

jury as I have the honour to address, or as ever assisted a coroner in the discharge of his duty. I would be very remiss, indeed, if I did not allude to the services of Denis Quin, who deserves, at least, the thanks of the jury.

Mayor—And also that respectable young man, Mr. Collins, of the firm of Messrs. Tait and Co., who exerted himself as much as man could do; he also had several young men of that respectable establishment working at the engine. I must also observe that Mr. Palmer, also of that establishment, exerted himself in a most praiseworthy manner.

The Mayor suggested that ladders ought to be kept in every insurance office in the city.

The Coroner agreed with the Mayor, for fatal as that fire was, what would it be if it occurred in the middle of the night.

The jury then returned the following verdict—“That the said several persons came to their deaths by suffocation, from the burning of the house in which they resided, and in which other families also resided, on the 8th day of April instant. We also beg to record our approbation of the exceedingly praiseworthy manner in which the Constabulary exerted themselves, also in approbation of the exertions of Denis Quin, Messrs. Collins, Palmer, of the firm of Messrs. Tait and Co., and also of the praiseworthy conduct of Palmer, of the sun office.”

The jury finally said that they would respectfully recommend Denis Quin to the Corporation for some token of their approbation of his conduct.

The jurors were then discharged.
