

ought to be executed as ) It would not be pose that there was
 on upon the subject,
 he (Mr. O'Donnell)
 reponderance of pub-r although numerous of penal punishment
 a single meeting had that fact was in it-he abolition of capital
 w he would inform the he matter was founded he administration of conviction was that obstruct the ends of a very object it had in ist devised. In many of the offender (hear,
 that a few facts were
 , and accordingly he only to illustrate his ar, hear.) Mr. O'Donnishment produces a ora to convict in cases t of their finding, and well sustained by evi-
 en a doubt may exist
 hough there may be no e accused, so that even
 and the guilty escape ;
 cases in which the ins have been hundreds anocent have suffered,
 through several cases knowledge in which ough the repugnance of would follow. He conn of death would not
 He said a gentleman
 day, and said to him—sh hanging, as the just he landlords in Ireland contended against that,
 anant was bettered, and andered secure to him, nd no murders. There one in Switzerland—
 n the Irish peasant left America, there were no hand. No ; because in r and his property and to the caprice of a landnnell concluded by conneralized and degraded end for which it was a the fair execution of the first resolution, in a h, during the delivery of ep stealing, cow stealing, aling, for which people lays, had become almost repealed which inflicted r ; so that now the field

 he fesses were trodden ack cattle could roam at any one who would now

John Stewart, jun., Esq., Luskey, to Martins, daughter of James Atkin, Esq., Edymore.
 In Belfast, Mr. Edward Higginson, to Jane, daughter of Mr. Samuel Collier.
 In Londonderry, Mr. Thomas Hegarty, to Miss Mary Anne Pinkerton.
 At St. Pancras, London, Captain Strickland, 1st Regiment
 Warwickshire Militia, to Frances Annie, daughter of Frederick Pattison, Esq., of Montague-place, Russell-square.

DEATHS.

Yesterday, at his residence, Ballykilty, near Quin, county Clare, after a short illness, very sincerely regretted, Fits-gerald Blood, Esq., a gentleman highly respected for worth and integrity. He was a kind landlord and extensive agri-culturalist.
 At Turtulla, Thurles (the seat of her brother-in-law, N. V.
 Maher, Esq.), Honoria Dorothea, relict of Lieutenant Cope Hardy.
 At Woodview, county Cork, Eliza, sister of Denis M'Cartie, Esq., J.P.
 At his residence, Clare Grove, county Dublin, Edmund
 Floyd Cynpoge, Esq., J.P.
 At Leinster-road, Dublin, John M. Maguire, Esq., for many years connected with the literary staff of Saunders's News-Letter, and for the last few years sub-editor of that paper.
 At Royal-terrace, Kingstown, Eliza, widow of the late Rev.
 John Stack, formerly Fellow of T.C.D.
 In Dublin, Peter John, son of the late Peter Cunningham, Esq., of that city.
 At St. Vincent's, Castleknock, near Dublin, the Rev. Patk.
 Kearney, C.M.
 At Esky, county Sligo, the Very Rev. P. Flannelly, P.P.
 At the Mause, Randalstown, county Antrim, Anna, wife of the Rev. James B. Huston.
 At Larne, county Antrim, Anne, widow of the late W. W.
 M'Neill, solicitor.
 At Ballymonee, co. Antrim, Adam Thompson, Esq., M.D.
 At Henry-street, Belfast, Mr. John Doody.
 At Old Lodge-road, Belfast, Lizzie, daughter of Mr. Henry M'Canley.
 At Millvale, Newry, Jane, daughter of Henry G. Gray, Esq., M.D.
 At Kilkullan Globe, Maria, daughter of the Rev. W. N.
 Sherrard.
 At Omagh Barracks, Rachel, wife of Mr. John Core.
 At Longwood, county Meath, Mr. Patrick Downes.
 At Market-hill, county Armagh, Mrs. H. Pollard.
 At Armagh, Mary, relict of the late Mr. Hugh Donnelly.
 At Ballymacash, Lisburn, James, son of Mr. Wm. Wilson.
 At Liverpool, whilst bathing, James, son of the late Mr.
 James M'Mullin, of Dublin.
 At East Mealey, Surrey, Mr. William Charles Barker, late of Dublin.
 At Eaton-square, London, Major-General Sir Alexander
 Murray Talloch, K.C.B.
 At Shooter's-hill, Major-General Noel Thomas Lake, C.B., late Colonel of the Royal Horse Artillery.
 At Goudhurst, Kent, Richard White, Esq., retired solicitor.
 At Barnet, Herts, the Rev. J. D. Thompson.
 At Turnham-green, London, Marie Antoinette, widow of the late William Raife, Esq., of Brentford, Surgeon to the Royal Westminster Militia.
 At St. Helier's, Jersey, William Cottrell, son of William Scholefield, Esq., M.P.
 At Friarn House, Bridgwater, Edward Sealy, Esq., J.P. for the county of Somerset.
 At Park-road, Clapham, London, Wm. Soitau, Esq.
 At Malvern, John Martin, Esq., of Whetton House, Leicestershire.
 At Brighton, Anne, widow of the late George Dames, Esq., of Forest-gate, West Ham, Essex.
 At Georgetown, Demerara, Francis Wollaston Hutton, Ensign 21st Royal North British Fusiliers, son of the Rev. H.
 F. Hutton, Rector of Spidlington, Lincolnshire.
 At Bathurst, Australia, the Rev. John Grant, D.D., Dean of Bathurst, and head of the Roman Catholic Church in Western Australia.
 At New-Orleans, Mary Brewster, wife of William Logan, a native of the county Limerick.
 At New York, Mrs. Thomas Morris, formerly of Rathkeale, county Limerick.
 At Halifax, Nova Scotia, Mr. Walter Mauger, a native of Fethard, county Tipperary.
 At New York, Mr. Edward F. Moriarty, a native of Dingle, county Kerry.

THE HOUSE, No. 9, CHAI
 LIMERICK,
 WITH STORE AT RERE, well adapt requiring spacious accommodation.
 Store, 36 feet long, and three fl
 Dwelling by a Closet and Yard per annum. Application to EDWARD HAI
 Scottish

Feb. 25.

CAHERBANE, COUN

TO BE LET, from the 1st of terms as may be agreed on,
 Garden, Pleasure Grounds, and 2
 of CAHERBANE, the property
 CREAGH, 1st Royal Regiment.
 The House is commodious, and Rooms, Drawing-room, six Bed-r rooms, School-room, Kitchen, S and Pantry. The Out offices co horses, Coach-house, Straw-house &c. &c. There is a large and w the incoming Tenant can be acc land, in a short time.
 To a party requiring a gentle above is a most desirable one, s of a sporting country, and with Station, Ennis and Limerick Ra
 For further particulars a
 JOSEPH COFFEE, Waver
 Fergus.

Coal! Coal!!

WILLIAM
 Wellesey Bridge
 OFFERS very Best ORRE quality, at 22s. per Ton
 Best WIGAN COAL, 18s. 1
 Delivered to any part He daily expects a Cargo of END, same Shipper as last general satisfaction.
 London and Lancashire
 Scottish Amicable Lif
 May 7.

The English, Scottish, Chartered

PAID UP CAPITAL
 DEPOSITS received for f lowing rates of Interest, quarterly if desired, viz:— 4 per cent. per annum, st notice of withdrawal.
 5 " " " "
 Or for One Year
 Notice of withdrawal may
 By order of the C
 HEN

73, Cornhill, London, E.C.