Rsq., Blennerville, Tralce.
On Tuesday morning, in Barrington's Hospital, Head-Constable Edward Lynch, formerly stationed at Bruff, and subsequently at Abbeyfeale. He was a man of superior intellect, and a most active and efficient public servant. This poor fellow died of cancer in the stomach, which did not allow food, either in a solid or liquid state to remain on it; exhaustion was the result, and death followed. It is stated that he has left a large family unprovided for, and it is to be hoped that those who command the force will look after the orphans of a truly efficient servant.
