Winnington, Bart., M.P.
On the voyage home from Malta, Alfred Grenville Howard, son of Lord and Lady Alfred Hervey, and Midshipman on board H.M.S. Revenge.
At Barbadoes, the Hon. J. H. Nurse, a member of H.M.'s Council in that Island.

EVERY ALIENATED THROUGHOUT THE SALES WILL BY STRICTLY UNRESERVED When a General Clearance THE NEXT SUNDAY Will be held SATURDAY, NOVEMBER When a very Large Collection of property will be brought Sale to commence

It must be distinctly understood that the condition of Unreserved Sale property will be received.

Payments will be made with Sale.

The attendance of parties for sale is in all instances may be convenient, that they impartially these sales are conducted. Country Buyers will at these very desirable effects for sale occasions. They will have an opportunity of inspection, and for a moderate price have safely packed and delivered Canal Stores.

Valuation made for Probate Terms.

Auctions attended in town and Auctions and Produce Sales by Policies of Assurance, Ireland, Lands, Reversionary and other the same unremitting attention October 22.

Landed Estates

GENERAL NOTICE

In the Matter of FRANCIS ROSE, of Oah County of Clare,

Owns Ex-parte and THE Court having ordered the Columnsbeg, Gortnacallan, neskehy, otherwise Ballyculnensbeg, containing fifty-seven measure, situate in the Barony of Limerick. All parties are hereby required to take Notice duly verified, with the Clerk Dated this 31st day of August R. DE

JOHN ELLEN Dublin, Sol of the Sale.

Oct. 22.