

the bed and soil and waters of r. Doyle) felt very strongly wish that it were put in a law solemnly discussed and witnesses, and Mr. Ellard ly.

consider the case and after turned into Court, when the defendants, said that he had a form and that was to impose a but not indeed to as great carried out, would warrant se the Magistrates had taken hole case and of the position endants) stood, but in any come before the Bench the luenced by any such consid-ity would be imposed. The ented this state of things, tive; they did not make the administer it as they found it been violated they should d, no matter how harrowing be to do so. The sentence e defendants be fined £1 each or one month's imprisonment. r cases of no public importhich the Court adjourned.

RENT CHARGE.

THE EDITOR.
the Irish Church is about to liament, it would be well if nown how the distress which then then the landlord, acts clergy. L.L. D. in the Irish ays the clergy can recdver ced "rent charge" from the sitor to apply for a Receiver be difficult to persuade any rights in this way, let us hope ints that there are Landlords clergy their only means of

VERBUM SAT.

nyss, the member for Fifeshire in the House of Commons. ch and McCann have been ar-b-Inspector Garroary, on a s of an illegal society, and hav-imed district. When arrested, eir beds. They were brought l., at the police-office, and resed for their appearance. hich reached Greencastle last as brought mails from New The news is not important.— eral Lee is about to break up Rapidan, and again move in n the conjecture that the Cone an advance into Pennsyla fact, a repetition of the game possibly, with the chances

Captain H. M. 64th Regt., youngest son of the late of Kilballyowen, county of Limerick, to Charlotte, third daughter of the late George Powell Haughton, Esq., of Kilmannock House, county Wexford. After the ceremony, the bride and bridegroom returned to the residence of Sir John Stuart, Bart. (the bride's brother-in-law), where the parties assembled were most hospitably entertained at a déjeuner, and in the evening a ball took place to commemorate the nuptials.

At St. Peter's Church, Dublin, Gerald Fitzgibbon, jun., Esq., barrister-at-law, to Margaret Anne, daughter of Mr.
Baron Fitzgerald.

In Cork, Thomas E. Crooke, Esq. to Mary, daughter of the late Rev. Edward Hales, Rector of Rossinver, co. Leitrim.

At Monkstown Church, county Dublin, Edward Townsend, Esq., Professor of Civil Engineering, Queen's College, Galway, son of the late Rev. Thomas Townsend, Rector of Mayo, to Judith Eleanor, daughter of John S. Townsend, Esq., of Blessington-street, Dublin, barrister-at-law.

At the parish church of St. Marylebone, Londgn, Wentworth Sturgeon, Esq., of the Inner Temple, barrister-at-law, to Caroline Seymour Burton, widow of the late Stackhouse Burton, Esq., and daughter of Jonathan Sadler, Esq., of Tipperary.

At Bishopwearmouth, the Rev. C. T. Heartley, M.A., Head Master of Bishop Gore's Grammar School, Swansea, to Louisa, daughter of Wm. Nicholson, Esq., J.P., Nicholson House, Sunderland.

DEATHS.

On the 1st inst., at Ballnacourty, Castle Connell, county Limerick, aged 72, Colonel John Vandeleur, late 10th Hussars, deeply and universally regretted. The remains of the lamented Colonel will be interred in Castle Connell churchyard on Wednesday morning.

At Newport, Tipperary, to the inexpressible grief of her family and friends, Anne Laura, eldest daughter of John Fitzgerald, Esq., aged 19 years.

On Friday morning, at the early age of six years, Charles, son of Francis Counihan, Esq., proprietor of the Munster News. The death of this amiable little fellow was the melancholy result of accident; he was playing about in his night clothes, when they caught fire, and before the flames could be extinguished they had laid hold on a vital part, and eventually caused death.

At Kildare-street, Dublin, Philip O'Donnell, Esq., late of Monaghan, son of the late John O'Donnell, Esq., of Newbridge House, Ennis, county Clare.

At St. Patrick's College, Carlow, Francis, second son of D.
J. Hynes, Esq., M.D., Seamount, Kinvara, county Clare.

At Beechpark, county Clare, Mr. Patrick Mungovan, son of the late Mr. Thomas Mungovan.

In New York, Mr. Michael Reidy, for many years the faithful servant of the late James D'Arcy Evans, Esq., of Knockaderry, in this county. While in a foreign land he remembered his own, and left legacies to his relations.

At Shanbally House, Thurles, Michael Masterson, Esq., of the Registry of Deeds Office.

At Claremont, Rathgar, county Dublin, Judith, relict of the late Professor John Smith, Mus. Doc., T.C.D.

At Roseneath Cottage, Armagh, Robert Coote, son of S.
Brown, Esq., LL.D., Inspector of National Schools.

At Clonfin, county Longford, John Thompson, Esq., D.L.
Lieut.-Colonel Edward D'Alton, late of the 83rd Regt.

At Portman-square, London, her Highness the Princess Victoria Gouramma, wife of Colonel John Campbell.

At Torquay, Georgina, daughter of Lieut.-Colonel Ferrier Hamilton, and granddaughter of Charles, second Viscount Gort.

At Windsor, William Galloway, Esq., Bengal Civil Service, son of the late Major-General Sir A. Galloway.

At Boulogne-sur-Mer, Cecil Henry Paulet, 60th Rifles, son of the Rev. Lord Charles Paulet.

At Flower Dale, Grand Lake, N.B., Mr. John Allen Clarke, of Clonakilty, county Cork.

On his passage to Melbourne, Samuel Hall, Esq., late of the 12th Regt., son of the Rev. Charles Hall, Rector of Terrington, Yorkshire.

At Queen's Redoubt, New Zealand, of wounds received in action, Henry Mercer, Captain Royal Artillery, son of the late Edward Smyth Mercer, Colonial Commandant of the Royal Marine Light Infantry.

At Montreal, Margaret, daughter of the late Samuel Shaw, Esq., Royal Engineer Department, and widow of the late John M'Gibbon, Kingston, C.W.

S MANURE, manufac-land Bone and Manure C containing 30 per cent. ording to the analysis of College, Dublin.

Agents—Ryan Bro
April 2.

A LADY who has so is desirous of an e its Vicinity; Advertiser accept an engagement i Family, and has no obje twelve years of age. Con French, Music, Drawing, Address, B. C. D., Post Paper.
April 2.

Wants a
A S LAND-STEWAL Testimonials will t cesses a thorough knowl nected with the duties o theory and practice, and mended.
Address Land-Steward
8, George-street, Limeric
April 2

Land Stewart or A

A Married Man, 40 y has lately done bu flax proprietors in the N Extracts from He understands a regu husbandry, the rearing thorough draining, irriga ing, active, intelligent m sheep, a good accountant and grain crops (includin he is strictly sober, truly culturist and forest hortic any Nobleman or Gentle or re-arrange his demean Please state terms and Address—A. A. Z., 1
Mee

March 29.

Ath
17th SESS
LEC
April 7th—"Irish Orate
E. J. Syn
April 14th—"Moral Cu progress."
Barrister.
April 21st—"Wit, Hun
John Fra
AL
April 2.