

tion, and in drawing of good taste and good perhaps doing some the offence. I cannot ent can emanate from g controversy going on of railways on the one houses on the other.— nce that owners or oc- most unjustly driven nilly, often suffering d personal comfort ; r compensation for this it surveyors who assess at railway companies ; pensation is frequently duals to play at ; and pointed by the Board of same men who are eu- duced in favour of, the many other facts which v that we require some ch cases—we want, in sent the parties to these d the companies have it clared, in petty sessions, enalty of £5 on any per- id also, the full penalty llowed to roam at large, ed, as it is useless to say old weather.

agraph from the Cork of the s.s. Etna from y and gentleman—her tender Arran Castle, to be in the Etna.— search was made for the d, and, against will and ender. No sooner had t discussion begun, the best endeavours to abuse ntleman was no other with some £1,500, and ho had travelled from n—"not for him," she or her money."—They igamists!

SNIPS.—There has been if the Mestrs. S. and T. Enniskillen, a crop of fty tons per acre. A at the residence of Mr. is of the green topped id, when taken from the referred to were grown re, and the crop is the of in the neighbourhood .—Derry Sentinel.

line Susan, daughter of J. H. Elwes, Esq., of Colesborne Park. At West Cowes, Isle of Wight, the Rev. Arthur Watson, son of the Rev. Fisher Watson, late Vicar of Lancing, Sussex, to Caroline Gertrude, daughter of the late Robert White, Esq., of Egypt House, West Cowes.

DEATHS.

At his residence, Cloughmarold, on the 10th inst., Richard Maunsell, Esq., third son of George M. Maunsell, Esq., of Ballywilliam, in this county.

In Paris, on his way home from India, on the 10th instant, William C. Purdon, Esq., Lieutenant Rifle Brigade, eldest son of the late Simon George Purdon, Esq., D.L., Tinerana, county Clare.

At 29, George-street, aged 68 years, Catherine, widow of the late Mr. John Goggin, confectioner. She only survived her deceased husband three weeks.

This morning, in Catherine-street, of consumption, aged 13 years, Isabella, the beloved daughter of Lieutenant and Adjutant Cotter, 2nd Battalion 3rd Buffs.

On the 11th inst., at the house of her nephew, P. R. Verlin, Esq., Broad-street, Mary, relict of the late John Humphrys, Esq., of this city.

On the 6th inst., at Pallaskenry Cottage, the Rev. Thomas Shanahan, P.P. of Kildimo and Pallaskenry, whose useful ministry for a period of twenty-six years endeared him to the parishioners at large, without distinction of religion. He was a priest of unassuming manner, kind and good to the poor, and a friend to those in adversity.

At Lloydsborough, near Templemore, John Lloyd, Esq.

At Middleton, county Cork, Joseph Barry, Esq., son of the late Edmond Barry, Esq., of Dundulerick, same county.

At South Mall, Cork, S. Henry Hobart, M.B.

At Wellington Lodge, St. Luke's, Cork, Mr. Thos. Kearns, senior.

At Kingstown, the Rev. Jas. Patterson, Wesleyan Minister.

At Mountpleasant-square, Dublin, Thomas Henshaw, Esq., merchant.

At Middle Gardiner-street, Dublin, Isabella, wife of James Hawkins, Esq.

At Lower Gardiner-street, Dublin, Patrick Byrnes, Esq., R.H.A., architect.

At Abbeyville, Wicklow, Jane, wife of Dr. Banks, Physician to the Wicklow Union.

At Dargan-terrace, Bray, county Wicklow, Caroline, wife of B. Clifford Lloyd, Esq., Q.C., and daughter of Wm. Brooke, Esq., Master in Chancery.

At Bray, Jane, relict of the late Andrew Clokey, Esq., of North Circular-road, Dublin.

At Westland-row, Dublin, Margery, daughter of the late Cuthbert Hornidge, Esq., Russellstown, county Wicklow.

At Longwood-avenue, Mrs. Charlotte Pierce, relict of the late James Pierce, Esq., Ordnance Office, Lower Castle Yard, Dublin.

At Great Britain-street, Dublin, Mr. Michael Ryan.

At Cook-street, Dublin, Thomas Seery, Esq., of the Sally Park Paper Mills, Clondalkin.

At Hampstead Heath, John Rundle, Esq., M.P. for Tavistock.

At Park-street, Grosvenor-square, London, Elizabeth Stephenson Phillpotts, daughter of the Lord Bishop of Exeter.

Major-General John Walpole, Royal Engineers, son of the late Hon. Robert Walpole.

At Anglesea Lodge, near Gosport, Major-General William Biddlescomb Marlow, Royal Engineers.

At Thurston, near Bury St. Edmund's, Admiral Sir Wm. Hall Gage, G.C.B. and G.C.H., Admiral of the Fleet.

At Bath, Malcolm B. Purcell, Esq., Captain 99th Regt., son of Vice-Admiral Purcell.

At Bath, Major-General Robert Henry Wynyard, C.B., Colonel of the 98th Regt.

At Gloucester-terrace, London, Laura, daughter of the late W. Morse, Esq., Coldstream Guards.

At Weeting Rectory, Norfolk, Edward B. Harman, Esq., M.D., of Pembridge-place, Baywater, London.

At Melbourne, Robert Hugh Emery, son of the late John Claudius Emery, Esq., of Lloyd's.

At Calcutta, Harry, son of Captain H. P. Hurford, 38th Regiment.

highly recommended; has long charges; will be found strictly so his duties; no objection to tow travel; age 23.

Any commands to C. D., Cruir or Club House, Ennis, will be att January 12.

DE LA RU
PLAYING CA
NEW SEASON'S F
GU & C

Dec. 29.

General Ord

THE PROVINCIA
50, CATHERINE-STREET
AN Ordinary on Business I
Sundays at 5 o'
E. SH

March 24, 1863.

Life Assur

SCOTTISH PROVIDENT INSTITUTED
HEAD OFFICE: 14, ST. A EDINBURG
DUBLIN BRANCH: 16 C
INCOME in Year 1861 ...

THE REALIZED FUND
1861, arising entirely fr
Contributions of the Members, being an increase of £72,000 in
THE ADVANTAGE whic
to good lives is, that for the sam an Assurance may be had from after many years' accumulation Thus a Policy for £1,200 or the same yearly premium usual
only; entitled, moreover, to sha business, free of any abatement prietary. Policies originally f already been increased to £1,300 instances to £1,780.

EXAMPLES OF ANNUAL PRE
£100 AT DEA

Age 20	25	30	35
£1 15 8	£1 18 0	£2 1 6	£2 6 10

Copies of the Annual Report, may be had on application to JAMES WATS Manager,
William Ly
AGENT,
44, UPPER CECI
LIMERIC