

ended the motion which wing report from the REPORT.

Westminster, S.W., ly 18th, 1864.
ry and Ennis Junction

report that during the r has been actively en-
r undertaking.
al earthwork between ecuted, and more than
e remaining works of ashes, &c., &c., are also manent way have been
of the bridge over the early finished) this part
with uninterruptedly.
heen, Tubber, and Gort
rtractor.

y about one-fourth of e earthwork have been
as been made with the
lemen,
r obedient servant,
G. W. HEMANS.
s ended the business of
l therefore it was dis-

ed John Mooney, from me pigs in a "creel" on
the car and was killed

attern and Sample Post
the 1st of September.
dly made for the laying
's Content Bay, New-
as the landing place on

rsage" has left England
has been taken by her shape of an American
New York. She was specie, and a valuable

eg.—The bagpipe is a sia, though at present s to have been in former
which we have of its ex-ation dating before the relic was discovered in
a. A Hindoo bagpipe, mbatoor, may be seen in don; and a drawing of a
in Sonnerat's "Voyage
it is called tourti. Mr.
hands of the Chinese

At Christ's Church, Rathgar, county Dublin, W. Stirling, Esq., architect, to Margaret Isabella, daughter of W. MacDowell, Esq., merchant, Dublin.

At Tunbridge-wells, the Rev. S. B. Browne, son of the late Ven. J. H. Browne, Archdeacon of Ely, to Charlotte, daughter of Captain George Hope, R.N.

At St. Peter-Port, Guernsey, R. A. Walters, Esq., Captain Madras Army, to Adelaide Barbare Anne, daughter of the late Lieut-Colonel Hunter Ward, 48th Regt.

At St. Helier's, Jersey, Wm. Harris Norton, Esq., to Elizabeth Teresa, daughter of Captain George F. Herbert, Royal Navy.

At Richmond, the Rev. Charles Francis Routledge, Fellow of King's College, Cambridge, one of H.M.'s Inspectors of Schools, to Dorothy Hester, daughter of the late Right Rev. Charles James Blomfield, D.D., Lord Bishop of London.

At Upton, Bucks, Augustus Henry, son of N. B. Lash, Esq., R.N., to Alicia E. de Clare, daughter of the late A. W. Quinlan, Esq., R.N.

At Liphton, near Liverpool, Reginald Harrison, Esq., surgeon, Liverpool, to Jane, daughter of the late John Baron, Esq., of Liverpool.

At Edinburgh, Captain the Hon. James Hay Fraser, Bengal Army, son of the late Hon. Wm. Fraser, to Marion Stirling, daughter of John Dundas, Esq., St. Andrew's-square, Edinburgh.

DEATHS.

August 15, at St. Mary's-place, Dublin, deeply regretted, Catherine, relict of the late John Wickham, Esq., for many years J.P. for the County of Limerick.

At the residence of his uncle, Rev. Father M'Mahon, P.P., Kennetty, King's County, Mr. Francis Costello, aged 26 years, son of the late Edward Costelloe, Esq., Deputy Clerk of the Peace for this City.

On Friday last, at his residence, Raynanna, county Clare, Mr. Wm. Reidy, a most charitable man, whose hand was ever open to the poor. His remains were interred on Sunday last, in Quin Abbey, followed to their final resting place by a large and respectable cortege.

At Lisdoonvarna, where he had been sojourning for the benefit of his health, Charles Blackmore, Esq., of Rathcoole, county Tipperary.

At Plassy, Julia Williams, an old and faithful servant.
At Cleragh House, county Tipperary, John, son of Thomas Burke, Esq., Thurles.

At Main-street, Clonmel, Ellen, wife of Mr. W. Keating.
At Fermoy, Mrs. Honora Agnes O'Gorman.
At Nelson-street, Tipperary, William, son of Mr. Alexander Lanpbier.

At Newcomen-terrace, Dublin, John Keane, Esq.
At Farmhill, Dundrum, county Dublin, Frances Anne, relict of the late Charles J. Bond, Esq., G.P.O.

At Bray, county Wicklow, Edward Stephen May, Esq., formerly of the Inniskilling Dragoons.

At Athboy, county Meath, Tottenham Alley, Esq., J.P., formerly of the 96th Regt.

At Kingstown, Arthur, son of the late Rev. Benjamin A. Newcombe, of Donaghmore, county Tyrone.

At Ballyshannon, Elizabeth Vescina, daughter of Captain Richard Litton, late 30th Regt.

At Seavon Rectory, George Daniel, the infant son of George Kinahan, Esq., of Roebuck-hill, county Dublin.

At Larne, county Antrim, Mr. James Barry, of Prince's-street, Belfast.

At Ballyrobin, county Antrim, Mr. Joseph Crawford.
In London, William Ludlow Sealy Allen, son of Francis Allen, Esq., Glanmire, Cork.

In London, Captain the Hon. A. J. Douglas, R.N.

At Liverpool, on his return from the Mauritius, Frederick Clarke, son of the Rev. Richard Clarke, of Geashill Rectory, King's County.

At The Bourne, near Maidenhead, Sarah Ann, Lady Sydney, wife of Sir Wm. Robert Sydney.

At Wangford, Suffolk, Susanna, daughter of the late Thos. Bolton, Esq., and niece of Admiral Viscount Nelson.

At the Vicarage, Whissendine, Rutland, the Rev. Henry Applebee, M.A.

At Greenwich, Mary, widow of the late Frederick Finch, Esq., M.R.C.S.

Some of the finest beddi
30 pairs of blankets and counte
Kitchen furniture, culin
Mangle, coppers, gar
Venetian blinds, office tabl Passage figures and Glass hot frame, hand glas
Choice green-house
And an Endless Variety o

JOHN BERN

REGS most respectfully to
been favoured with directi Sell the above Effects by

STRICTLY UNRESERV

Until recently the House wa
of the going Judges of Assize,
by the late Doctor Gore with el Furniture, China, Plated Ware sites, and Bedding, for their a Parties furnishing will find th
portunity for supplying themse
superior character.

JOHN BERN

August 16.

T E A

Best Black Tea, ...

Finest Congou, ...

Fine Congou, ...

Good Stout Congou, ...

Sound Congou, ...

C O F F E

Good Coffee, ...

Superior Coffee, ...

Best Coffee, ...

SCARR BRO

TEA-ME

15, PATRICK-

LIMERIK

April 26