ped as to emerge from es to life. It was also nirty or thirty-five per No time was lost in The Norfolk ova.

Railway Pier at ament having granted Victoria, she steamed and anchored alongnkin, anxious to assist na in his power, had no had the tackles rigged, commenced, the crew villing hand, and comperintending the tranfer vork was carried on till ay light next morning. before the last of the board the Victoria, about two bay Hobart Town, where the bonds prepared river Derwent. The a on the 20th instant. ) hear immediately that ent has been brought t least, as the transfer caught in the British The space in the and the ice necessary the centre of the ship,

l'in the bottom of the

them, so that the cold

ce kept the moss in

of the strange freight;

mooth water along the staturated. In the

of the lower hold s of Melbourne has been barles Kean. The preouncil chamber of the the occasion with ladies past one o'clock, Mr. and nent, amhi the applause escorted to the dais by The address was preserved that he regarded he most gratifying incipative of Australia, and was proud to have the re three-hundreth natal matist-on a spot which, city, was a quarter of ness - a fitting compliitizens of Melbourne to erpreters. match, which com-,

Melbourne ground, ter-

, and it was found inveather, to prevent the

The Eleven completed

MARRIAGES.

Gordon, Royal Armiery, of a daughters.

At the Cathedral, Waterford, Edward, son of the late Samuel Croathwalt, Esq., of Bagnalstown, to Maria Eliza-beth, daughter of the late Captain Henry Bolton, R.N.

At Monkstown Church, county Dublin, Thomas Robinson, Esq., of Derrydogher, county Longford, to Anna Louisa. daughter of the late John Arthur, M.D., Deputy Inspector General of Hospitals.

In Kilkenny, the Rev. Wm. Gamley, senior curate of St. Steven's parish of Old Ford, London, to Kathleen, daughter of the late John Goslin, Esq., of Swift's Heath, county Kil-

At Dundalk, the Rev. John Wm. Ellison, of Castlebellingham, to Margaret, daughter of Thomas Bradford, Esq., of ham, to Margaret, daughter of Thomas Diadrota, Esq., Carnbeg, Dundsik.

At St. George's, Hanover-square, London, Captain Edward Southwell Sotheby, C.B., Naval A.D.C. to the Queen, son of the late Admiral Thomas and Lady Mary Anne Sotheby, to Lucy Elizabeth, daughter of the late Henry John Adeane, Esq., of Babraham, Cambridgeshire.

At the Cathedral Church, Exeter, the Rev. Charles Stirling, B.A., of Reading, son of Captain Stirling, R.N., to Mary Elizabeth, daughter of the late Joseph Holden Turner, Edit, of Montagunbase, Russell-square, London.

of Montagu-place, Russell-square, London.

At the Collegiate Church, St. Bee's, the Rev. James Hare Wake, Vicar of Sutton-on-the-Forest, Yorkshire, to Elizabeth, daughter of the late Major Spedding, of Summergrove, Chiabeths. Cumberland.

At Barnesley, near Circucester, the Rev. Charles Berners Penrice, Rector of Plumstead Parva, Norfolk, to Catherine. daughter of the Rev. George Ernest Howman, Rector of Barnesley, and Hon. Canon of Bristol.

DEATHS.

At his clerical residence, St. John's-square, of fever, contracted in discharge of his religious duties, the Rev. Michael O'Carroll, C.C., of the parish Cathedral, very much regretted.

At Knockaderra, aged 65 years, Mary, the beloved wife of Mr. Robert Quaid, deeply regretted by a sorrowing family and numerous friends. Through life she was respected for her humanity and benevolence to the poor.

At Carrigboy, Bantry, county Cork, Elizabeth Susana, wife of Harmer Bond Atkins, Esq., M.D.
In Dublin, on the 20th inst., Mary, seventh daughter of the late Francis Christopher Bland, Esq., of Derryquin Castle, county Karry of Ireland. At Monkstown, county Dublin, Anne Ellis, relict of Wm.

At Upper Erne-street, Dublin, William Shanley, Esq., of Killashee, county Longford, formerly of the Ordnance Survey, and for the last eighteen years on the Staff of the Valuation county Kerry.

H. Ellis, Esq., LL.D. At Harcourt street, Dublin, Wm. Stewart, Esq., of the Law

Exchequer Office. At Coolcornauck, near Dungarvan, the wife of Edmond

Spratt, Esq.
At Rockville, Merrion-avenue, Dublin, Charles Hopes, Esq., in the 94th year of his age.

At Camden-place, Dublin, Mr. Thomas Hayes.
At New Ross, Mr. John Sherlock.
At Donegall-square, East, Belfast, John Henry Ivers, son of the Rev. Adrian Henry Lutman.

At Upton-street, Belfast, Letitia, wife of Mr. Daniel M'Fall.
At Bussell street, Belfast, Mr. Felix Quin.
At Belfast, Mr. Hamilton Dobbin. At Park-street, Grosvenor-square, London, the Hon. Frederick Keppel Craven. At Brighton, Henry Gaitskell, Esq., late of H.M.'s Privy Council Office. At the Hague, Jemima Frederica, daughter of the late Vice-Admiral Baron Van Capellan.

At Carbonear, Newfoundland, Alice Dalton, relict of John

Elson, Esq., merchant, a native of Waterford.

At the residence of the Bishop of Brisbane, Queensland, the Rev. John Brakenridge, son of the late John Brakenridge, Esq., of South Parade, Yorkshire.

4, GRUNUTE'S SIREL January 14, 1864.

TURKISH ] MILITARY ROAD;

THESE Baths are now in or four years, and continue the public, as evidenced by the e Book (which lies open for inspe few extracts from which are here

No. 1-I have repeatedly, sin Turkish Bath, pleasantly availed ful and healthy luxury, and on felt myself so refreshingly inv body but also in mind. It gives frame, and must be a powerfu the prevention as well as cure of to which our human frame is lial opinion as a professional man, a

No. 32—I have taken many Tu last few years, both at St. Anne and I cannot call to mind ever able one than I enjoyed this creditable, and the shampooing

No. 58-I have taken nearl this establishment, for the mer and have always experienced a and cheerfulness, such as have 1 of any other agency have nev pooing process, which I have f tively performed by that veteral has added much to my enjoy enjoyed the Bath exceedingly. and the air was pure. I hope t

A. F. No. 96-I have just had a temperature ventilation, &c., desired. C. C.

No. 97-I have taken sever for the past twelve months, s delightful and refreshing. The very great attention paid by the Bath a great luxury, and to all who avail themselves o shampooing are most indefatige to please.

No. 103-I have to expre with the Bath which I have perature was well regulated, t and the attendants as usual m

June 28.