

out was soon up again and away. Fox went of the course and was, in consequence, thrown far behind. Top Thorn was the first to show decidedly in front, and when passing over the brow of the hill the first time he led well. The others were closely packed together. When descending the hill two came to grief, but were up and away again simultaneously. Several other casualties occurred on the run down, leaving but twelve horses running at the foot of the hill. Spatchcock made excellent running, and indeed throughout the race. Woodbird appeared to lead for a moment with Kenmare second, Duster occupying a good position in the crowd behind. In that order they past the post on the first round, when four of those who had fallen joined the rear guard. Top Thorn now led up the hill in grand style, with Woodbird second and Duster third, and now the horses and their riders being thoroughly engaged in the contest, strove with might and main to push forward and accomplished some very rapid running. Duster stumbled at the fence on the top of the hill, but speedily recovered. Kenmare lass again took second place and a steeple of whom a good deal had been expected, began to close on her. At the third last fence there was another fall, and one of the horses ran right at the distance post. Top Thorn steadily maintained the lead followed by Kenmare Lass, till Cheerful Boy, whose movements little attention had been previously attracted, but who had been running steadily and judiciously husbanding his strength for the final struggle, made a fine rush to the front and on the flat an home led splendidly. Top Thorn made a spirited effort to keep his position, but owing to circumstances as passed, and beaten by nearly two lengths. Spatchcock came in half a length after the second and the others who had not come to grief in a cluster. The race was, on the whole, as good and as well contested steeple chase as probably ever took place on the Newcastle course, and it is needless to say its progress excited the most intense interest, and the tinner was heartily cheered when he passed the post and returned to the weighing yard. Comparatively little money, however, exchanged hands on the race.

Mr. O'Halloran, who rode Fencer in this race, and who fell at the last fence home, although at the time well placed, as it is called in sporting phraseology, received concussion of the brain, and was consequently rendered insensible, but was almost immediately attended by Doctors Bourke and Bennett, who rendered every medical assistance to set matters right, and had the sufferer removed to his hotel. We are happy to learn that this gentleman is progressing as favourably as can be expected under the circumstances.

 The horses got off well, but had not passed the first post when one of them fell, throwing the rider heavily. At the second fence another of the riders is thrown with such violence as to create doubts for his life. He was not, however, seriously injured, and after a little rest resumed the running. Daw prevailed the even tenor of his way, while the others were baulking and falling at every fence, Red Riding Hood being the only one who seemed to have serious intention of continuing the contest. Daw baulked at the third last fence, and Red Riding Hood went to the front. As soon as Daw had recovered himself, however, his sole opponent was turning back to meet him, but joined issue for a few hundred yards. The race was becoming interesting when Daw again balked, the other jumping well. The aspect of the race, if it deserved the name, was now most ridiculous. Red Riding Hood was the next to baulk and now Daw to resume the lead and retain it till he reached the post in a canter winning. The winner is put up for auction at £50 and after a brisk competition knocked down to the owner at £90. He thus, cows to Mr Mulcahy, of Cork, for £49. Mr Timothy Enright, Castlematrix, Rathkeale, sold five fat Kerrys for £11 11s. each; Mr John Keating, Ardunane, Rathkeale, sold twenty fat cows to Mr. Buckley, Cork, for £16 each; Mr. Massey, Stoneville, sold ten fat cows for £17 7s 6d each to a Cork buyer; bulls were in great demand and a good clearance effected by the Cork buyers; not a beast of the kind remained unsold. Mr. Hugh Murray Gunn, Newcastle, got £13 for a good one; the Hon. Richard O'Grady got £15 for another. Milkers were scarce and in great demand. Mr John B. Hewson, Castleheuwon, got £18 for a fine year old springer from Mr. T. Keily, Croom; Mr. Timothy Enright got £12 for one from Mr. Michael Fitzgibbon. Calves were in good demand, but prices were not so high as heretofore; Mr. Daniel Magnor, Grange, sold twelve for £4 5s each; Mr. Hugh Murray Gunn, Newcastle, sold a score for £3 7s each; Mr. Michael Leahy, solicitor, Newcastle, refused £3 7s 6d. for a score.

In the sheep department there was a vast lot on sale; Mr. Griffin, Askeaton, sold 50 fat sheep to a Cork buyer, for £2 10s each; Mr. John Cussen, Kilmolman, sold 20 to Mr. Mulcahy, Cork, for £2 3s. each; Mr. Jacob Teskey sold 20 to same buyer at £2 each; Mr. Timothy Enright, Castlematrix, Rathkeale, sold 46 fat ones to Mr. Mahony, Cork, for £2 6s 6d each; Mr. Wm. Russell sold 20 belonging to Mrs. Caulfield, Copswood, Palaskerry, for £2 12s 6d to Mr. Casey, Cork; store sheep were in demand; Mr. Marshall, Fedamore, bought a score from the Rev. Mr. Summers, P.P., Cappa, for £1 17s. 6d.; lambs were not in a good demand as heretofore; some good ones brought £1 16s. down to £1 5s.; the pig fair was as abundant as usual; buyers from Limerick and Waterford were also in attendance. In consequence of the recent fall in bacon in the English markets it was very difficult to bring sellers to yield. Very few sales were effected before 9 o'clock, then holders gave way and prices were 8s. per cwt. lower than at the August fair. The highest price given was £2 8s. per cwt. In the horse department there was very little done in consequence of the Limerick races.

There are 84 prisoners in Belfast jail for trial at the ensuing Special Assizes for offences arising out of the riots. The remainder are charged with riot, and with having arms in their possession in a proclaimed district.

Information against all parties implicated in the late Belfast riots are now being facilitated preparatory to the issuing of the intended Special Commission.

THE "GREAT INTERNATIONAL PRIZE FIGHT."—The Monaghan Standard says—We can afford the police some further information on this subject; C-born is a county Armagh man, and is ambitious to have a fight near his native town, Middletown. Should he win the choice of places, Middletown or somewhere near it will be the place. [The Monaghan Standard is not "up." Coburn is a son of the South. If he were a "cold northern," he would not fight without provocation. He'd "cal-clate" first. He is here now taking his training amongst us. We saw him yesterday, and so far as heights, "thews, and sinews go." The South need not be ashamed of him—Ed. L.C.]
