

lady Viscountess Com-reading world a very circulation on "Our space at present for id truth-loving picture olous coxcomb and the ty call "old maids."
 t declares old maiden-ng if it be just and uno farther, and boldly
 t helpful, and earnest, iety are what foolish
 at is women who,
 ave never married—
 the cant to ridicule, own settlement in life
 devotion was perhaps a early life no costly n holy duties—it was on and to supersede enerous child from t that the future must rest that engrosses the
 , and this dreary pror tenderness—unselfish ances, she is here more ny other position. In r husband who is her pport till death—to care and affection
 deration of future
 ncourages; the patient nd night, the invalid
 ives in the purest love, f self—but the highest ields in purity only to who has sisters and nerous example of the sound judgment and here.—Athenaeum.

r has been received in mness, announcing the am Carr, which landed schooner Matilda, of an given up as lost. The s the latter end of De-othing was heard of her when she was fallen in Adam Carr, bound from two of the crew of the le condition, both from the other four were fast or fellows were at once s, and as they required e they were landed at ws lived so long in such exhaustion, is a miracle.
 n it appears that 6,803
 the workhouses of Englber was 7,738, and in

Maher, P.P., Maurice Kirby, Esq., Knocklong Cottage, cousin to Patrick Synan Kirby, Esq., to Kate Mary, fourth daughter of Edward Finucane, Esq., Carrickparson. [No cards sent.] At Emly, James Gerald Barry, Esq., to Kate Teresa, eldest daughter of John O'Brien, Esq., Emly.
 At Mount-street Church, Dublin, Peter Blake, Esq., J.P., Crumlin, county Galway, to Agnes Mary, daughter of Cornelius Creagh, Esq., of Dangan, county Clare.
 At St. Nicholas's Church, Cork, the Rev. Arthur D. Macnamara, B.A., Chaplain of the Cork Episcopal Free Church, to Mary Ellen, daughter of the late Simeon H. Hardy, Esq., Medical Staff.
 Wm. F. Leader, Esq., son of Thomas Leader, Esq., of Ash Grove House, county Cork, to Maria, daughter of Francis Bennett, Esq., Strand House, Clonakilty.
 At Christ Church, Cork, John Lovell, of Cork, to Emma Jennetta, daughter of the late William Watts O'Malley, of Heathmount, Castletown-Berehaven, county Cork.
 At St. Michan's R.C. Church, Dublin, Wm. Molony, Esq., of Thurles, to Delia Fanny, daughter of the late Thomas Lidwell, Esq., of Richmond Villa, Templemore.
 At St. Michan's R.C. Church, Francis Mulligan, Esq., of the Little-green, Dublin, to Anne, daughter of the late Patrick Smyth, Esq., merchant, of Linenhall-street, Dublin.
 At Clontibret, the Rev. Thomas Lucas Scott, Incumbent of Carrick, to Fanny Maria Russell, daughter of the Venerable the Archdeacon of Clogher.
 At Clifden, county Galway, the Rev. N. Foster, Rector of Ventry, to Mary Jane, daughter of the late Dr. Peebles, of Dublin.
 At the Roman Catholic Church, Maryborough, Owen Reilly, Esq., Veterinary Surgeon, Navan, to Kate Mary, daughter of James Lalor, Esq., Dunamace Cottage, Maryborough.
 At Calcutta, Capt. Thomas Edward Vander Gucht, Bengal
 Staff Corps, to Judith Emilia, daughter of the late William Tillotson, Esq., barrister-at-law, London.

DEATHS.

This morning, at her residence, the Crescent, Limerick,
 Miss Elizabeth Sayers, very much regretted.
 On the 4th inst., at Hotwells, Clifton, in the 61st year of her age, Harriet Anne, widow of the late David Robert Ross, Esq., of Rostrevor, county Down, and daughter of the late Hon. and Right Rev. Edmond Knox, Bishop of Limerick.
 On the 6th inst., at his residence, Anne-street, Clonmel, after a long and painful illness, borne with christian fortitude, Charles Acheson, Esq., senior, deeply regretted by all who knew him.
 At Riverston, Nenagh, in her 84th year, Frances, widow of the late Rev. James Poe, Rector of Nenagh.
 At Woodside, Cork, Henrietta Margaret, wife of Horatio Townsend, Esq.
 At Kenilworth-square, Dublin, Joseph Davis, Esq.
 At Heytesbury-street, Dublin, Zachariah, son of the late Wm. Bell, Esq., of Bellview, Abbeyleix.
 At Monkstown, Dublin, Robert George Nicholson, Esq., of Donacloy, county Down.
 At Besboro'-parade, Rathmines, Mrs. Bridget Burke, relict of James Burke, late of Sweetmount, county Dublin, Esq.
 At the residence of her father, Frances Handcock, wife of the Rev. J. Harward J. Handcock, Incumbent of Woodlands, Kent, and daughter of the Rev. N. Devereux, D.D., of Ballyrankin House, county Wexford.
 At Ballyroan, Queen's County, P. W. Dalton, Esq., M.D.
 At Willmount, county Kilkenny, John M. Briscoe, Esq.
 At Beverley, Lieut.-Colonel Thomas Hutton, late of the 4th Dragoon Guards.
 Catherine, Dowager Lady Cholmeley, relict of the late Sir Montague Cholmeley, Bart., Easton Hall.
 At Valetta, Malta, Major Robert Dillon, late 32nd Regt., son of the late Sir John Dillon, Bart., of Lismullen, county Meath.
 At the house of the British Consul, Rosario, South America, Mrs. Frances Hearne, late of Lady's Island, county Wexford.
 At Paris, Elizabeth, wife of the Comte de Prebois, Lieut.- Colonel d'Etat. Major in the French Army, and daughter of the late James Law, Esq., Bengal Civil Service.
 At Calcutta, suddenly, Lieut. Walter Landor Dickens, 26th Native Infantry.

HAVING been appointed to receive all Subscriptions and of the above Society, and to cari-dence in connection with the Fi-in the room of the Rev. W. N. consequence of illness, I shall all friends, who have not as yet p-tions for the past year, and to Branch Associations, to forward as possible, in order that I may c-the year 1863, preparatory to the General Meeting.

CHARLES WAE
 Kilmurry J
 8th February, 1864.

FOREIGN WINES A
 FOR 1864.
 JAMES F

BEGS to bring before the Pub of FOREIGN WINES A cially selected for the present and well-matured Stock, which h
 CUSTOMS BONDED STORE

- Sherrys, Pale, Brown, and Gold
- Sherrys, Pale, Brown, and Gold
- Garvey's Celebrated V. P., Fin-ported,
- Sundiman's Port, 5 years in Wo
- Offley and Co., Port, 3 years in
- Port, other Shippers, ...
- Claret (Violets), Bordeaux, ...
- Clarets (Violets) Ditto, ...
- Sparkling Champagnes, ...
- Sparkling Moselle, ...
- Burgundy (Still) ...
- Hockhimer (Still) ...
- Sautern (Still) ...
- Henasay's Brandy, 5 years in Bo
- Gauter Freirs' Do., into Dozen (
- Single I
- Holland's Geneva, in Dozen Cas
- Single I

The above Wines and Spiri
 DIRECT by the SUBSCRI
 CLASS SHIPPERS, and car
 Quality and Moderation in Pri house in the Trade. GENTI Bottling their own Wines can the original Packages, as they ne Vaults.

JAMES I
 DIRECT IMPORTER OF
 AND SPIRI
 4, GEORGE'S STREET
 January 14, 1864.