

minister of Dingle, has also been appointed to the adjacent vicarage of Maunhyr and Donquin, on the nomination of Lord Ventry.

The Rev. Arthur N. Wrixon to the sole curacy of Luckross, Killarney. Patron, the Right Hon. Henry Herbert, M.P.

The Bishop of Exeter has refused to consecrate a church in which a small carving of the crucifixion as introduced, he has ordered that it should be completely removed, however beautiful; and has condemned, as very offensive, some remarks made by two clergymen; his lordship has warned his clergy against any approach to any semblance of Romanism, and has acted with the utmost determination.

ANGLO-CONTINENTAL SOCIETY.—The labours of his Society have resulted in the establishment of a Protestant Association in Sicily, the constitution of which is:—1. To maintain the faith as taught by Christ, preached by the Apostles, and transmitted by the Primitive Church. 2. The acceptance of the Canonical Scriptures (Bible) as the rule of faith. 3. The receiving the Apostles, Nicene, and Athanasian Creeds. 4. Communication with other pure churches. 5. Holding two Sacraments. 6. The laity receiving the elements in both kinds. 7. Using the Italian language. The office of the Society is at 19, Pall Mall. Funds are needed, we are sorry to say.

Natal papers just come to hand state that Bishop Colenso is expected out there at the latter end of January.

Rev. T. S. O'Grady, P.P., of Adare, has received from Mrs. DeCourcy O'Grady £100, bequeathed to him by her late deceased husband, to be distributed in charity. Rev. Mr. O'Grady also returns his grateful thanks to Mr. Phillips and the Limerick Steamship Company, who, as a subscription, have given him 15 tons of coal, at a reduction of 2s in the ton, to divide among the poor of Adare.

The Treasurer of the Society of St. Vincent De Paul, thankfully acknowledges £5 from "a friend," (per Captain Gavin) for the funds of that Society.

The Parish Priests of the Diocese of Killaloe are summoned by the Archbishop of Cashel, to assemble at Nenagh, the second week of January, for the election of a Coadjutor Bishop for the Diocese.

The Rev. John Bourke, P.P., Pallaskerry, acknowledges the receipt of £10 from Mrs. Caulfield, per Robert Hunt, Esq., as her Christmas donation to the poor on her estate.

There is no truth in the statement that Sir James Yorke Scarlett is about to return to the command of the south western district at the expiration of his term of service as Adjutant General.—Court Journal.

INDIA.

INDIA OFFICE, DEC. 28.—The following official telegram has been received:—

CALCUTTA, DEC. 12.—The fortress of Dalimkote, Bhootan, was captured, with slight loss of two officers and 50 men. Position described as very strong. An accidental explosion of powder caused the death of three officers and 77 men.

JOHN REGT., AMHERSTBURGH, 1850.
At Stillorgan, county Dublin, John F. G. Grant, Esq., Lieutenant Royal Navy, to Eliza Jane, daughter of William Pugh Gardner, Esq., of Mornhill, Stillorgan.

In London, Charles Augustus Mornewick, of Camdentown, to Letizia Lacy, daughter of the late Edward Lacy Reardon, Esq., of Clonmel, county Tipperary.

At the Roman Catholic Church, Rugby, J. A. Fox, Esq., of the General Post-office, London, to Clara Elfrida, daughter of the late Count Wratislaw, of Rugby, Warwickshire.

At Uitenhage, South Africa, John Richard Kelsall, Esq., 2nd Battalion 11th Regt., son of the late Colonel Joseph Kelsall, formerly commanding the 70th Regt., to Jane Elizabeth Amelia, daughter of Captain John Henry Hartley Boys, late of the 75th Regt.

At Launceston, Tasmania, William Robert, son of Mr. Francis M'Comas, formerly of Dublin, to Elizabeth Christina, daughter of the late Peter Clyne, Esq., of Launceston.

DEATHS.

At her residence, North Strand, on Friday evening, 23rd inst., Miss Emily O'Donnell, aged 26 years, eldest daughter of the late Stephen O'Donnell, Esq., of this city.

On the 28th inst., at his residence, Tipperary, Thomas Travers Adams, Esq., J.P., of Annagarra, county Limerick, aged 74 years, deeply regretted by a numerous circle of relatives and friends.

In Holles-street, Dublin, after a long and painful illness, Jane, relict of Major Henry Ellis, late 93rd Highlanders, greatly beloved and lamented by her family.

At Douglas, Isle of Man, aged 96, Frances H. H. Ormsby, relict of Major Ormsby, and daughter of the late Right Rev. Wm. Gore, Lord Bishop of Limerick.

On the 29th inst., aged 28, Mary, the beloved wife of Mr. W. Butler, victualler, 52, Thomas-street.

At Lemlara, county Cork, G. Standish Barry, Esq., D.L., formerly M.P. for that county.

Suddenly, at Charleville, Sub-Inspector Curtis.

At Blackrock, Cork, Mrs. Ellen Drummond.

Ellen, relict of the late Henry Cross, Esq., of Ballyshoneen House, county Cork.

At Botanic-road, Cork, Mr. Jeremiah M'Carthy, of Kenmare, county Kerry.

At Henry-street, Cork, Eleanor, daughter of the late Morgan Skiddy, Esq.

At Blackrock, county Dublin, Mary, widow of the late Jas. Barbor, Esq., of Moss Vale, county Longford.

At Upper Castle-street, Tralee, Mr. Thomas Jeffcott.

At Great Brunswick-street, Dublin, Mr. James O'Reilly.

At Seapoint House, Clontarf, Matthew, son of Mr. Matthew Mooney.

At Glenageary Hill, Kingstown, Nicola Russell, daughter of the late Rev. Christopher Russell, and niece of the late Judge Crampton.

At Martello-terrace, Kingstown, Esther Eleanor, wife of Michael Wm. De Courcy, Esq.

At King-street, St. James's-square, London, Major-General Sir Charles Hopkinson, C.B., late of the Madras Army.

At Regent's-park, London, Mary, daughter of the late Lieutenant-General Fanshawe, C.B.

At Old Bond street, London, Sir Wm. Berkeley Call, Bart., of Whiteford House, Cornwall.

At Burnham, Norfolk, Mary Anne, daughter of the late Captain Sir Wm. Bolton, R.N.

At Brighton, Lieut. Murray Wm. Daniell, Royal Bengal Artillery.

At Hillingdon, Middlesex, Algernon Frederick Greville, Esq., late of the Grenadier Guards, and Bath King of Arms.

At the Rectory, Great Stanmore, N.W., A. Bernays, Ph.D., late Professor of the German Language and Literature at King's College, London.

At Haseley Rectory, near Warwick, Stuart James, son of the Rev. W. T. Hadow, late Assistant-Superintendent of the Bengal Military Police.

At Jamaica, Staff Assistant-Surgeon Thos. Pattison Flynn, son of the late Rev. Daniel Flynn, of Harcourt-street, Dublin.

At Moulton, Mary, wife of Captain Hobbs, 89th Regt., and daughter of the Rev. Henry Murphy, Rector of Dromara, county Down.

At Milan, George William Bacon, Esq., late Judge of the Bengal Presidency.

At Auckland, New Zealand, John Guilding, Esq., J.P.